This morning Dr. Rinehart, assisted by Dr. Logan and Mr. Will Moody removed a tumor, nearly as large as a man's fist from the neck of a young man named Slavin, who came all the way from North Yakima to place himself under the care of Dr. Rinehart. The operation was a complete success, and the patient is now resting nicely, with every hope of complete recovery.

"Dr." True, the fake tooth carpenter and bogus mineral salt peddler, who lately gulled the people of this town to the tune of about a thousand dollars or more, while in Pendleton the other day traded off off his pet monkey for a second-had watch. The new owner of the monkey then presented it to a saloon RULE office for the future meetings of the keeper who placed it among the other club, Editor Michell gave a rousing attractions of his whiskey mill.

A curious case, involving the ownership of a child, will come before Judge Bradshaw as soon as its present custodidians have responded to a writ of habeas corpus by presenting the child in court. A Japanese and his wife have possession of the child, and claim to be its parents, but the claim is denied by a Chinaman and his wife, who insist that they are its parents. Both parties are ready to do any amount of swearing in support of their claims, and it may take the wisdom of Solomon to unravel the mystery of the child's parentage.

From the Seattle Post-Intelligencer we learn that our former fellow townsman C. E. Bayard is one of a number of gentlemen who have filed in the auditor's office, Seattle, articles of incorporation of the Washington Consolidated Mining and Milling Company, with a capital stock of a million dollars. The company owns gold and silver claims named the Merchants, Buckeye and Ella in the Sawtooth mountains near Elk City, Idaho. Mr. Bayard is a member of the board of trustees. The company has gold bearing quartz that assays $50 to fiddle. The Dalles Republican Club.

Quite an enthusiastic meeting of The Dalles Republican Club was held last night when, after the usual routine business and the passage of a resolution instructing the executive committee to ecure the vacant rooms over the CHEONspeech in favor of a protective tariff and an honest dollar after which Hon. W. Lair Hill presented a masterly argument on behalf of the republican policy of protection. Mr. Hill claimed that the question of good wages, of profitable return for labor lay at the root of the whole protective system. Destrey protection and you reduce the income of the toiler to a level with that of the under paid labor of Europe. Reduce the toil of our laborers to a mere struggle for existence and you sap the foundation of our free government. A free government to be successful must have a pros perous and contented people.
