NORTHWEST NEWS.

Yakima Herald: Mayor Weed estimates that the hop acreage of this country will be increased this spring to upwards of 1,000 acres.

Seattle Times: Oregon has her Pennoyer, California her Leland Stanford, and why shouldn't Washington have a candidate for a place on the presidential ticket?

Yakima Herald: It can not be true that Abigail Scott Duniway will relate her personal experience at the 100th anniversary of the discovery of the Columbia river, which will be celebrated at Astoria on May 11th.

Walla Walla Journal: Since Blaine declined to be a candidate for President Walla Walla republicans are at sea as to who should be the nominee.

Walla Walla Journal: It is not very often that an opportunity is given for an individual to see a horse suspended in the air, but such a sight was witnessed on Monday, by several people in the vicinity of the Fourth street bridge.
