Not Disbanded.

Editor Chronicle:

I read with much regret in your Saturday's issue a notice signed "The Dalles Brass Band" which made the announcement that the Dalles Brass Band had been disbanded and that the ball to be held this evening would be given under the auspicises of other parties. This sir. is a strange announcement, I am secretary and musical director of the band, The town of Arlington has organized a and as such no lawful meetings of the . band could have been held without my The Antelope base ball club will cross knowledge. The question of disbanding dent the purpose and intent is the buildany regular meeting, and the question never came up at any special meeting called by me, or called at my suggestion. The records of the band show a membership of nine persons only, who have ever paid an initiation fee. Five of these attest the truthfulness of this statement and are determined that the band shall not be broken up. If the minority have taken steps to disband, it will be their duty to hand over the instruments they have been using to the majority. The records of the band show that at a regular meeting held on Tuesday the 2nd inst. it was unanimously agreed to hold the ball in Wingate's hall, the usual committee were appointed, the hall was rented, tickets issued, and invitations sent out. It was only after all these steps had been taken that the announcement was published, without the shadow of authority, that the band had disbanded. The band has not been disbanded and what is more, it is not going to be disbanded. The moment the minority shall give the proper notice to the band of their withdrawal, new members are in waiting to take their places. If the majority of the band have refull attendance is desired as an election hall, it was only at the request entirely of outside persons, whose sole consideration seemed to be the success of the entertainment. The ball will be held tonight as previously announced in Wingate's hall and I sincerely hope that the citizens of The Dalles will give it such patronage as will manifest that they are in hearty sympathy with those who are determined to maintain an organization that has long been the boast and pride of the city.

Respectfully, S. D. FISHER.
