LOCAL BREVITIES. Hon. W. R. Ellis spent last night in the city and left for home on the noon passenger today.

Mr. Clark Fleck, for many months a member of the CHRONICLE force has just returned from a trip to Portland.

The owners of the Cosmopolitan hotel property today began the work of a thorough reconstruction of the foundations of that large building.

In the suit of Middleton vs. The Sun Publishing Co., tried before Justice Doherty today, judgment was rendered for the full amount of wages sued for.

John Fillion & Co., successors to Fillion Brothers, have temporarily opened an implement store in one of Moody's warehouses in the East End.

The attention of Judge Bradshaw, in the circuit court, was taken up almost wholly today in arguments of the suit in equity of Moody vs. Miller, a case of long standing.

The CHRONICLE is pleased to learn that the health of Hon. E. L. Smith of Hood River, which has long been a matter of serious regard to his many friends, is almost completely restored.

J. A. Nichols of Boyd is in the city. He reports plowing in full blast in his neighborhood and says the ground was never in better condition nor the prospects more hopeful for good crops.

Uncle Linus Hubbard has presented this office with a handsome double photograph, taken by D. C. Herrin of this city, of the Whaleback steamers Colgate Hoyt and C. W. Wetmore, passing through the Sault St. Marie canal.

Close to the hour of noon today six Indians were observed tenderly carrying the corpse of a fellow aborigine to the edge of the river below the mouth of Mill creek where they placed it in a skiff and started on a funeral procession to Memaluse island.

Mrs. A. W. Ferguson of Astoria, one of the old and respected pioneers of this city is visiting Mrs. Judge Thornbury.

Mrs. Ferguson's late husband was sheriff of this county away back in the 60's and was at one time grand worshipful master of the Masonic order of the state.

Judge Thornbury went down this morning on the Regulator to Hood River to familiarize himself with the necessities of that section in the matter of improving the eastern approach to the Hood River bridge and the grade on the state road leading down to Hayne's Spur.

Mr. P. Fagan received a large case of spring suitings today, and his customers cannot fail to be suited now, on call.

A meeting was called last night in this city for the purpose of organizing a local union of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Mr. K. B. Wilson, the gentlemanly traveling freight agent of the Northern Pacific railway has presented this office with a handsome mounted Rand & McNally map of the United States.

The crop of prisoners at the city jail was larger than usual last night, three drunks and one victim of impecuniosity having been pulled in.

The CHRONICLE office had the honor of a visit from W. L. Freeman, of Lower Fifteen-Mile, today. Mr. Freeman is the man who forced open a horse car belonging to the Union Pacific and jumped out his horse which the company was holding for an extra freight charge after a contract had been entered into to carry the horse for a specified sum.

The habeas corpus case reported yesterday, involving the ownership of a child, which was expected to be tried before Judge Bradshaw, has been settled, but just how is unknown to even Mr. E. B. Dufur, the attorney for the plaintiff.

No Hope. We are permitted to copy the following extract from a private letter received a few days ago from Washington and written by a gentleman well known in this city and one thoroughly familiar with what is going on at the capital.

"It is no use to hope for an appropriation for a public building at The Dalles. I have conversed with many democratic statesmen in the congress and of the lobby and all appear agreed that the Holman resolution was not meant for 'bunkum' but was in the line of practical politics and will be adhered to rigidly and the more particularly so when the republican state and districts are to be sufferers.

NORTHWEST NEWS. Wasco News. The general opinion seems to prevail among the farmers that but little if any, of the wheat has frozen out.

Wasco News. While Wasco leads in energetic efforts, commercial and mechanical enterprises, and is in the van of all competitive points, and we hail this fact with unalloyed joy upon our lips, and from the depth of our heart of hearts, it is also with unfeigned satisfaction and pleasure that we chronicle the fact that Sherman county does not lag behind any county in the state.

Notice to Contractors. GOLDENDALE, Feb. 23, 1892. The common council of the city of Goldendale will receive sealed bids for the lining of the reservoir of the City Water Works' reservoir to be lined with galvanized iron No. 26.

Bids will be opened on the 13th day of March at 12 o'clock noon. Contractors will be required to give good and sufficient bond for the completion of the work according to contract on or before April 1st 1892.

Address bids to H. C. Jackson City Clerk. H. C. JACKSON, City clerk. C. E. MARSHALL, Pres. of council. 2-24dt

I. O. O. F.

All members of Columbia Lodge No. 5 I. O. O. F. are urgently requested to be in attendance at the next regular meeting Friday evening, February 26th, as business of importance will come before the lodge.

Peter the Poet for Hermann.
