LOCAL BREVITIES.

Ex-Governor Moody is registered at the Umatilla house.

Dr. Hugh Logan left for Portland last evening on a short visit to his son.

Miss Mason's soiree last night was a very successful and enjoyable affair.

The subject of Oregon at the world's fair has even dropped out of the press.

Mr. Billen of Hood River and M. Rand Jr. of Hood River were in town today.

Mrs. John Cates returned today from a visit to Mr. George Herbert at Hood River.

A. W. Brainer the proprietor of The Dalles and Prineville stage line is at the Umatilla House.

A. Noltner of Portland, editor of the Dispatch is in the city in the interest of the dalles portage railroad.

Willard Taylor of Dufur left a substantial token of his regard for the CHRONICLE at this office today.

Hon. Peter Paquet, brother of O. L. Paquet of this county, has been appointed receiver at the Oregon City land office.

The funeral of the late John Belat has been postponed till tomorrow, and will take place from the family residence of J. H. Phirman at 1 o'clock p. m.

From reading this week's issue of the Dufur Dispatch one gathers that the people out there are very much interested in the new grade up Tygh hill.

The funeral of Mrs. L. Keith will be held from the family residence of Mr. G. W. Stewart on Ninth street tomorrow (Sunday) at 2 p. m. Rev. A. C. Spencer officiating.

Congregational church services tomorrow (Sunday) at 11 o'clock in the court house. Sunday school at 12:15. Christian endeavor at 5:30 p. m. Union services at 7:30 o'clock p. m. preaching by Rev. O. D. Taylor pastor of the Baptist church.

Methodist services will be held in the school house tomorrow, as the new church will not be ready for use. Class-meeting at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 and Sunday School at 12:20. The Epworth League meeting will be held in the school house also, at 4 p. m. No services at night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker of Hood River return to their home at that place this evening. Mr. Parker has been in the city since the 12th of November, superintending the erection of three fine buildings on Fourth street for Dr. D. Siddall. The work of Mr. Parker has given the highest satisfaction to the Doctor who speaks in the warmest terms of that gentleman as an all round first class man and mechanic, and the CHRONICLE from its own personal knowledge, endorses the doctor's sentiments.

We have received a letter from an esteemed reader of the CHRONICLE, who lives on Juniper Flat, complaining bitterly and justly about Tygh Hill "slide."

The writer says some things that prove he could not have known when he wrote the letter what steps have been taken to build a new grade and he will agree with the CHRONICLE that it is useless to discuss the question who was to blame that a road has not been built years ago. The main thing, now that an appropriation is assured, is to put the money to the best possible use and hurry the work through so that people may have a way to get to market with next fall's crop.

There is nothing small about the Willamette valley. Its press and leading public men are heartily for a portage railway at The Dalles.—Salem Journal.

The Dalles Electric, Telephone & Power Co., capital stock $40,000 has filed articles of incorporation at Salem, H. C. Nielsen, Geo. C. Blakeley, Geo. Ruch and G. V. Bolton are the incorporators.

Dr. McLean, of Portland, State Veterinarian, in town Saturday, returned from Wamic, where he had examined and condemned to be killed two horses belonging to Geo. Miller, of Wamic, as they had gleet, a contagious disease nearly always incurable, and much resembling glanders. He examined all that had been exposed, but found no others with symptoms.—Dufur Dispatch.

Stole a Mummy. It is seldom a live white man steals a dead Indian, but this very anomaly has occurred at Pendleton.

Several months ago some curiosities in the shape of mummified Indians were taken from the Indian graveyard at Long Island, on the Columbia river, near Umatilla. One, the remains of an Indian child about twelve years old, was presented to Dr. Smith of this city. He left it in a room in the Thompson & Flack building, and contemplated sending it to a medical college in the east. A few weeks ago, when he took Will Hall Poore of the Irrigation Age to view the curiosity, the mummy turned up missing.

Recently a pale, black-eyed young man who had a boot-black stand at the Pantheon, and prospered for a time but finally lost his pile by gambling and other recklessness, left the city. He borrowed money, and his departure was mourned by his creditors. Later it was discovered by the officers that the young man, whose name is George E. Deletis, was negotiating for the sale of an Indian mummy at Portland for the handsome sum of $350. So Deputy Sheriff Hailey, who went to Salem with prisoners, corralled the bootblack and will bring him back on this evening's train.

Thus do the vices of life lead their victims into temptation, even to pilfering a mummified Indian, which surely ought to have few attractions for the covetous.—East Oregonian.

North Yakima Rejoices Over the Success of the Second Flowing Well.

Yakima is happy over the fact that a second well of flowing artesian water has been added to her treasures. The success of the first attempt to secure artesian water was a joyful surprise, but it was feared that it was only a lucky strike, but now that another strong stream has been secured, and at a depth of only 150 feet, the problem of the irrigation of those lands lying above the ditch lines is considerably solved. The new well is eight inches in diameter, and the flow is estimated at 500,000 gallons per diem. The drill is still being sent down with good effect, the discharge of water constantly increasing as a greater depth is attained, and it is thought that the flow will exceed that of the first well very shortly.

There are now four artesian well plants in Yakima county, and a fifth, and heavier one, will at once be ordered by the company on the Moxee. The first well is 350 feet deep, and flows 650,000 gallons per day. In the second well the water is within ten feet of the surface, and operations are now suspended awaiting heavier machinery to sink the shaft deeper. It is already over 300 feet deep.

An Amphibious Steamer.

What else shall we call a steamer that travels on both land and water? That is just what a little steamer which has just been finished in Sweden has done on its trial trip, and there seems to be no reason why it may not be a successful traveler on land as well as in water. There are two lakes near Boras that are separated by a considerable strip of land. The object of the strange steamer is to save expense in the transportation of freight across the lake, particularly the avoidance of double shipment. Rails have been laid across the land slip and the steamer is so constructed that by its own engines it can be run from the water upon the rails and then roll across until it dips into the other lake. The little steamer is of ten-horse power and can accommodate sixty passengers in addition to its freight. It is very appropriately named the Swaven, which is Swedish for swan.

A Remarkable Cow.

Hess Green of Birch Creek, according to reports, is the owner of a most remarkable cow. At the age of four years it has a family of seven calves to its credit. Twins were born when the animal was two years old, again at the age of three years, and this year triplets appeared, one black and two red calves. All the calves are alive and in good condition. Such a cow should be dressed "in the finest silk."

The gun, "Big Betsy," recently shipped across the continent to San Francisco, will shoot fourteen miles, but each shot cost $850, enough to employ a man a whole year at productive work. In other words, every time the Big Betsy is touched off a laborer's wages for a year goes up in smoke, absolutely wasted.—East Oregonian.

BORN. In this city, Feb. 6th, 1892, the wife of L. E. Ferguson, a daughter.

LULLABY IN BLACK.

I see a gray coon in de corn:
Sleep, baby, sleep.
I hear de miah blow his horn:
Sleep, baby, sleep.

I see a nighab at de gray coon shoot.
I hear de echo of de old horn's toot.
An' I hear an owl in de wild wood hoot:
Sleep, baby, sleep.

A 'gator's gruntin' in de ole bayou—
Sleep, baby, sleep—
At a fat big crawfishin' in de flue:
Sleep, baby, sleep.
His teeth am big, an' wide an' white,
An' he am chucklin' at de great big bite
He's gwine to hab outen dat big tonight:
Sleep, baby, sleep.

I hear de wild geese flyin' by:
Sleep, baby, sleep.
De air am ringin' wid dere cry:
Sleep, baby, sleep.
It's gwine to be cole, but you am snug
As de hoppin' lizard an' de little June bug,
So I'll leah you now wid a good-night hug:
Sleep, baby, sleep.

James W. Scott, publisher of the Chicago Herald and the Chicago Evening Post, recently refused the largest salary ever offered any man in any profession or line of business in this country. Joseph Pulitzer, of the New York World, offered Mr. Scott a salary of $100,000 a year for a term of five years and other inducements if he would give his entire time and attention to the management of the World. In declining it Mr. Scott, declined a yearly salary double that paid the President of the United States.

Inter Ocean: England and a number of valiant Democratic editors are demanding "the recall of Minister Egan at once." Egan is an Irishman and a Republican. For the former reason he is offensive to England and for the latter reason is offensive to England and for the latter reason is odious to the "peace-on-any-terms" Democrats. Egan will stand on his record.

More than 2,500 Demorest medals have been won by the young people of Nebraska, and more than 1000 by those of the states of Minnesota, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Tennessee and Carolina. The first one to be awarded in The Dalles will be completed for February 15, and all good citizens should encourage Oregon young people to keep up with the procession.

A Minneapolis man bet $250 last Sunday that he could outrun a railroad train across a bridge. He lost the bet. The pastor, in his funeral discourse improved the occasion to expatiate on the sinful folly of betting.

Jay Gould has taken to going to church, and a New York minister thinks it is because of the recent bomb thrower's attack on Russell Sage. Maybe Jay has just discovered that salvation is free.

The era of cheap freights has arrived on this coast, when foreign vessels load on the Sound for 17 shillings, and whalebacks carry coal from Seattle to San Francisco for $1.35 a ton.

The inventor of the whaleback freight ship has made a model of that type which he claims will be the best boat ever devised for coast defenses.

"If I had two loaves of bread" said Mohomet, "I would sell one of them and buy white hyacinths for they would feed my soul."

Mortgages in Morrow county are comparatively scarce when compared with other countries. This denotes prosperity.

La Grippe!

The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This Remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to discover a single case that has not recovered, or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. daw

As Staple as Coffee.

"Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is as staple as coffee in this vicinity. It has done an immense amount of good since its introduction here." A. M. NORDELL, Maple Ridge, Minn. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. daw

For the Children.

"In buying a cough medicine for children," says H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. dw

They Speak From Experience.

"We know from experience in the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that it will prevent croup," says Messrs. Gadberty & Worley, Percy, Iowa. They also add that the remedy has given great satisfaction in this vicinity, and that they believe it to be the best in the market for throat and lung diseases. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A Receipt for Beauty.

A lady was seen to approach the county clerk a day or so ago some what after the style of the bashful young man seeking a marriage license, and after inquiring the fee for marriage license, and whether they would give any discount of the list for two or three, or if they were likely to have a special sale soon said, gentlemen: I have three daughters who were till a short time since common looking young ladies, and acting upon my advice they began eating Quaker Oats and bread made of Compressed Yeast. That they grew rapidly beautiful you may imagine for after being seen the first time upon the street, each received ten proposals from some of your finest young men. Leaving the unmarried young men in the office in deep regret, she walked out. A pointer for you, buy your groceries from John Booth, the grocer.
