LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

If you want the news, You want THE CHRONICLE. If you are not a subscriber, please read this and hand in your name.

A slight fall of snow whitened the tops of the Klickitat hills this morning.

Mrs. E. C. Pentland is here with her two children on a short visit to her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. L. Brooks.

Nearly all the country delegates to the republican convention had arrived in the city at the hour of going to press.

A pamphlet containing the new Australian ballot law adopted by this state is for sale at the CHRONICLE office at ten cents a copy.

Mrs. A. Schooling will give a grand opening of new spring and summer millinery tomorrow all day and evening at Mrs. DeLyle's old stand on Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, of Grass Valley, are stopping at the European house. The CHRONICLE regrets to hear that the health of Mr. Buckley has been impaired for some time past.

Richard Kelling, an old school mate of Martin Donnell, now representing the Soldiers' Loan and trust company at Walla Walla, spent yesterday in the city and left this morning on the Regulator for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson are at the European house. The latter are visiting Eastern Oregon largely for the benefit of Mr. Stevenson's health and to seek a suitable location for settlement and investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris of New York are at the European house. Mr. Harris has been compelled to sell out his interests in the East and remove to the Pacific coast for the benefit of his health. He is at present looking for a place in which to invest and settle.

Through the courtesy of Master Thos. M. Roberts, son of Rev. Mr. Roberts, of this county, we have received an invitation to attend the third annual junior exhibition, of the university of Oregon to be held at Villard Hall, Eugene City, on Friday evening, April 4th.

Yamhill County Ledger. How can we wonder at the young men and boys indulging in the brutal amusement (if it can be so called) of prizefighting.

A New Star Discovered at Hood River. After the darkness had settled down on the Hood river valley last evening a couple of good natured young fellows of the village lighted a lantern and climbing a tall pine tree on the southern bluff, tied the lantern to a limb and returned to town.

Electricity to Succeed Horses. An electrical parcels delivery van, constructed by a London electrical company, is a compactly designed vehicle upon four rubber tired wheels, and is driven from a seat similar to that of an ordinary van.

How a Name Originated. About 250 years ago Jonathan Meigs fell in love with a beautiful Quakeress. He was repeatedly refused, but he persevered in his suit, riding seventy miles every Saturday across a country infested with hostile Indians.

Pumping vs. Gravity. J. L. Carroll of Pendleton, whom the people of The Dalles will remember kindly for having brought down Pendleton's contribution to the sufferers by the Dalles fire, was in town last night.

Speaking of politics Mr. Carroll thought that Hon. John C. Leasure was ahead of every other candidate of Umatilla county for the congressional nomination.

A Card from Mr. Crossen. THE DALLES, Or. March 24, 1892.

Editor Chronicle: As erroneous statements have been made and repeated in the CHRONICLE as to the receipts of the county clerk's office, I deem it my duty to remove the impression that has gone abroad as to this office being a veritable mint.
