

MARKET REVIEW.

THURSDAY, March 24, 1892.

March so far has given an increase of traffic in all lines over the corresponding period of last year, and trade in general has been quite satisfactory in comparison with other spring business.

The wheat market report are as usual, week, with no encouragement for an advance in prices, but on the contrary, a decline.

The wool market is without interest, some reports come in that the stock on hand of last year's clip in eastern markets, has not been all sold and there is no present price given for the new clip which will be of an excellent quality, and much larger than that of last year in our wool district.

Our review is unchanged in corrections, as last week's quotations contain with the present. Eggs are a little short of supply, but prices are the same.

There is some inquiry for fat primed beef cattle, also for mutton sheep at former quotations.

What a Baby Did in One Hour.

Uncle Will, the good natured bachelor of the family, was left in charge of the baby one day while every one else was out, and out of curiosity he made a list of what the baby did in one hour. Here it is:

Yelled fifteen minutes without taking breath. (Uncle Will declares solemnly that this is a true statement.)

Pulled out enough hair from his uncle's head and whiskers to stuff a sofa pillow. Crooked the wall paper as high as he could reach with the poker.

Broke a stereoscope by sitting down on it. Swallowed six buttons and a good part of a spool of thread.

Emptied the contents of his mother's workbasket down the furnace register. Tried to squeeze the head of the cat into a tin cup, and was scratched badly in the attempt.

Knocked the head off of a fine wax doll belonging to his older sister by trying to drive a tack into a toy wagon with it.

Fell off the edge of the whatnot and brought down with him two costly vases which were ruined. Broke two panes of window glass with a cane which uncle let him have.

Fell into the coalhod and spoiled his new white dress. Set fire to the carpet while uncle was out of the room hunting up something to amuse him.

Crawled under the bed and refused to come out unless uncle would give him the molasses jug. Got twisted into the rungs of a chair which had to be broken to get him out.

Poured a pitcher of water into his mother's best shoes. Finally, when he saw his mother coming, he ran out to the porch and tumbled off the steps, making his nose bleed and tearing a hole a foot square in his dress.

And yet Uncle Will thinks that boy will make something yet.—Youth's Companion.

Old People.

J. V. S. is the only Sarsaparilla that old or feeble people should take, as the mineral potash which is in every other Sarsaparilla that we know of, is under certain conditions known to be emaciating. J. V. S. on the contrary is purely vegetable and stimulates digestion and creates new blood, the very thing for old, delicate or broken down people. It builds them up and prolongs their lives. A case in point:

Mrs. Belden an estimable and elderly lady of 810 Mason St., S. F. was for months declining so rapidly as to seriously alarm her family. It got so bad that she was finally afflicted with fainting spells. She writes: "While in that dangerous condition I saw some of the testimonials concerning J. V. S. and sent for a bottle. That marked the turning point. I regained my lost flesh and strength and have not felt so well in years." That was two years ago and Mrs. Belden is well and hearty to-day, and still taking J. V. S.

If you are old or feeble and want to be built up.

A Severe Law.

The English people look more closely to the genuineness of these staples than we do. In fact, they have a law under which they make seizures and destroy adulterated products that are not what they are represented to be. Under this statute thousands of pounds of tea have been burned because of their wholesale adulteration.

Tea, by the way, is one of the most notoriously adulterated articles of commerce. Not alone are the bright, shiny green teas artificially colored, but thousands of pounds of substitutes for tea leaves are used to swell the bulk of cheap teas; ash, sloe, and willow leaves being those most commonly used. Again, sweepings from tea warehouses are colored and sold as tea. Even exhausted tea leaves gathered from the tea-houses are kept, dried, and made over and find their way into the cheap teas.

The English government attempts to stamp this out by confiscation; but no tea is too poor for us, and the result is, that probably the poorest teas used by any nation are those consumed in America. Beech's Tea is presented with the guaranty that it is uncolored and undiluted; in fact, the sun-cured tea leaf pure and simple. Its purity insures superior strength, about one third less of it being required for an infusion than of the artificial teas, and its fragrance and exquisite flavor is at once apparent. It will be a revelation to you. In order that its purity and quality may be guaranteed, it is sold only in pound packages bearing this trade-mark:

THE DALLES CHRONICLE

IS THE LEADING PAPER

THE LEADING PAPER

Of the Leading City of Eastern Oregon.

During the little over a year of its existence it has earnestly tried to fulfill the objects for which it was founded, namely, to assist in developing our industries, to advertise the resources of the city and adjacent country and to work for an open river to the sea. Its record is before the people and the phenomenal support it has received is accepted as the expression of their approval. Independent in everything, neutral in nothing, it will live only to fight for what it believes to be just and right.

Commencing with the first number of the second volume the weekly has been enlarged to eight pages while the price ($1.50 a year) remains the same. Thus both the weekly and daily editions contain more reading matter for less money than any paper published in the county.
