

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF DALLES CITY. Published Daily, Sunday Excepted. THE CHRONICLE PUBLISHING CO. Corner Second and Washington Streets, The Dalles, Oregon.

Terms of Subscription: Per Year $6.00, Per month by carrier $5.00, Single copy 5 cents.

STATE OFFICIALS: Governor S. Penneyer, Secretary of State W. W. McBride, Treasurer Phillip Metchan, Supt. of Public Instruction E. B. McElroy, Senators J. N. Dolph, J. H. Mitchell, Congressman J. H. Mitchell, State Printer Frank Baker.

COUNTY OFFICIALS: County Judge C. N. Thornbury, Sheriff D. L. Cates, Clerk J. B. Crossen, Treasurer Geo. Ruch, Commissioners H. A. Levens, Frank Kincaid, Assessor John E. Barnett, Surveyor E. F. Sharp, Superintendent of Public Schools Troy Shelley, Coroner William Michell.

The Keely cure for the liquor and opium habit has evidently made a good impression on the government. According to report Dr. Keely has just entered into a contract with the United States government to put his remedies and treatment in all national and state military homes of America.

Captain J. H. D. Gray of Astoria threatens, in case congress should fail to make the necessary appropriation for a boat railway at the dalles of the Columbia to resurrect the boat transfer scheme that gave excuse to the enemies of a portage railway at the last legislature to substitute this latter scheme for a "scow." The Lord deliver Eastern Oregon from the idiocies of Captain Gray.

The quickest cure of deformity on record is the case of two hump-backed passengers who arrived in New York from Havre. An examination of the lumps by the custom house officers found them filled with diamonds, pearls, rubies and other jewelry.

All objections to the appointment of Mr. Gilbert to the vacant judgeship of the ninth district by the people of Washington on the ground of his being an Oregon man have been set at rest by the discovery that Judge Gilbert has considerable landed property on the Sound.

The records of suicides has scarcely a parallel to the case that happened at St. Louis the other day, when Dr. Charles T. Breedlove of Baltimore, committed suicide because, as he said in a letter he left behind him, his love for a friend named Isaac Judson was beyond his control and he found it impossible to live without him.

H. L. Rodman was sent to the state asylum last Tuesday from Oakland, Oregon. The causes assigned for his insanity are religion and the farmers' alliance.

ASTORIAN. Recently an English tourist visited Greenland and in his valise was a big red apple. The customhouse men having never seen one before, and being unable to find anyone who had, took it for a bomb, and made the Englishman sit down and eat it. They were quite put out when he didn't explode and shatter things.

There are about a thousand republican statesmen in Oregon who, the Telegram says, will hope that there is truth in the rumor that Dolph will be appointed to the supreme bench, for then there would be another United States senator to elect next winter, and each one would imagine that he might be the man. But how would Hon. Joseph Simon do? The rest of them wouldn't be in it.

Notice. All Dalles City warrants registered prior to September 1, 1890, will be paid if presented at my office. Interest ceases from and after this date. Dated February 8th, 1892. O. KINERSLEY, Treas. Dalles City.

Notice. R. E. French has for sale a number of improved ranches and unimproved lands in the Grass Valley neighborhood in Sherman county. They will be sold very cheap and on reasonable terms. Mr. French can locate settlers on some good unsettled claims in the same neighborhood. His address is Grass Valley, Sherman county, Oregon.

For the Children. "In buying a cough medicine for children," says H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. dw

The loser of a postal note for a small sum, will find same by calling at this office. 25-211.

The Musical Well of Tacoma. One of the most curious wells in the west is on the place of Henry M. Henderson on Oakes avenue. This well can play on a dozen different musical instruments at the same time, and has done it, which is an accomplishment that no human being is known to possess. The well is about 400 feet deep. At nearly all hours of the day or night a wind blows up from the bottom of it and whistles through the cracks in the tight board covering. When the wind does not blow out it seems to be sucked in by the well.

An abundant supply of good water is in the well at all times, and where the wind comes from or where it goes is a mystery which Mr. Henderson has not solved. One day not long ago Mr. Henderson collected all the musical instruments he could—amounting to eighty—from his neighbors and friends. He bored holes in the boards covering the well and at one aperture placed a cornet, at another a bass horn, at another a clarinet, then a fife, an immense tin horn about three yards long which he had made, a month organ and other instruments up to the number mentioned. One after another they began to blow as he put them in. The hoarse growl of the bass horn mingled with the clarion tones of the cornet and clarinet, etc. When all were going the din was terrible, and there did not seem to be a good note sounded. The wind does not come up from the well in a steady blow, but in gusts of more or less force, and it was amusing as well as astonishing to hear the old bass and the nine foot tin tube snort together.—Tacoma Herald.

Cocoa Butter. According to a report made by the British vice consul at Berlin the production of an edible fat from the marrow of the cocoon has been carried on for the last two years by a firm at Mannheim, the process having been discovered three years before by Dr. Schlieke. Factories having the same object in view are about to be established at Paris and at Amsterdam. The nuts come from the South Sea islands and also from certain places on the African and South American coasts.

The butter, which is sold at less than half the price of ordinary butter in London, or from thirteen to fifteen cents per pound, contains from 60 to 70 per cent of fat and from 25 to 25 per cent of organic matter. Its color is white and it is of an agreeable taste, is suitable for cooking purposes and is being purchased by the poor, who prefer it to margarine. Being free from acid it digests with greater ease than dairy butter, and is preferable in other ways to the bad butter which too often finds its way to market. It is also a more attractive compound than the various preparations called margarine, some of which have very questionable origin.—Goldthwaite's Geographical Magazine.

The Cause of Texas Fever. The department of agriculture is at present giving earnest attention to the study of animal parasites, with a view to finding out methods for fighting against some of them which cause a loss of many millions of dollars yearly to farmers. It has made a big discovery recently in relation to the fatal disease of cattle called Texas fever, which is caused by a minute animal called a protozoan that feeds on the red corpuscles in the blood and destroys them. Recent developments of knowledge reveal the protozoa as producers of morbid complaints. It has been ascertained that the cause of malaria is a protozoan which feeds on the blood corpuscles, and another microscopic foe of like description is responsible for certain forms of dysentery. Undoubtedly many disorders not now understood will eventually be referred to a similar origin.—Washington Star.

A Pathetic Story. A few Sundays ago the congregation in Old Market hall, Richmond, waited for the pastor to open the service. A woman, clad in deep mourning, rose in a far end of the large hall and steadily pressed her way toward the stand in front of the congregation. The pastor saw her approaching and stepped to meet her. As he grasped her hand she said with faltering voice, "I want to give you five cents which my little boy handed me as he was dying, and said, 'Please give this to help build the Old Market church,' and," continued his sorrowing mother, "I want you to have it, and I want to put it in your hand myself." And placing the precious coin in the pastor's hand she retraced her steps and took her place among the congregation.—Richmond Times.

Crops and Prices. Housekeeper—Why are apples so high in price? Market Man—Cause they're scarce, mum.

"But the papers said the crop was so enormous that apples were rotting on the trees all over the country." "Yes'm. That's why they're scarce. It didn't pay to pick 'em."—New York Weekly.

A Scheme for Moving Vessels. A scheme for taking vessels of twenty feet draft through the Canadian canals by means of steel pontoons placed under them is being urged upon the Canadian government. The expense of this system would be about $500,000, while to deepen the canals sufficiently would cost many millions of dollars.—Exchange.

The number of emigrants from the United Kingdom to America during eight months of last year was 109,051, an increase of 3,000 over the same period of 1890. Of these 41,578 were from Ireland, an increase of 1,437.

Telescopio steel masts or rods are to be used in lighting the public squares in Brussels. The object of this system is to preserve the beauties of the parks in the daytime.

Caves have been discovered in Tasmania which are perfectly lighted by myriads of glow worms. One of the caves is about four miles long.
