COUNTY OFFICIALS.

Said a thrifty young farmer of Wasco county to the writer today, as he recounted his earlier struggles to procure a home for himself and family. "I tried to grow up with the country-not to dash ahead on borrowed capital in advance of it; and now, while I have not much to boast of, what I have is all my own." Here is sound economy and it applies equally to cities and individuals. Kansas, a great state, but one that has been boomed to death, is said to havy twenty will build towns without a single inhabitant to wake the echoes of their deserted streets. Saratoga has a $30,000 opera house, a large brick hotel, a $20,000 school house and a number of fine hysiness houses a table of the streets. Saratoga has a sportioned as follows, to-wit:

20th day of March, 1892, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the office of County Judge, Clerk, Sheriff, one County Commissioner, Treasurer, Assessor, Superintendent of Schools, County Surveyor and Coroner, and the election of six delegates to represent the other and further business as may properly come before said convention.

The County Convention will consist of seventy three delegates from the various precincts, apportioned as follows, to-wit: my own." Here is sound economy and fine business houses, yet there is nobody even to claim a place to sleep. Her banks remain, but they are silent. Some of her dwellings stand there, monuments of the credulty of man. At Fargo a $25,000 school house stands on the side of the hill, a monument of the bond-voting craze. Most of the buildings have been removed or are torn town. The hotel keeps gloomy watch over the remaining houses aided by the 'bank.' A herder and his family constitute the sole population of what was once an incorporated city." These towns did not grow up with the country, they were built in advance of it. Hence they are dead. 'And so it must be always. Sow booms and all but the sharks will reap bankruptcy.

A contemporary deplores the fact that so many ships come to our harbors in ballast to take away our exports to foreign countries. It is too bad of course. Still the evil has its compensations. Some one has discovered that certain kinds of lamp wicks have been taxed 40 per cent. by the horrid McKinley bill. Now lamp wicks are sometimes used for lighting churches and churches are sometimes used for the worship of the Almighty. And hence certain pious members of the church of Cobdar are breathing out their whiskey soaked im-

The student of political history should not forget that Tammany has never yet succeeded in nominating one of its men for president of the United States, much less elect one. Every national convention has resented its dictation, repudiated its methods and spat upon the odor which attaches to it and there is no doubt it will do so again. Several of the many defeats which democracy has suffered during the past quarter of a century may be directly attributed to the inmay be directly attributed to the in-woolen goods to the manufacturer and hence to the people. * * * The price of wool has dropped with every upward bound of the tariff." In that case a protective tariff has a sort of double action. It raises and lowers the price of commodities at one and the same time.

Is it not both significant and characteristic that fifty dollars saved on the soap supply for West Point should be the sum total of the retrenchment and reform record of the present congress up to date?

Mr. Simpleson is in the habit of punishing his boys very severely. Not long since he observed that one of his sons needed a new pair of trousers. He scolded the boy for wearing out his clothes so fast. "Pa, no trousers can last any time the way you hits," replied the son re-proachfully.—London Tit-Bits.

CALL FOR A REPUBLICAN COUNTY

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee of Wasco county, Or., called by authority vested in me as Chairman of said committee, and held at the County Court Room in Dalles City, Oregon, on the 13th day of February, 1892, it was ordered that a call be issued for a Republican County Convention, to be held at the Court House in Dalles City, Oregon, at 10 a. m., on the 26th day of March, 1892,

Antelope "

It is further recommended, by order of the Central Committee, that primary elections be held in the various precincts, at the usual place of voting, on the 19th day of March, 1892, and that the pells be opened at such primaries throughout the county at 2 o'clock p. m., of said day, except within the limits of Dalles City, in which the primaries will be conducted under provisions of Primary Election Law and the subjoined notice.

The attention of electors in the various precincts desiring to elect Justices of the Peace and Constables, is called to the provisions of the new election law as to the manner of nominating their candidates at the primaries.

Democratic State Convention.

A democratic state convention will be would frequently bring us commodities that we can just as well produce ourselves. The ballast costs us nothing and no money goes out of the country to pay for it. Then this country is big enough for it. Then this country is big enough for each judge and prosecuting attoraged and areas enough to be able to produce the country to pay to be voted for at the country to be able to produce the country to pay to be voted for at the country to be able to produce the country to pay to be voted for at the country to be able to produce the country to pay to be voted for at the country to be able to produce the country to pay to be voted for at the country to pay to be voted fo and great enough to be able to produce ney, to be voted for at the coming June nearly all it needs. The ballast may be election, and such other business as may properly come before said convention. B. Goldsmith, Chairman, A. Noltner, Secretary.

Call for a Republican State Convention. A republican convention for the state may be directly attributed to the infamies of Tammany.

A free trade exchange says: "The duty on wool increases the cost of woolen goods to the manufacturer and to tion, and other district officers, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention will consist of 233 delegates among the several counties as follows:

The same being one delegate at large from each county, and one delegate for every 200 votes, and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Congressman at the June election in 1890.

The committee recommended that the Primaries be held on Saturday, March 19, "and the County Convention on Saturday, March 26," unless otherwise ordered by the proper County Committees.

All voters who favor the republican policy of internal improvements, protection of American productions and labor, and guarding sacredly the rights of every American citizen at home and abroad, are cordially invited to unite with us.
