A meeting of all citizens of The Dalles and Wasco county who are interested in the success of republican principles during the coming county, state and National campaign is called for tonight at 8 o'clock at the court house for the purpose of organizing a young men's republican club.

John Booth is not one of those who hate the light because his deeds are evil. He has therefore imported from the east, at great expense, a magnificent arc light globe to correspond with the color of his store front and now its lurid rays guide the hungry searcher after Quaker Oats and fine groceries to the best place in world to find them.

Jacob Craft has returned to The Dalles from a week's trip to the Nanansen country. He reports the farmers as all feeling in the best of spirits and all preparing to put in a large crop.

Building is still going on above the bluff as well as below it. A residence is being built for Julius Wiley near the corner of Eleventh and Liberty. Right on the corner J. T. Peters is going to erect a dwelling.

The Diamond Flouring Mills after a rest of about a month started up again Tuesday morning. This mill turns out an average of 55 barrels of flour per day. It has sufficient wheat to keep it running for about three months and before that time expires Mr. Curtiss expects to be able, without difficulty, to get enough to keep the mill busy till next harvest's crop is ready for market.

A private letter to David Graham of this city from a friend in Prineville has the following to say about the placer mines of Harney county: "Information received from reliable persons who have been at the mines assure me that there is a strip about two miles long and thirty feet wide that is very rich."

Arrangements are being made to hold a band boys' benefit concert tomorrow night, under the auspices of Dan Lewis, who has perhaps no superior in the world as a banjo player.

The bill for the boat railway at The Dalles and Calilo Falls and Ten Mile rapids was reported in the senate on Monday and placed on the calendar. The sum appropriated is $2,860,356.

Attention is called to the new time table of the D. P. & A. N. Co. The Regulator will be brought down from "Hungry Harbor" on Saturday and will renew her trip to the Cascades on Monday.

The grand jury was discharged yesterday forenoon after being in session three days, probably the shortest session ever held in this county. Only one true bill was found, that of the state vs. W. G. Avery and Al Mesplie.

Mr. Wallace McCamant a prominent young lawyer from Portland, now in attendance at the circuit court, has kindly consented to deliver a short address to the members of the young men's republican club at the county court room to-night.

condition and cleaner than it has been heretofore and the county hospital is in good condition, is clean and well kept, and the three inmates thereof are all cared for, and are well pleased and speak highly of their treatment.

The county treasurers books are well kept and his accounts are correct and accurate. Having finished our labor we respectfully ask to be discharged.
