Dainty Flora, just home from school. Tried to teach the willing cooie. Our charming, dainty little Flora had just returned from her eastern "finishing school" and had fetched a great many ideas of elegance in her wise little head.

The teacher is suspicious of the influence that the new boy in school seems likely to exert over the rest of the class, and not without some reason.

Requisites of a Pet.

What is required for an everyday pet is that it shall be beautiful and intelligent; that it shall neither be too large nor too delicate, and if a bird that it shall sing or talk—preferably both.

"In God We Trust."

The motto, "In God We Trust," which is now stamped upon all gold and silver coins of the United States, was suggested by an old farmer living in Maryland. This conscientious Christian gentleman thought that our currency should indicate in some way the Christian character of our nation, which, he argued, could be best done by putting a motto upon our coins expressing a national reliance on divine support in governmental affairs.

Pollock and Chase were in favor of introducing the motto at once, but congress gave the suggestion no attention whatever. In his next annual report Director Pollock again referred to the matter, this time in firm theological argument, saying, "The motto suggested, 'God Our Trust,' is taken from our national hymn, 'The Star Spangled Banner'; the sentiment is familiar to every citizen of our country; the time is propitious; 'tis an hour of national peril. Let us reverently acknowledge his sovereignty, and let our coinage declare our trust in God."

A two cent bronze piece was authorized by congress to be coined the following year, and on April 23, 1864, the first United States coin was stamped with the legend, "In God We Trust."—St. Louis Republic.

Ancient Greek Coins.

To the Lydians the innovation of coining gold and silver is attributed, and the year 863 B. C. is fixed as the era of the invention. Some 800 years after this, it may be noted, Croesus was king of Lydia. The coins of that period were not very elegant. Among the Greeks banking was carried on to a considerable extent. Homer speaks of brass money among them in 1184 B. C., but it was weights, not coins. But the art of coining was soon acquired by the Greeks. The earliest coins they made were somewhat crude.

The original method of making a coin was by placing a given weight of metal, after it had been softened, over a die upon which a national symbol or emblem was engraved, and then pounding it with a hammer on the die until a good impression was obtained. They were rude and battered and showed a die impression on one side only, the other bearing the rough marks of the hammer. The earliest Greek coins were of silver, whereas those of Lydia were of gold or electrum—gold and silver. They were of a sacred character, and the old inscriptions were succeeded by representations of the deities.—Brooklyn Eagle.

CONSTITUTION.

Afflicts half the American people yet there is only one preparation of Sarasaparilla that acts on the bowels and reaches this important trouble, and that is Joy's Vegetable Sarasaparilla. It relieves it in 24 hours, and an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to C. E. Elkington, 125 Locust Avenue, San Francisco; J. H. Brown, Petaluma; H. S. Winn, Geary Court, San Francisco, and hundreds of others who have used it in constipation. One letter is a sample of hundreds. Elkington writes: "I have been for years subject to bilious headaches and constipation. Have been so bad for a year back have had to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache. After taking one bottle of J. V. S. I am in splendid shape. It has done wonderful things for me. People similarly troubled should try it and be convinced."

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla

Most modern, in its origin, largest bottle, same price, $1.00, six for $5.00.

A Severe Law.

The English people look more closely to the genuineness of these staples than we do. In fact, they have a law under which they make seizures and destroy adulterated products that are not what they are represented to be. Under this statute thousands of pounds of tea have been burned because of their wholesale adulteration.

Tea, by the way, is one of the most notoriously adulterated articles of commerce. Not alone are the bright, shiny green teas artificially colored, but thousands of pounds of substitutes for tea leaves are used to swell the bulk of cheap teas; ash, sicc, and willow leaves being those most commonly used.

Again, sweepings from tea warehouses are colored and sold as tea. Even exhausted tea leaves gathered from the tea-houses are kept, dried, and made over and find their way into the cheap teas.

The English government attempts to stamp this out by confiscation; but no tea is too poor for us, and the result is, that probably the poorest teas used by any nation are those consumed in America.

Beech's Tea is presented with the guaranty that it is uncolored and unadulterated; in fact, the sun-cured tea leaf pure and simple. Its purity insures superior strength, about one third less of it being required for an infusion than of the artificial teas, and its fragrance and exquisite flavor is at once apparent. It will be a revelation to you. In order that its purity and quality may be guaranteed, it is sold only in pound packages bearing this trade-mark:

THE DALLES CHRONICLE

THE LEADING PAPER

Of the Leading City of Eastern Oregon.

During the little over a year of its existence it has earnestly tried to fulfill the objects for which it was founded, namely, to assist in developing our industries, to advertise the resources of the city and adjacent country and to work for an open river to the sea. Its record is before the people and the phenomenal support it has received is accepted as the expression of their approval. Independent in everything, neutral in nothing, it will live only to fight for what it believes to be just and right.

Commencing with the first number of the second volume the weekly has been enlarged to eight pages while the price ($1.50 a year) remains the same. Thus both the weekly and daily editions contain more reading matter for less money than any paper published in the county.
