ALONG THE BORDER.

Investigations Needed Concerning the Garza Revolution.

MILITARY OPPRESSION CHARGED.

Report of U. S. Inspector Clum, on the Case of a Rio Postmaster.

STARTLING THINGS LOOKED FOR.

Lectures on Africa—Sudden Civilization Will Not Do—Can be Easily Taught.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 22.—John P. Clum, United States postoffice inspector for the lower Rio Grande border, where he went about two weeks ago to investigate the charges that had been performed by A. J. Evans, United States district attorney, against Postmaster Pena, of Rio Grande City, who had been accused of being a sympathizer with the Garza revolutionary movement, has returned. Inspector Clum states that the facts, as developed by his investigations, do not indicate that Postmaster Pena did in any manner aid, abet or sympathize with the Garza revolution. Mr. Clum states that the situation in that section is very serious, and that matters are now in a much worse condition on account of the unwarranted and illegal action of Capt. John G. Bourke, of the Third United States cavalry, than at any time during the campaign against Garza's men. He states that there has been an attempt made by military officers at oppression in certain civil proceedings, and that as a sequel one or two startling developments may be looked for in a few days. "The people are afraid," said he, "because they don't know what is going to happen next. In my judgment, considerable investigation is needed in all of the Federal departments along the border."

Mainly Africans.
NEW YORK, March 22.—Mrs. M. French-Sheldon, the African traveler, delivered her first lecture in this country last night, at Chickering hall. She was greeted by a notable gathering of members of the American Geographical society and their friends, and for two hours led them with her into the very heart of the dark continent. She told her audience about her laborious march from the coast to the interior, and held them spell-bound while she described her interview with the fierce Masai, or the African bogie man, and her adventurous descent to lake Chala, until, with a sigh of relief, they beheld her safely navigating its waters on the frail pontoon, which had been brought with the caravan. She told of her hair-breadth escapes from treacherous guides and natives, and on the other hand her courteous treatment by the chiefs of various friendly tribes. The Rombos, in the neighborhood of lake Chala, who had been considered extremely ferocious people, she found most civil and eager to do her homage. Modest, said the lecturer, was their only covering, but their deportment was so manly and their carriage so grand that I grew to regard their color as abundant clothing for them in their primitive simplicity. She denies that the natives are lazy, and says that if they are given the opportunity they can easily be taught to weave native cotton. But she also maintains that the bitter pill of sudden civilization must not be forced down their throats.

Wasn't a Fool—But he Rushed.
CHICAGO, March 22.—Ex-Senator Bowen, of Colorado, left his undervest, containing a wallet with $13,000 in cash, and papers to the value of twice that sum, in the Turkish bathrooms of the Palmer house last evening. A colored attendant named Watson found it and handed the valuables to the cashier. When a reporter, who heard of the story, called on Bowen, the latter said: "Nonsense, I'm not fool enough to carry that amount of money," and just then he clapped his hand to his side and, giving a yell, rushed for the office. He was overjoyed to recover his property.

Democratic White Primaries.
NEW ORLEANS, March 22.—Democratic white primaries to decide whether the democratic state ticket headed by McEnry or that headed by Foster shall be considered the nominee of the democratic party at the election, April 19, are being held. Voting is progressing quietly throughout the state.

Wrecked by an Earthquake.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—A dispatch to the Merchants' Exchange this morning says the British steamer West Indian, on her return trip from Chili for San Francisco, went ashore yesterday at Acajuta, San Salvador, and is a total loss. The crew and part of the cargo were saved. The dispatch further states an earthquake was the cause of the disaster.

Stock Breeders Organize.
ELLENBURG, Wash., March 22.—The Stockbreeders' association of Washington met here this afternoon and effected permanent organization by the election of a full set of officers. A large membership is secured and great interest is manifested in the association. Speeches were made by Hart, Van Devanter and Rochester, of King; Wilson of Kittitas and others. The world's fair commission entered in a body and joined the association.

Work in the Senate.

The following dispatch was received yesterday at 5:30 p. m., by Col. Thomas S. Lang, from Senator John H. Mitchell: WASHINGTON, March 22.—Two bills passed the senate today. Dolph's bill, appropriating sufficient to complete the canal and locks at the cascades, not exceeding $1,745,816, and my bill appropriating $2,800,356, full amount of estimate for completion of a boat railway at the dalles. All immediately available.

Results of Stock Gambling.
PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia county in favor of Mrs. Delia Parnell, mother of the late Charles Stewart Parnell, vs. administrator of the estate of Charlotte Smith. The facts upon which the question arose are as follows: In July, 1876, Charlotte Smith deposited with Delia Parnell $4,538, to be devoted, in her discretion, to speculation in stocks for the benefit and risk of the owner. The money was applied in accordance to this understanding, admittedly with good faith, but the speculations were unsuccessful, and the money was lost. Mrs. Parnell kept the fact a secret, and attempted to retrieve the losses by using her own money, remitting over $3,000 to Mrs. Smith, allowing her to believe the money was the proceeds from her own investment. After the death of Miss Smith, her administrator brought suit to recover the full amount entrusted to Mrs. Parnell. The loss and the remittances stop her from now showing that fact.

Russians Alarm Germany.
LONDON, March 22.—A Vienna correspondent says: "Gen. Gourko visited St. Petersburg to confer with the czar on a plain of action in the event of war with Austria and Germany. At a conference of five hours, Grand Duke Vladimir, Grand Duke Alexis, the minister of war, the chief of staff, and other military experts were present. It was decided that Gen. Gourko should assume the offensive on the Austro-German frontier, and Gen. Schouvaloff command the defensive army corps. The recent movement of the Russian troops has caused serious alarm here."

Shocking Barbarities.
PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—When the state board of charities meets at Huntington tomorrow, most startling information will be laid before it, bearing upon cruelties and barbarities inflicted upon the inmates of the Pennsylvania industrial reformatory. The names of eighty-three boys will be presented, all of whom have been the victims of long confinement in solitary cells, and, in most instances, whipped with water-soaked leather straps while chained to iron bars above their heads, or to the floors. Some of the victims, it is charged, were driven to insanity and attempted suicide.

Germany Alarm Themselves.
LONDON, March 22.—A Berlin correspondent telegraphs that Seiditz Trutschler has refused to withdraw his resignation. Caprivi has not resigned, but has placed his portfolio at the emperor's order. Nothing will be settled in regard to the trouble arising from the primary education bill until the emperor returns from Hubertstock at the end of the week. The general opinion in official circles seems to be there will be no alteration in Caprivi's position, nor is it believed the Prussian diet will be dissolved.

Foreign Conversions.
VIENNA, March 22.—A Lemberg paper reports a serious uprising in eastern Siberia, resulting from the forced conversions of Buddhists by Russian orthodox missionaries. Many Mongols have migrated to China. Others armed themselves, routed the missionaries, and compelled the Russian authorities to take refuge in the fortress of Tiumen. The revolt is spreading over Tobolsk and Tomsk.

War Ships in the Pacific.
SAN DIEGO, March 22.—The cruiser Yorktown entered the harbor today and cast anchor, having come direct from Callao, which port she left March 4. She will leave for San Francisco tomorrow. Commander Evans states the cruiser Boston is also on the way up, but is stopping at all Central American and Mexican ports and is expected to arrive here within five or six days. Captain Evans also reports the French man-of-war Champlain and the English flagship Warsprite are to be expected here within five or six days. The Champlain will remain here for some time. Captain Evans refers to the assault of the Baltimore sailors as a dastardly outrage on American citizens, and says, had his men been assaulted, he would have opened fire on Chili.

Hepner Affairs.
HEPPNER, Or., March 22.—At a mass meeting of citizens today the school board was authorized to incur an indebtedness of $8,000 in excess of the $3,000 now available for building the new schoolhouse. The fine rains have freshened up the surrounding country within the past few days. Engineer Oliver's report to the city council on the water works was received, stating the approximate cost of the reservoir and piping to be $18,751. A special election will be called at an early date, at which time the matter of bonding the town will be submitted.

Insane From the Grip.
JACKSONVILLE, Or., March 22.—Joel Smith, of Phoenix, was brought before Judge Neil this morning and upon examination, committed on the charge of insanity. This is his first attack, which followed a very severe spell of the grip. He is 51 years of age and has a wife and family, towards whom he was homicidal. A deputy sheriff started to Salem with him this evening.

THE COLUMBIA RIVER.

Dolph's Lump Bill for the Cascade Locks Inoperative.

OREGON SENATORS FEELING GOOD.

Mitchell's Bill as an Amendment to the River and Harbor Bill.

A VERY NARROW VIEW BY SQUIRE.

Vote of the Senate on the Bills—Work Must Be Done Before the Money is Available.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The senate today passed, without any debate, except an argument from Senator Frye upon the Columbia river, Senator Dolph's bill making a lump appropriation for the completion of the cascades improvement. Under the contract system in the river and harbor bill this will render Senator Dolph's bill inoperative, but there is a possibility that Senator Mitchell may secure the adoption of his bill as an amendment to the river and harbor bill in the senate. If this is done a great work will be accomplished for the Columbia river. The votes for these improvements were practically unanimous, only four being against one and eight against the other. The Oregon senators are feeling very good over the victory. Senator Squire, although he voted for the bills, seemed to think that Oregon was getting the best of it. He said he thought it was about time Washington should receive some consideration, as the shore line along Puget sound and other places were immensely of more importance commercially than the Columbia river. Although the Columbia river divided Washington and Oregon, and even if it should be opened up so that the wheat of Eastern Washington could go down the Columbia river, it would be of some benefit to the eastern part of the state, yet it was of commercial interest only to Portland. Dolph's bill appropriating $1,745,816 to secure an early completion of the canal and locks at the cascades on the Columbia passed by a vote of 46 to 4, Berry, Kyle, Pugh, and Vance constituting the minority. Mitchell's bill, appropriating $2,800,356 for a railway and necessary marine apparatus and appliances at the dalles, Celilo falls and Ten Mile rapids, and the improvement at Three Mile rapids, passed by vote of 38 to 8. The senate then adjourned.
