LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe MacEachern went to Portland this morning.

The whaleback Wetmore is now in Portland unloading a cargo of coal from Seattle.

Mr. Frank Middleton, late editor of the Wasco Sun, has gone to work on the Times-Mountaineer.

Thirty nice fat chickens were stolen last night from the chicken house of Mrs. Joseph Beezley on the Bluff.

We are assured that the Mic-mac concert this evening will be the best amateur concert ever given in The Dalles.

Architect Saunders has drawn the plans for a new Baptist church for this city to cost in the neighborhood of $4000.

C. J. Crandall has drawn the plans for a new Congregational church for this city to cost in the neighborhood of $5000.

The steamer D. S. Baker was taken from the ways last Saturday. She will be ready for business about the first of April.

Tickets for the Mic-mac concert tonight will be found at the store of Blakeley & Houghton for the low price of fifty cents.

Henry Williams of Eight Mile has rented property at Erkinville and will make his home at that place in the near future.

A. W. Whetstone of Eight Mile reports that shocks of earthquake were distinctly felt in his neighborhood early this morning.

It is said that there is more money in town today and more business being done than there have been at the same time during the last four years. This is decidedly encouragingly.

The Fossil Journal says the name of George H. Thompson, late clerk of Wasco county, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for sheriff of Gilliam county.

The Methodists had a red letter day in their church services yesterday. A large number took part in the communion and eleven joined the church, making fourteen accessions since the meetings began. The services will continue through the present week at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. J. A. Vaughan of Kingsley thinks so much of the CHRONICLE that he has ordered it sent to his brother in Lebeck, Missouri. It is a safe bet that when he reads a few numbers of this great family journal he'll want to emigrate to the land where such a paper grows.

The infant child of Engineer R. J. Gise is reported to be dangerously ill at the residence of Mrs. Murray, its grandmother, of this city.

W. H. Taylor of Dry Hollow, near the city also distinctly felt the earthquake shock last night, having been waked up from sound sleep by it.

Professor Willis, formerly in charge of the Wasco Academy, now fills a chair in the Hopkins University. The friends of Mrs. Willis will regret to hear that that lady is an invalid in a Baltimore hospital, with little hope of permanent recovery.

The semi-annual meeting of the farmers' alliance of Wasco county will commence at the school house on Three Mile tomorrow at 10 o'clock a. m. A number of delegates came up on the noon train today from Hood River. A full attendance from the several county alliances is expected.

The Earth Trembled.

Three distinct pulsations of earthquake were felt in this city, at a little before three o'clock this morning. The disturbance lasted only a few seconds, and while no damage was done the shocks were sufficiently sharp to wake up from sleep a number of the citizens. The shocks were distinctly felt at the Umatilla house by night bar-keeper Wm. Marder and night clerk Tom O'Connor. At the Columbia hotel, bar-keeper David King was waked up so that he stepped out on the porch to see what was the matter, but supposing that the disturbance was caused by a passing freight train he returned to bed and thought no more of the matter till morning. Billy Wiseman had just retired and was still awake when he felt himself driven against the head of the bed which stands north and south. J. A. Urquhart, city assessor, who lives on the bluff, felt three distinct shocks, and says there was a lighter one again at 3:30. Geo. Runyan was waked up by the shocks. They were sufficiently vigorous to make the house crack. W. C. Alloway, who resides in the brick building over French & McFarland's store was so alarmed that he got ready to leave the building. George Harris, night clerk in Haight's restaurant reports a general shaking up of crockery and dishes at that place. The shocks were also felt by John Marden and Emil Schanno. No damage was done so far as heard of.

Kingsley Items.

Sunday school at Kingsley was reorganized yesterday with John D. Whitten, superintendent; J. A. Vaughn, assistant superintendent, and Lissie Cox, secretary. The school is in a flourishing condition.

The Kingsley Literary society elected a new set of officers on Saturday night, J. A. Vaughn being chosen president, vice I. J. Butler, whose term had expired. Chas. Fraley was elected vice-president and Nettie Fraley, secretary. The many friends of John Roth will regret to hear that he is again confined to his bed with rheumatism.

A special meeting of the Kingsley farmers alliance was held on Friday, 19th inst., to elect delegates to the county alliance to be held at Three-Mile tomorrow. J. A. Vaughn, I. J. Butler, H. A. Sparling, John M. Roth, Misses Mary Cox, and Nettie Fraley were chosen.

The many friends of Remi Rondeau will be pleased to learn that he is again able to take exercise in the open air.

It snowed hard on Tygh Ridge for the space of two hours last Saturday, between the hours of 9 and 11 a. m. It rained the rest of the day and showers fell at intervals yesterday and last night. Fall wheat looks fine and everywhere a bountiful crop.

Is It Catching.

Leonard Cole, of Huntington, who was defeated for sheriff in Malheur county at the last election, is in trouble. He has been arrested for forging his father's name to a note for $1800. The note was made during the campaign two years ago when the young man needed money. Mr. Austin, the defeated candidate for sheriff in Grant county last election, is serving a term in the penitentiary for cattle stealing. There seems to be a sort of fatality attached to defeated candidates out in the Eastern counties.—Eugene Guard.

DIED.

On Saturday the 27th February, after a lingering illness, Jennie, the beloved wife of C. J. Bright of Wasco, Sherman county, aged about 30 years.

At Burnt Ranch, Crook county, of la grippe, on Wednesday February 24th, W. J. Saltzman, a Crook county pioneer of '66.

The very best instrumental and vocal talent in The Dalles will be represented at the Mic-mac concert tonight.

Miss Clara B. Story will instruct a limited number of pupils in oil painting, water colors, crayon, charcoal and pastel work and China painting. Studio, room 3, over McInerney's dry goods store. 2-3-1f

Miss Lang and Prof. Birgfelt will give some grand selections at the Mic-mac concert tonight, which alone will be worth the price of admission.

Church Choir Statistics.

Statistics recently taken of the different church choirs of this city and Brooklyn make rather interesting reading. In no cities of the country, if in the world, are such sums expended for soloists of all kinds, for organs, choruses and music generally. In New York there are 141 mixed quartets, as quartets made up of soprano, contralto, tenor and bass are called. Besides this number, there are twenty-four churches which support a chorus choir in addition to a paid quartet.

In seventy-seven churches there are chorus choirs, and 104 churches have congregational singing, usually led by the organ or by a salaried precentor. Double mixed quartets are utilized by seventeen different congregations, in some cases there being a first and second quartet, one singing at the morning service and the other at night. In such cases the first quartet usually is under salary. Thirty-one churches have volunteer choirs of all kinds. Then there are thirty-three choirs made up of boys, or of boys and men. One New York church has an entire orchestra in addition to the choir. In five Jewish synagogues the music is led by the cantor, there being no choir.

In Brooklyn there are ninety-six mixed quartets and twenty-nine churches with both quartet and chorus choirs. There are forty-seven chorus choirs besides the above and thirteen double mixed quartets. Thirty-five congregations sing their own music and twenty-one employ boy soloists and chorists. Thirty-four churches have no choirs and in nineteen the music is rendered by volunteer singers. There are two male church quartets and one children's choir. The latter is the only example of its kind in the country.—New York Times.

A Relic of Spanish Days.

While men were digging in the flower beds of Dr. Pacetti's residence on Cuna street in St. Augustine an earthen pot or water vase was dug up. The find is of an exceedingly old pattern—older than the oldest inhabitants here remember to have seen in their times. The shape is cylindrical, about three inches in diameter at the top or mouth and a little larger at the base. It increases to nearly a foot in diameter in the center of its twenty inches in height. It is made of clay, without ornaments, and is supposed to have been one of the crude water jugs in use by the first Spanish soldiers occupying this city.—Florida Times-Union.

Neuralgia Cured in 15 Minutes.

Mr. J. S. Sturtevant, editor of the Waupaca (Wis.) Post, says: "Last night Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured my wife of neuralgia of the face and tooth in fifteen minutes. We would not be without it." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

Call for a Republican State Convention.

A republican convention for the state of Oregon, is called to meet in the city of Portland on Wednesday, the 9th day of April, 1892, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Supreme Judge, two congressmen, presidential electors, members of the state board of equalization, and other district officers, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention will consist of 233 delegates among the several counties as follows:

The committee recommended that the primaries be held on Saturday, March 19, and the County Convention on Saturday, March 26, unless otherwise ordered by the proper County Committees. All voters who favor the republican policy of internal improvements, protection of American productions and labor, and guarding sacredly the rights of every American citizen at home and abroad, are cordially invited to unite with us.

JAMES LOTAN,
Chairman Republican State Central Committee.
F. A. MOORE, Secretary.

If you want to have a dollar's worth of fun for fifty cents, go to the concert tonight.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

Messrs. Ouge and Sherman, of Alexander, Texas, write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Mr. Wm. Pruitt, the Postmaster here had been bed-ridden with rheumatism for several years. She could get nothing to do her any good. We sold her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and she was completely cured by its use. We refer any one to her to verify this statement." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

The soloists among the Mic-mac darkey maids at the concert tonight will be—Aunt Dinah, Miss Rose Michell, Miss Myrtle Michell, Miss Ruth Cooper, Miss Eva Heppner, Mr. Charles Clark, and Master Charles Heppner.

La Grippe Successfully Treated.

"I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being struck with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'" 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

For the Children.

"In buying a cough medicine for children," says H. A. Walker, a prominent druggist of Ogden, Utah, "never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend Chamberlain's because I have found it to be safe and reliable. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. dw

No Flowers at His Funeral.

Owen Meredith's (Lord Lytton's) coffin was borne to the grave without a blossom to decorate its pall according to the direction of Lady Lytton, who said that her husband had requested that not so much "as the tiniest violet or the smallest rosebud" should be used about his bier. "What, in heaven's name, have poor flowers done to be condemned to serve such a horrid purpose as being consigned to vaults and graves? I like a sad looking funeral," was a frequent saying of the poet's, and his funeral ceremony was indeed a gloomy one.—Exchange.

Wong Chee's Coat of Mail.

When a Chinese highlander, named Wong Chee, who had been arrested for vagrancy, was stripped in the city prison recently a coat of mail was found around his body. It was a tight fitting armor, made of a double thickness of interwoven steel links, and it weighed twenty-two pounds. Experts say that no pistol bullet ever made would penetrate the armor, and when tested the links turned a rifle ball from its course.—San Francisco Examiner.
