- STATE OFFICIALS: Governor, S. Penney; Secretary of State, G. W. McBride; Treasurer, Phillip Metcalf; Supt. of Public Instruction, E. B. McIlroy; Supt. of Public Schools, Troy Shelby; Assessor, John E. Barnett; Superintendent of Public Schools, E. F. Sharp; State Printer, Frank Baker.

John E. McCormick comes out in a communication published in another column and denies that he is guilty of the infamy of having cast the vote by which G. W. Johnston of Dufur, the man who put M. A. Moody's name on the cascade portage bill and thereby nearly defeated it, the man who stood shoulder to shoulder with Benedict Arnold McCoy and supported by his vote the measure that McCoy invented to kill the Dalles Portage bill—goes to the republican state convention. Mr. McCormick thoroughly understands that the charge that he had voted for Johnston was made by the CHRONICLE in good faith and with not the least prompting of malice or any other unworthy motive. The charge was made with much regret, as every body expected something better from a member of the alliance and no one is better pleased than is the editor of this journal that Mr. McCormick is able to clear himself and the organization of which he is an honored member, of the infamy of having betrayed the people's interests. But who did the deed? Eleven delegates constituted the committee. The writer has already conferred with five of them, namely, H. Gilpin, W. D. Richards, Willard Vanderpool, W. E. Campbell and John E. McCormick, each one of whom is ready to make affidavit that he voted for Campbell. It follows, therefore, that the men who voted for Johnston were G. W. Johnston, himself, M. J. Anderson, R. Sigman, Henry Hudson, J. Easton and W. H. H. Dufur. If any one of these latter denies that he voted for Johnston, the CHRONICLE will procure and publish the affidavits of the five former to the effect that they voted for Campbell. Much as the CHRONICLE regrets that the wrong party has hitherto had to bear the blame, the error has had the effect of showing the intense disgust with which the people regard that part of the work of the republican county convention that sent such men as George W. Johnston and M. A. Moody to the state convention to nominate candidates for the state legislature. It is the everlasting honor of Willard Vanderpool that he had the manliness to stand true to the people and vote against the man, albeit a friend and neighbor, who had formerly betrayed them.

The defense which the democratic legislature of the state of New York seems trying to set up for Judge Marnard, who stole the election returns by which the control of legislature was taken from the republicans is, not that Marnard is not guilty, not that the charges are untrue, but that the committee of the New York Bar Association was composed of Tammany men. This is just as good a defense as a Tammany legislature could be expected to make.

The Buffalo Express thinks that the earnings of the Union Pacific railroad which should have gone to pay the claim of the government have been diverted into the treasury of the Western Union Telegraph. Judge Brewer has ordered the railroad company to operate its own telegraph line.

Nebraska women are to supply the hammer with which Mrs. Potter Palmer will drive the nail in the women's building at the world's fair. Here is a chance for the women of Oregon. Let them at least supply the Arnie.

Senator Stanford wanted to expel 300. Stories are already beginning to come from Leland Stanford, Jr. university, at Palo Alto. Last week about 300 students let off the brakes of a flat car which was standing near the university, and many of them got aboard and started down grade toward the station. In a short time the car was spinning along at a lively rate, and the cars did not stop until it had reached Palo Alto. The car was missing the following morning, and a special engine had to be sent from San Jose to haul it back. Senator Stanford was wrathful when he heard of the incident, and proposed to expel the ringleaders. It was discovered that there were fully 300 boys engaged in the affair, and the senator gave orders that they should all be required to leave. The order would probably have been enforced but for Mrs. Stanford. She interceded for the youngsters, and excused them by saying that it was only a boyish prank. She finally succeeded in inducing Stanford to change his resolution. —Cor. Chicago Inter-Ocean.
