LOCAL BREVITIES. If you want to put an advertisement where people can see it put it in the CHRONICLE.

Two four horse teams loaded up at the Wasco warehouse this morning with freight for Prineville.

Tickets for the Mic-mac concert Monday evening will be for sale at the store of Blakeley & Houghton.

S. D. Davis of this city will shortly open a cigar, tobacco, confectionary and bakery store in the Skibbe hotel building in the East End.

The CHRONICLE is indebted to the courtesy of the Micmac Glee Club for complimentary tickets to their concert on Monday evening next.

Dr. Hugh Logan has been appointed by the Supreme Medical Examiner as medical examiner for the Catholic Knights of America at The Dalles.

Correspondents who expect to read their letters in The Chronicle must send in their names. Not for publication necessarily, but in order that we may know them.

The splendid rain of last night and today will increase the circulating medium in Wasco county next fall more than if all the mints on the footstool of the Almighty were engaged in the work of stamping sixty-nine cents worth of ballion into silver dollars.

Congregational church services tomorrow (Sunday) as usual at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 12:15.

Union service at 7 p. m. Address by Major J. W. Ingalls. Subject, Charles Hadden Spurgeon, and the lessons of his life.

If Kirkham of the Weather bureau of San Francisco cannot predict the weather correctly more than once in twenty times he had better turn the job over to some intelligent Indian medicine man.

Jacob Moser, a thoroughly competent boot and shoemaker and repairer, arrived in this city yesterday from Portland.

Best Tonic. Byrne, Floyd & Co., the leading wholesale and retail druggists of The Dalles, have today received their second large invoice of Best Tonic.

Electricity by the Gallon. Electricity can be purchased by the gallon and carried home, like oil.

Heart Party. Mrs. C. L. Phillips gave a very pleasant "heart party" to fifteen of her lady friends, at her residence on the bluff, yesterday afternoon at 2 p. m.

Evangelical Lutheran Service will be held next Sunday at 10:30 a. m., at the Chapel on Ninth street.

Quarterly meeting services will be held in the new M. E. Church, beginning with a consecration service this evening at 7, preaching at 7:30 by Rev. R. C. Moter.

Mayer Mays came in from his ranch on Tygh Ridge this morning. He reports that it commenced raining there at about one o'clock last night and rained steadily till he left and there is every indication that the rain is general.

Three "tourists" were forcibly accommodated with lodgings in the calaboose last night. They were still reclining on the gorgeous couches of this caravansary when a reporter called at the office this afternoon and the recorder was puzzled what to do with them.

Are comparatively easy. We hear of a limited inquiry for money on loan, and parties in need are seldom willing to pay a bonus to the brokers for the purpose of obtaining it.

There has been several large freight teams in from Mitchell and Prineville, in Crook county, and have loaded with merchandise and gone from the Wasco warehouse to the merchants in those places.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism. Messrs. Cage and Sherman, of Alexander, Texas, write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Mr. Wm. Pruitt, the Postmaster here had been bed-ridden with rheumatism for several years. She could get nothing to do her any good. We sold her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and she was completely cured by its use. We refer any one to her to verify this statement." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.
