STATE OFFICIALS: Governor N. Penney, Secretary of State G. W. McBride, Treasurer Philip M. Meacham, etc.

COUNTY OFFICIALS: County Judge C. N. Thornbury, Sheriff D. L. Cates, Clerk J. B. Crossen, etc.

Report comes to this office that the Union Pacific has emissaries all over Eastern Oregon who are spreading the report that the railroad company has bought out the D. P. & A. N. Company's boats and intend to run a branch line of railroad through Sherman county, etc.

Senator Dolph replies to a charge lately made in the Wasco Sun to the effect that it was on his recommendation that the plans for the Cascade locks were changed and locks enlarged, by showing that the report of the board upon whose recommendation the plans were changed was made November 13th, 1880, some three years before Senator Dolph took his seat in the United States senate.

The magnitude of the salmon industry on the lower Columbia may be conceived from the estimate that about two millions is permanently invested; about a million is spent annually in the purchase of twine, tin, salt and other materials and during the four months' fishing season another million is paid out for material, wages and expense accounts.

The Union Pacific used to justify the exorbitant charges on its Oregon lines on the ground that the lines did not pay. The plea will hardly avail any longer after one has learned that the Oregon branches have provided, in the way of net earnings during the past year the snug sum of $1,306,031.

From Salem comes the opinion that at school meetings women can vote on questions of tax, etc., but they cannot vote at an election for school directors or school clerk and that an election wherein women voted for a school director or school clerk would be invalid.

"Mrs. J. G. Blaine jr. refuses to talk," says a late dispatch. A capital idea! and one that the esteemed Secretary of State himself might have imitated with profit.

Mutton is rated at eleven cents a pound by the carcass at Astoria.

Water Notice: On and after April 1st parties putting in or using water closets with a continuous stream of water, will be charged $5.00 per month. Patent shut-off's at the old rate. By order of the Board. 3-7-6t C. L. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

Saloon Business for Sale: The fixtures and furniture of a first class saloon, situated in this city, for sale at a bargain. Everything ready for purchaser to commence business at once. Apply to John Barry at J. O. Mack's, 171 Second Street. 3-3-6t

Late Importations: Byrne Floyd & Co., leading wholesale and retail druggists of The Dalles, have, in addition to other lines of goods, just opened a splendid stock of combs and brushes. You should inspect these goods before purchasing. 2-24-dtf

Neuralgia Cured in 15 Minutes: Mr. J. S. Sturtevant, editor of the Wauwapa (Wis.) Post, says: "Last night Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured my wife of neuralgia of the face and tooth in fifteen minutes. We would not be without it." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

La Grippe Successfully Treated: "I have just recovered from a second attack of the grip this year," says Mr. Jan. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days, against ten days for the first attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being struck with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting down." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists.

How She Won Her Point.

"Mary," he said, as he scowled at her over the breakfast table. "John," she replied fearlessly. "Mary," he said, "what kind of a breakfast do you call this?" "I call it an excellent one," she returned bravely.

"You do!" he exclaimed. "Well, I don't! I think a little variety occasionally would be a good thing. Do you realize that this is the third morning this week that we have had corned beef hash?" "Certainly, John."

"And that we had corned beef for dinner yesterday and cold corned beef for supper?" "Of course, John. You wanted me to run the house as economically as I could." "Yes, but—" "You said that the amount of meat consumed in this house would bankrupt a bank president."

"I know, but I—" "And that I ought to plan with more regard for the expense." "Certainly, certainly, Mary; but hang it all!" "I've been following your instructions." "But I don't like corned beef!" "I know it, John," she said in a businesslike way. "That's what makes it last so long. It keeps expenses down splendidly, and if you want—" "I don't!" he exclaimed. "I don't! Let them run up! You've got too good a business head for anything outside of a boarding house."—Chicago Tribune.

Why He Was Rejected. The soul of a rajah, who had been released from the cares of this world and an uncongenial wife, presented himself at the gates of Paradise. "Have you been in Purgatory yet?" demanded Brahma. "No; but I have been married." "Enter then—it is the same thing." At this moment another soul arrived, who begged Brahma to allow him also to enter. "Softly, softly—have you been in Purgatory yet?" "No; but neither has that other fellow—he died the same day I did." "Very true, but he had been married." "Married, indeed? Why, I have been married three times." "Away, then, to the lower regions," said Brahma, sternly. "Paradise is not made for imbeciles."—San Francisco Argonaut.

One Way of Eking Out a Living. A country parson in England eked out a small income by sending begging letters all over the country. He has mailed fully 125,000 of them during fifteen years; his wife has sent 11,000 more, and his children, as soon as they could write, spent a great part of their time in writing appeals for money. Responses were received with cash from about one person in fifty. One gentleman was generous enough to send $25,000 to the begging clergyman.—Yankee Blade.

Democratic State Convention. A democratic state convention will be held in the city of Portland, Or., April 19, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination two candidates for congress, one supreme judge, one candidate in each judicial district for circuit judge and prosecuting attorney, to be voted for at the coming June election, and such other business as may properly come before said convention. The various counties are entitled to representation in said convention as follows:

It is recommended, unless otherwise ordered by the local committees, that the primaries in the various counties be held on Saturday, the 9th day of April, and the county conventions on Thursday, April 14, 1892. By order of the democratic state central committee. B. GOLDSMITH, Chairman, A. NOLTNER, Secretary.

Call for a Republican State Convention. A republican convention for the state of Oregon, is called to meet in the city of Portland on Wednesday, the 6th day of April, 1892, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of Supreme Judge, two congressmen, presidential electors, members of the state board of equalization, and other district officers, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention will consist of 233 delegates among the several counties as follows:

Table listing delegates from various counties: Baker 6, Benton 7, Clackamas 10, Clatsop 10, Columbia 5, Coos 6, Crook 3, Curry 3, Douglas 9, Gilliam 4, Grant 4, Harney 4, Jackson 7, Josephine 5, Klamath 3, Lake 3.

The same being one delegate at large from each county, and one delegate for every 200 votes, and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Congressman at the June election in 1890. The committee recommended that the primaries be held on Saturday, March 19, and the County Convention on Saturday, March 26, unless otherwise ordered by the proper County Committees. All voters who favor the republican policy of internal improvements, protection of American productions and labor, and guarding sacredly the rights of every American citizen at home and abroad, are cordially invited to unite with us. JAMES LOTTAN, Chairman Republican State Central Committee. F. A. MOORE, Secretary.
