LOCAL BREVITIES.

F. Dehm is reported to be very sick.

George Nolin of Dufur is in the city.

S. B. Phillips of Kingsley was in the city today.

Dr. Aug. C. Kinney of Astoria is at the Umatilla house.

W. H. Wilson of this city, was appointed a notary public last Tuesday, by Gov. Penoyer.

B. S. Huntington has resigned his position as local attorney for the Union Pacific railroad.

It is estimated that Klickitat county will have twenty per cent. more grain in cultivation this year than last.

Six "tourists" who arrived on the blind baggage last night were accommodated with lodgings in the calaboose and fired out of town this morning.

The merry lays of nearly every species of song bird peculiar to this climate now fill the air with vocal melody as they announce and welcome the approach of Spring.

Byrne, Floyd & Co., the leading wholesale and retail druggists have just received a large invoice of toothpicks, which they are selling at six boxes for a quarter.

The prescription business of Byrne, Floyd and Co.'s, has increased rapidly of late, and they have provided a competent force of clerks to make it at all times convenient to fill prescriptions accurately.

The west bound passenger train, due here at 6:10 last evening, was five hours late. The cause of the detention was an accident in Wyoming, about the particulars of which no information could be obtained. Mum is the word all along the line with U. P. R. R. employes.

Jake Craft has a smile on his face that extends from ear to ear. Cause why: his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Haynes of Nansene, on the 23rd instant, presented her husband with an eleven pound daughter. So Jake is a grandpap and this is the first grandchild born to Uncle Jake in Haynes family.

It is seldom a concert ticket survives the lapse of time so long as one just found by George Joles, in the yard of the Joles residence. No man has any idea where it came from or what brought it there. It is clean and preserved and reads as follows: "Concert and festival at Moody's hall, for the benefit of the sisters of charity, on Monday Evening, May 3rd, 1869. Tickets—one dollar." How many voices sang at that concert of 23 years ago are now hushed in the stillness of the tomb!

Mr. Hunt, the Court street photographer has presented this office with a handsome picture of Dalles City taken from a position directly above the city reservoir in the pines. It is a very handsome picture and gives a charming view of the first city in Eastern Oregon.

MARRIED.

This morning at the residence of W. H. Glacius of this city, Joseph S. Miens to Jane Strachan. Elder G. H. Barnett performed the ceremony and the happy couple left for their future home near Eight-Mile.

How to Foretell the Weather.

A RISING BAROMETER.

A "rapid" rising indicates unsettled weather.

A "gradual" rise indicates settled weather.

A "rise" with dry air, and cold increasing in summer, indicates wind from Northward; and if rain has fallen better weather is to be expected.

A "rise" with moist air and low temperature indicates wind and rain from Northward.

A "rise" with southerly wind indicates fine weather.

A steady barometer with dry air and reasonable temperature indicates a continuance of very fine weather.

A FALLING BAROMETER.

A "rapid" fall indicates stormy or windy weather.

A "rapid" fall with westerly wind indicates stormy weather from northward.

A "fall" with a northerly wind indicates a storm, with rain and hail in summer, and snow in winter.

A "fall" with increased moisture in the air and the heat increasing, indicates rain and wind from southward.

A "fall" with dry air and cold increasing (in winter) indicates snow.

A "fall" after very calm and warm weather, indicates rain and squally weather.

From the Agricultural College.

CORVALLIS, OR., Feb. 23, 1892.

Editor Chronicle:

Mr. Ernest Miller, whose illness I mentioned last week, left this world to try the realities of the next, between 9 and 10 p. m. Feb. 17th. The funeral was conducted at the College about 9 a. m. the next day by Dr. Thompson of Corvallis. Of course there were no recitations and the students walked in a sad company to the O. P. depot, bearing with them the lifeless remains of their highly esteemed schoolmate. The story of a strong young man may be told in a few words: "He came to college for an education, but was taken home for burial."

Mr. J. R. Mott of New York, general secretary of Y. M. C. A., stopped at Corvallis Thursday afternoon and organized an association in the O. A. C.

The first state convention of the College Y. M. C. A., met in the State Capitol building at Salem, Oregon, Feb. 19, 1892. Following are the colleges represented and number of delegates from each: Albany Collegiate Institute 28, McMinnville College 17, Pacific College 16, Pacific University 17, Portland Academy 8, Portland University 22, State Normal 30, State University 9, and Willamette University 21 to 85. The Alumni of Princeton, Williams, Wesleyan, Oberlin, Wheaton, North Western, Bethany Penn., and several other colleges were represented. There are 968 young men in the ten colleges that were represented in the convention, 500 are now students. The convention was conducted by four young men from a distance: J. R. Mott of Cornell University; S. M. Sayford, of Boston; Harry Hillard, college secretary of California and Jas. A. Dummett, traveling secretary Pacific northwest.

Mr. Sayford gave his "confidential talk to young men" Saturday evening in the Assembly hall of the state capitol. About 400 were present and of that number fully 300 took the "higher ground stand" promising to quit smoking cigarettes or give up some other bad habit that is spoiling them.

Harry Hillard led the Sunday consecration service, in which prayer was offered by twenty different delegates, and such songs as "I gave my life for thee," and "Just as I am without one plea," were sung by a packed audience.

I should like to write of the fourteen young men who volunteered to be Foreign Missionaries, in fact all about this great conference of students, but I have not the time to do so.

The following college presidents and professors made brief speeches: President McClelland of the Forest Grove school; President Stratton, of Portland University; Prof. Shaw, of the State Agricultural college; Prof. Jessup, of Pacific College; Prof. Lee, of Albany Collegiate Institute; President Whittaker, of Willamette University; President Bronson, of McMinnville College; President Campbell, of the State Normal, and, in the absence of a professor, the State University was represented by a student who was warmly applauded. The chairman of the Executive committee, the pastor of the M. E. Church of Salem, and several others made short speeches. When I say that Prof. Lee of the Albany Glee Club led the music, and that we all visited the Insane Asylum and State prison, I just as well quit for this time.

A Supreme Court Decision.

Yesterday's telegraphic news reported a decision of the supreme court in the case of McLeod vs. Scott which was carried up from Sherman county in which the decision of the lower court was affirmed. Some time ago Neil McLeod applied in the usual regular way to the county court of Sherman county for a retail liquor license. The court refused the license holding that the law was not mandatory. It was carried up to the supreme court at Pendleton and that court decided against the county court's decision. McLeod sued out a writ of mandamus but Judge Boise, presiding over the circuit court of this Judicial district, decided that a writ of review was the proper remedy. This is the decision, so far as we can learn from the meager telegraphic report, that has just been affirmed. McLeod's attorney at this place thinks the decision does not affect the question of the ability of the plaintiff to compel the County court of Sherman county to grant the license demanded.

The Demorest Medal Contest.

A good house greeted the contestants for the Demorest medal, last night. After the singing of a few selections Mrs. Smith French, in a few well chosen words explained the origin and objects of these contests. W. J. Demorest, a wealthy resident of New York city, conceived the idea some few years ago. The books from which the selections are made as well as all the medals are furnished entirely at Mr. Demorest's expense. Not less than eight persons are permitted to enter a contest. In the present case a silver medal is the reward. The victor in this contest will drop out of the next and transfer the medal to the winner. After eight persons have won the silver medal they may contest for a gold medal on the same general method. The gold medalists may then contest for a gold diamond studded medal which is permanently retained by the winner.

Nine young persons had prepared for the contest last night. One for some cause dropped out, leaving eight. The programme already published in the CHRONICLE was gone through with this exception. The following are the names of the contestants: Georgia Sampson, Lorine Lee, Ruth Fisher, Archie Barnett, Pearl Butler, Daisy Alloway, Neddy Baldwin and Nona Rowe. The prize was well and ably contested. The only regret was that each could not have had a medal. Where all did so well it was no wonder the judges took some time to settle who should have the prize. Finally Judge Bennett appeared and announced that the judges had awarded it to Miss Nona Rowe and Mrs. Smith French presented it to the young lady in a short and appropriate speech. The subject matter of these contests cannot fail to have a good moral effect. The tendency and object of the contests are wholly in the interests of sobriety and temperance. As such they deserve the sympathy of every good citizen. Many will be pleased to learn that another contest is expected to come off in the near future.

The Mic-Mac Glee Club promise a rich musical treat to all who attend the concert to be given next Monday evening, the 28th, for the benefit of St. Paul's Sunday school. Miss Lang has kindly assumed charge of the instrumental portion of the programme, and Mrs. Lochhead is training the vocalists. Miss Meyers will sing a very bright and pretty new song called "The Devoted Apple." Mrs. Bradshaw has been good enough to promise a vocal solo, and a contralto solo will be given by Miss Crandall. Mr. Charles Clark, assisted by Messrs. Winton Curtis and Victor Marden will make the Court house ring with the stirring strains of "Nancy Lee." The first half of the programme will conclude with a duet by Mrs. Varney and Miss Meyers.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

Messrs. Cage and Sherman, of Alexander, Texas, write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Mr. Wm. Pruitt, the Postmaster here had been bed-ridden with rheumatism for several years. She could get nothing to do her any good. We sold her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and she was completely cured by its use. We refer any one to her to verify this statement." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
