Reports from the stock ranges are very satisfactory as then has been no loss and stock has come through in fine condition. The wool clip is expected to be very large and of fine staple.
The sun is making patches on its face nowadays, not an uncommon fact, anyone can see the spots or patches by taking a smoked glass, but these can be readily seen with the naked eye.

That was a somewhat peculiar and funny circumstance which happened yesterday when ex-Editor Middleton said the Sun Publishing Co., for wages. The papers were served by the Sun Publishing Co.'s Secretary Sheriff Cates, upon the Sun Publishing Co.'s President Judge Bradshaw, who ruled against the demurrer.

Hon. A. J. Dufur made the CHRONICLE office a pleasant visit this morning, during which the topic of conversation turned upon the effort, or rather the lack of effort, as it is confined to just a few persons, to secure funds for a decent representation at the Chicago World's Fair. The history of his efforts in 1876 should be read again now, showing what ought to stimulate Oregonians to duty.
Mr. Smith French has just returned from a short trip into Sherman county. From him we learn that the soil is in fine condition for the plow and that there is great activity among the farmers. The fall or winter wheat is looking well, and from present appearances, promises a fine harvest. Mr. French speaks in glowing terms of what he saw in the prosperous outlook of this and the adjoining county.

The M. E. Church edifice is rapidly nearing completion, the windows have been placed in the basement, and in another week those in the auditorium and lecture room will be placed in their frames. It is expected that the finishing touches will be done to the basement so as to admit of the society holding services in it next Sunday. The building is an ornament to the enterprise of the congregation and city.

J. Hudsaker of White Salmon, has in cultivation forty acres or less. He has made 4000 pounds of bacon which will bring $500; 500 pounds of lard, will bring $62.50; has sold fresh pork amounting to $75; $210 worth of beef; $300 worth of dried fruit; $250 worth of green fruit, and other little odds and ends, amounting to $135—making a total of $1532.50—from a cultivation of forty acres; and the orchard is only in its infancy. When all of our bench land is in fruit, as it should be, a nice little town at this point will be the result.—Golden-dale Sentinel.

The cutting into the bow of the steamer Astorian, a few nights since, is construed by some as showing that the U. P. R. "system" are determined to control the Columbia if they have to sink their opponents steamers. Hon. H. B. Parker, owner of the Astorian, is a hard hitter in a contest like this, and is able to hold his own in the courts or elsewhere. It is said that this collision with the R. R. Thompson cannot be shown as at all "purely accidental," when it comes to an investigation. The Astorian may not be so easily got rid of as was her predecessor, the Clara Parker.
The eccentricities of Vic. Trivett may never die out. Every "once in a while" something springs up to remind us of him and them. The latest is the Chinaman's dream. Vic. in his day, held that story as a club over the head of many an anti-Chinese. He advocated the coming of the Chinese, for, said he: "They come here to work, and there are now too many fellows here loafing about doing nothing, trying to live off their wits; they come into competition with me; and I tell you I am better pleased with the Chinese than with them." Vic. always asserted that if a white man or boy willfully abused a Chinese, some awful punishment would come upon them for their action, and the fate of the packers who killed their Chinese passengers in 1860, was related with a favorite relish on all occasions. Poor Vic. "With all thy faults" there are yet many who tenderly regard a memory for you.

There is an effort being made by the U. P. Company to get our merchants to sign a freight contract for the coming year, and thereby prevent all competition and opposition on the river. A number of merchants were talking the matter over this morning, and all were pronounced in their determination to sign no agreement to give all freight to any one company, especially the U. P. The experience of the past with that company is no incentive to further arrangements of an exclusive character, and the scheme now is to form a merchants' protective union and handle freight matters as a unit with any carrier. It is a good scheme and should be attended to at once.—Astoria Talk.

La Grippe!
The tendency of this disease toward pneumonia is what makes it dangerous. La Grippe requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of severe colds. This Remedy effectually counteracts the tendency of the disease to result in pneumonia, provided that proper care be taken to avoid exposure when recovering from the attack. Careful inquiry among the many thousands who have used this remedy during the epidemics of the past two years has failed to discover a single case that has not recovered or that has resulted in pneumonia. 25 cent, 50 cent and $1 bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d-4-w
