FAVORED BY ASTORIA.

She Prefers an Open River to Spending Money on Deep Channels.

THE LOTTERY BACKING OUT.

The Company Will Withdraw Its Application for a Charter.

THE CONVENTION OF ASSESSORS.

Sir Morrel McKenzie Dead—No Money to pay the Taxes—Chicago Wants a Wigwam.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Senator Dolph today received a letter from the Chamber of Commerce at Astoria, inclosing a set of resolutions passed by that body, urging congress not to appropriate money for a deep water channel on the Columbia and Willamette rivers from Astoria to Portland, but urging that the money be spent at the Cascade and The Dalles. This memorial was addressed to the committee on appropriations, but as it does not have charge of the river and harbor bill, which will contain the appropriations, Senator Dolph forwarded it to the commerce committee. It caused some amusement in the committee-room, and one of the members said it looked rather selfish on the part of Astoria, after having money for the completion of the jetty at the mouth of the Columbia to desire to prevent better commerce on the river above that town. It is doubtful if the commerce committee will take any notice of this petition, and Senator Dolph will certainly insist that an appropriation be made for a deep-water channel on the Willamette and Columbia rivers.

THE LOUISIANA LOTTERY.

The Company Will Withdraw Its Application for a Recharter.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 3.—John A. Morris, of the Louisiana Lottery company, today issued a lengthy address to the people of Louisiana, setting forth the facts in connection with lottery matters. He says in 1883 he was approached by a number of democrats of Louisiana, who urged upon him the propriety of submitting to the legislature a proposition for a constitutional amendment, which would grant him and associates the lottery privilege for twenty-five years, in consideration of a license sufficiently high to be of material assistance to the state. He was assured the proposition would meet with little, if any opposition, and those suggestions prompted him to make announcements to the effect that he would give $500,000 per annum as a license. After the Mississippi floods, at the solicitation of a number of gentlemen, he increased the amount to $1,250,000. Then began the crusade inside and outside the state, which resulted in the enactment by congress of the anti-lottery postal law. Morris says he was informed by a number of able attorneys that this law was a violation of the rights of state and the freedom of the press, and such, in their opinion, would be the decision of the supreme court of the United States. Realizing now that they had been incorrect in their opinion of public sentiment, and not desiring to see the people of Louisiana involved in a strife over the question, Morris declares they would not accept nor qualify it under the amendment, even if it were to be adopted by the people in April next. As the supreme court of the United States has decided the anti-lottery postal law constitutional, it is his purpose to uphold that law and abstain from violating it in any manner. Confident that the granting of another lottery charter would be the cause of continued agitation, and discontent on the part of a number of citizens of Louisiana, he and his associates would be unwilling to accept such a charter, even though it was given without the payment of $1 license.

The G. A. R. State Encampment.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 3.—Sedgwick post, G. A. R., and relief corps are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of delegates and visitors to the state encampment, which will be held here Thursday and Friday, the 11th and 12th. Thursday afternoon the session will be at the opera house, where the city will welcome the encampment, after which they will proceed to the state house, where the sessions of the encampment will be held, the G. A. R. occupying the hall of representatives and the W. R. C. the senate chamber. There will be ample accommodations for all the visitors during the encampment. The hotels have given reduced rates, and, aside from this, the guests will be entertained generally throughout the city.

Felt in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb. Feb. 3.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here about 9:30 tonight, lasting but a few seconds. In Jones street a large bank of earth caved in partly wrecking the frame house No. 145, and burying P. H. Green, his wife and two children in the debris. Green was badly injured, but the remainder of the family escaped unhurt.

Sir Morrel McKenzie.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—Sir Morrel McKenzie, the distinguished physician, who has been seriously ill with bronchitis, died today.

Sir Morrel McKenzie was born in Essex in 1837, and was educated in London, Paris and Vienna. In 1863 he founded a hospital for diseases of the throat in Golden square, London. In the same year he was elected house physician to the London hospital, becoming in due course full physician, and was appointed lecturer on diseases of the throat, an appointment he held till the time of his death. He was the author of numerous publication on laryngological subjects, and in particular of the treatment of the diseases of the throat and nose which is a standard work. He was in attendance on Emperor Frederick during the latter's illness, and was knighted in 1887.

No Money to Pay the Tax.

FARGO, N. D., Feb. 3.—Lee Lum, a Chinaman, found illegally in this country four months ago, was arrested at Grand Forks, but was discharged by Commissioner Carrol. He was re-arrested and brought before Commissioner Spaulding at Fargo. He was ordered sent to China. Judge Thomas has reversed this and orders him sent to Canada. In order to cross the Canadian line $50 must be paid the Canadian government by somebody. The prisoner has no money and the marshal will not pay it. The prisoner may stay in jail for an indefinite period.

Chicago Will Build a Wigwam.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—The local committee of democrats to provide for the coming national convention has abandoned all hope of securing the exposition building, and this afternoon decided to build a wigwam capable of seating 15,000 persons, in which the convention will be held. A site on the lake front on which to erect the building will probably be secured.

Denouncing the English Press Unfair.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Goldwin Smith made a few remarks last night at the dinner to Captain Schley, of the Baltimore. He said he gladly took advantage of the occasion to express his regret as an Englishman at the repeated utterances of a portion of the British press respecting the Chilean affair. He said he hoped the worst had come to the United States and the best stayed behind. Speaking of criticisms on the president's message on the Chilean question, Smith said, to him it seemed an entirely temperate, dignified and logically conclusive document. Captain Schley also spoke briefly. He says the steamer Baltimore always stood as the representative of the great power under whose flag she sailed. He referred to the efficiency of the crew of the vessel, and said that if the circumstances during the late Chilean affair required it, he thought the members of the crew would have acted in such a manner as to merit the approval of the government. "The cloud of war has now blown over," the captain said, "but the affair proved very suggestive of the fact that war was liable to come upon a nation at any time." He hoped it would serve as a warning to the people, and demonstrate that it is time to consider the means of how best to protect the country and its flag.

A Street Car Blown Up.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 3.—A Wood's Run car of the Manchester line, having on board thirteen new employees of the company, was wrecked early this morning by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge which had been placed on the track. Though the concussion was so severe that the car was thrown from the track and badly wrecked, and windows were shattered in all the houses on the side of the street nearest the track over which the car was running, not one person was badly injured. Several of the men were cut by flying glass, but no one was seriously hurt. Many persons were thrown out of their beds by the force of the explosion. The strikes have been quiet for several days and it was thought they had abandoned the fight and all trouble was over.

The Third Party in Georgia.

DOUGLASSVILLE, Ga., Feb. 3.—The first third-party demonstration in Georgia was held here yesterday under the auspices of C. C. Post. He is the campaign leader of the party in the state. He says that the party intends to cut off all relationship with the two leading political parties. There will be a full state ticket, with C. H. Ellington for governor. There will also be an electoral ticket in the field next November. L. L. Polk and Leland Stanford are looked on as the probable candidates for the presidency. "We can carry the state," said Mr. Post. "I am perfectly confident of it."

A STREET CAR BLOWN UP.

It was the Work of Strikers—The Third Party in Georgia—Digging Up Buried Cities.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Ward Waterbury, the 8-year-old son of Charles P. Waterbury, a wealthy farmer of Pound Ridge, Westchester county, was kidnaped by unknown men Monday morning, while on his way to school. On that day the boy started for school at 8 o'clock in the morning. As he did not return at the usual hour in the afternoon his mother felt anxious about him. In the evening the boy being still away, the father went in search of him. He went all around the neighborhood, but without success. On his return home he found his nephew, Charles Waterbury, waiting for him with a letter which the nephew said had been given him by a stranger. It reads as follows:

"Sir: Unless you are prepared to deliver the sum of $6000 in cash as a ransom to us, you will never see your son again. The money to be at Miller's bridge, in front of Miller's mill, one mile east of Bradford courthouse, at midnight Tuesday."

There was no signature to the letter. The nephew said it had been given to him by a rough-looking man whom he met on the road driving in a small wagon.

POUND RIDGE, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Mr. Charles P. Waterbury, whose 8-year-old boy was kidnaped Monday morning, went to the bank yesterday and drew out $6000, which he says he will pay to the abductors of the child and make no fuss, as soon as they produce the little one. The detectives and local police were kept busy driving from one place to another yesterday, hunting through deserted farmhouses and outbuildings and in suspicious places, for some trace of the boy, but at nightfall they had not succeeded in finding any. Mr. Waterbury felt sure that no one took the child for a grudge against him, but merely for the sake of a ransom.

Later—Ward Waterbury, the boy kidnaped Monday near Pound Ridge, Conn., was brought home early this morning by John Close, of Stanwick, Conn. The boy had been left at the home of Close by a strange man, who then ran away.
