Two Officers Killed for not Saluting—Fire in Walla Walla—Other Chilean News.

SANTIAGO DE CHILI, Jan. 27.—A special dispatch to the Associated Press says: The text of Chili's reply to President Harrison's ultimatum has not yet been made public. It is awaited upon all sides with intense interest. The substance of it has already been indicated in the associated press dispatches from here, and this, so far as learned, meets with general approval on the part of the intelligent classes. The news that President Harrison sent a special message to congress Monday relating to the points at issue between the United States and Chili and the dispatches published here yesterday and today, describing the attitude of the American public toward the matter, caused no little popular excitement here. The Baltimore incident, the President's ultimatum and message and the dangerous tensions of relations between the two governments were the sole topics of conversation in all circles. They dominated the newspaper columns, to the virtual exclusion of all other questions. The younger and hotter-headed portion of the public continue to indulge in much war talk. Rather than have the government acknowledge its fault or apologize for its utterances, these young patriots declare they would rather resort to arms. Such talk as this, it is believed, reflects the opinion of a large element of the common people. Naval officers are reported to be much stirred up at the thought that they may be called upon to salute the Stars and Stripes. They go so far as to say, according to reports published in today's papers, they would see the Chilean fleet sunk before they would salute the American flag. Whatever the government may say officially in withdrawing the offensive note of Matia, there are abundant indications that Matia's popularity will not in any way be decreased because of the authority of that now famous dispatch. Instead, it looks very much as though this was the most popular act of his administration. While the cabinet is deliberating upon the precise form of language in which to apologize to the United States, preparations are actively going on by a committee of leading citizens to honor Matia with a grand, imposing banquet. This affair takes place Saturday and promises to be a brilliant affair.

Just From Chili.
TACOMA, Jan. 27.—T. J. Edmondson has returned from Chili, where he spent eighteen months. While there he was permanent in commercial matters and was personally acquainted with President Montt and many navy officers. He says: "Unless the United States does subdue Chili and make her apologize, the life of American citizens will not be worth a 5-cent piece in that country, or any other part of Spanish America from Mexico to Patagonia. They will be killed or driven out of the country. The sentiment of the people and press when I was in Chili and now, as shown by letters and papers recently received, is impertinent. Life there is almost unbearable to Americans, but nothing like what it will become if Chili is not made suitably apologize. Chili is not a republic any more than Russia is. It is an oligarchy."

Peasants Driven Desperate.
ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 27.—Matters in the famine-stricken districts are getting worse. In many instances the ignorant peasantry, exasperated by hunger and sickness, have turned against the doctors on account of the latter's failure to effect cures, and physicians are fleeing in terror. In some cases where governors of provinces have threatened to call out the militia to preserve order, peasants have plainly told the governors if the militia was called out they would kill the governors. In some instances the peasants have attempted to derail passenger trains by tearing up portions of the tracks. The men of a regiment stationed at Villa have been displaying a mutinous spirit, and today refused to salute an artillery officer. The officer thereupon drew a revolver and shot two non-commissioned officers. As he was about to kill a third, the men complied with the regulations saluted.

Not at Liberty to Tell.
PARIS, Jan. 27.—A representative of the Associated Press today asked United States Minister Reid if negotiations were being carried on in Paris for reductions in American duties on silks and wines, in return for reciprocal advantages in French duties. After Reid had read the article, he said: "There is nothing in it," adding, "I am not at liberty to tell what the negotiations are about."

Hotel Destroyed by Fire.
WALLA WALLA, Jan. 27.—Fire this morning destroyed the Washington hotel, a two-story building owned by Stine & Stone. Loss on the building and contents, $2300; insurance, $1300. The adjoining building was owned by J. L. Miller, of Spokane, and was to the extent of $500 damages; fully insured. The firemen worked heroically and deserve great praise.

In Favor of Chili.
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The Herald's cable from Panama says the feeling in Columbia is favorable to Chili and the Spanish press believes Uncle Sams move is a death blow to the pan-American union. It is understood in case of trouble the vessels of the South American Steamship Company will be placed at the service of Chili.

Little Prospect of an Early Fight.
SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 27.—There is little prospect of an early fight between the troops and Garza's men. It is stated upon reliable authority that Garza has only two men with him—his brother and an experienced scout; that they hide in the brush during the day, and venture out only at night to obtain supplies from friendly ranchmen.

Mexico Takes a Hand.
CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 27.—El Tiempo, the organ of the church party, commenting on the Chilean news in tomorrow's issue, attacks the people of the United States, calling them an execrable race of cowards, who, because they are powerful, would attack a small nation.

Frightfully Mangled.
POCATELLO, Jan. 27.—This morning A. D. Moon, a young brakeman in the employ of the Union Pacific was so badly injured by the cars that he died this afternoon. As he stepped from an engine his foot slipped on the ice and he was thrown under the wheels. He was frightfully mangled.

Chinese Still Coming In.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Justice John F. McCright, of the supreme court of British Columbia, is in the city. "Customs officials tell me," he said yesterday, "that large numbers of Chinamen still continue to enter the United States through the Canadian provinces. The United States government maintains a steady old cruiser, the maximum speed of which is eight knots an hour. Some enterprising citizens of Victoria own a craft which can run sixteen miles an hour, so they quietly drop down from Victoria and easily elude the vigilance of the American officers. It will be impossible to keep Chinamen from entering the United States unless some change is made."

England Still Meddling.
LONDON, Jan. 27.—The Post comments upon the inability of the United States to fight Chili except by a prolonged struggle upheld by superior wealth. It condemns Egan and says: "An incredible congress will support Harrison, whose message is most interesting as marking an epoch in the history of democracy in its natural home. Surnise without evidence, and suspicion which refuses to be allayed, form a bad foundation for a declaration of war. If Harrison is serious he is scarcely mindful of the extreme responsibility imposed by power. If he is merely thinking of elections he cannot be said to consult the dignity or interests of the country by thus playing with fire."

New Line of Freight Steamers.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—It is stated this morning that some dozen wealthy merchants of San Francisco have decided to organize a California corporation, which shall have for its object the maintenance of a line of freight steamers between this port and New York. Six steamers are to be built here at a cost of $2,000,000, and the money is to be raised by selling at par a total of $1,000,000 in stock and issuing bonds to a like amount. The stock is said to be virtually all taken now, and provisions made for promptly floating the bonds.

A Murderer Captured.
FAIRHAVEN, Wash., Jan. 27.—George Placer, the Indian who murdered Moses Jenkins, the old scout, was caught this morning at 11 o'clock by a deputy sheriff.

CATCHING ON RATHER FAST.
A Young Chinaman Plays a Very Sleek Confidence Game—A Murderer Captured.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—There were no new facts developed today in regard to the Chilean affair. Members of the cabinet preserve perfect silence on the subject of Chili's concessions, and will not admit or deny anything. Secretary Tracy is confined to his home today with a slight attack of rheumatism. Captain Schley, commander of the Baltimore, said this morning it would be improper for him to make any statement whatever in regard to what was said during his conference with the president and secretary of the navy. Lieutenant McCrea, of the Baltimore, is in the city. No movements of naval vessels were announced today. Representative Blount, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs, called at the department of state and had a chat with Secretary Blaine on the question of submitting to congress the reply of the Chilean government to the so-called ultimatum of the United States. The additional correspondence will probably be sent to congress in a few days.

In the Senate.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—In the senate among the bills presented was one incorporating the society of American florists.

Hale from the committee on naval affairs, reported back the resolution requesting the president to report what steps, if any, were taken to have soundings made between San Francisco of any point on the Pacific coast and the Hawaiian islands; agreed on.

Morgan offered a resolution directing the secretary of state to send to the senate copies of the correspondence with the government of China relating to the non-acceptance of Blair as United States minister to China. After considerable discussion Morgan modified the resolution so as to request the president to furnish the correspondence, if not incompatible. It was then agreed to.

The resolution heretofore reported from the committee on privileges and elections, declaring Chilton of Texas entitled to hold his seat in the senate, was agreed to without division.

The senate then proceeded to business on the calendar.

In the House.
In the house a bill was introduced providing that all oleomargarine transported into any state or territory, or remaining therein for use, consumption, sale or storage, shall, upon arrival there, be subjected to the laws thereof in the manner as though such oleomargarine was produced in such state or territory. The bill was referred to the committee on agriculture.

Martin, of Indiana, presented a resolution, calling on the president to publish all correspondence whatever had by the United States government upon matters concerning the Chilean trouble. Referred to committee on foreign affairs.

A number of bills of little importance were introduced and referred. The case then proceeded to further consideration of the proposed rules.

A Smart Chinaman.
NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Chu Fong, the Christianized young Chinaman, who was on trial yesterday in the general sessions before Judge Cowing on an indictment charging him with forging the signature of Vuen Sing, the president of the Chinese Six Companies, on a promissory note for $1500, is probably the brightest-looking young Chinaman in this city. He wears handsome clothing and expensive jewelry. He formed the acquaintance of Lawyer Seth R. Johnson in the Sixth Avenue Baptist church in Brooklyn on the night that he renounced heathenism and was baptized into Christianity. Soon afterward he presented himself at Lawyer Johnson's office and induced Mr. Johnson to discount notes apparently made by Chinese merchants. Chu Fong is the Chinaman who is accused of having organized a Chinese syndicate to smuggle opium. He collected $5000 from the syndicate and pretended to order opium from China. The opium was consigned to a fictitious party in Newark. When the representative of the syndicate opened the barrel it was found to be filled with flour of a cheap grade.
