HERMANN AND ELLIS

Report of the Republican State Convention for Oregon.

ELECTORIAL TICKET AND DELEGATES

Hermann's Nomination By Acclamation.

Ellis on the First Ballot.

A TEAM THAT CANNOT BE BEATEN

Other Nominations. — Blaine's Name Awakens that Old Time "Burst of Applause."

Special to THE CHRONICLE.] PORTLAND, April 6, 11:30 p. m.—The Oregon republican state convention met at 11 o'clock a. m. today.

Everything was harmonious. Hon. Rufus Mallory was unanimously chosen temporary chairman. Mr. Mallory was greeted with applause, which was renewed when, after he reached the platform, he was introduced by Chairman Lotan, and in a few appreciative sentences returned his thanks for the honor, and proceeded to discuss the political situation. He congratulated those before him as citizens on the peace and contentment in which the country finds itself, attributing it to the wise management of the republican party. He said that Blaine was elected but counted out by Tammany, and referred to Cleveland as the stuffed prophet of the democratic party. It was apparent that the majority of the delegates were for Blaine for president as first choice and Harrison for second. Blaine's name set them wild, and Harrison's provoked great enthusiasm. The secretaries elected were E. M. Rands, of Oregon City, and J. B. Eddy, of Pendleton.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

After the adoption of the platform the convention proceeded to the election of presidential electors, as follows: Hon. J. F. Caples, Portland; Hon. H. B. Miller, Grants Pass; Hon. G. M. Irwin, Union; Hon. W. D. Hare, Hillsboro.

NATIONAL DELEGATES.

The following were chosen as delegates to the National republican convention: First district, Hon. Thomas H. Tongue, Hillsboro; O. C. Applegate, Klamath. Alternates: C. E. Wolverton, Albany; R. R. Hayes, Tillamook.

Second district, Hon. Joseph Simon, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Portland. Alternates: Hon. C. W. Fulton, Astoria; C. W. Donaldson, Baker City.

DELEGATES TO CONGRESS.

Hon. Binger Hermann, Douglass county, renominated by acclamation for the first district.

Hon. W. R. Ellis, of Morrow county, nominated on the fourth ballot for the second district.

Mr. Hermann was of course not present to respond to the handsome work done in his behalf. Mr. Ellis was, however, and following the announcement of his nomination which was received with great enthusiasm by his adherents, came forward and made a brief speech, thanking the convention for his nomination. He was gladly received, and by none more cordially than by Hon. J. C. Leasure.

A committee of one from each county was appointed on motion of Judge Olmsted, on platform, and the convention took a recess of two hours.

At 2 p. m. the convention again met; the committee on credentials reported, and business was resumed. The platform was adopted, section by section, each clause provoking cheers.

The Meeting Today.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.] PORTLAND, April 7.—The following nominations were made up to noon today. For members of the state board of equalization, G. W. Dunn, of Ashland; A. C. Woodcock, of Eugene; Samuel Gibson, of Dallas; J. P. O. Lowndale, of Portland; G. W. Wingate, of Astoria; W. Moffett, of Malheur; and J. C. Luekey, of Crook.

During recess the convention received a telegram from W. D. Hare, declining the nomination for presidential elector, and D. M. Dunn of Portland, was nominated to fill the vacancy.

W. W. Steiver of Gilliam, was nominated for joint senator for Gilliam, Sherman and Wasco; H. S. McDaniels of Sherman, for joint senator, for Sherman and Wasco and E. N. Chandler and S. R. Coon, for joint representatives for Sherman and Wasco.

Judge F. A. Moore was nominated for supreme judge on the first ballot. L. R. Webster, of Jacksonville, was nominated attorney general on the first ballot.

The convention is still in session as we go to press.

Rhode Island Election.

Special to THE CHRONICLE.]

PROVIDENCE, April 7.—Returns show that the legislature will be republican. Returns for state officers show no election. As Rhode Island is the first state to cast a ballot this (presidential) year, the result is watched with more than usual interest. In 1888 the vote stood as follows, for president and governor: Democratic—president 17,530; governor, 17,444. Republican—president, 21,968; governor, 20,768. In 1890: Democratic governor, 20,548; Republican governor, 18,988. In 1891: Democratic governor, 22,294; Republican governor, 20,995. There were four tickets in the field in 1890, and 1891, prohibition and nationalist, in addition to democratic and republican: The laws of Rhode Island require a majority of the votes cast for the election of a state ticket. In the event of no ticket receiving a majority, the election is thrown into the legislature. In 1891 and 1890, as will be seen by the above figures, a majority vote was not received by any one ticket. The legislature being republican in 1891 and democratic in 1890, the present governor is a republican, and his predecessor in office was a democrat, as the present legislature of Rhode Island is largely republican, the state ticket will be republican.

Venezuela in a Tight Fix.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Advices by steamer from Caracas to March 30th, report the government of Venezuela is in a remarkably tight fix. Every one of the states was in open revolt, and hardly a military man of prominence sided with Palacio. The finances of the country were simply wrecked, Venezuela and Caracas have both refused to redeem their bills for the reason that Palacio had appropriated their gold and exported it. The revolutionists already number about 12,000 men, and re-enforcements from all the states are coming in rapidly. The Venezuela chief magistrate is in constant fear of assassination. Not only has the magistrate to fear its enemies in the field, but in the city the revolutionists, have made considerable headway. Their emissaries have successfully invaded the ranks of the police force of Caracas, upon whose loyalty the administration has so stoutly relied, and it is said that many of the police have deserted and gone over to the enemy.

Election Returns.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Chicago returns up to 6 o'clock on the contest for aldermen from the various wards show the election of twenty republicans, eleven democrats and three independents. Returns from the municipal elections throughout Missouri, show that where party lines were drawn the democrats are in the ascendant, except in the republican strongholds, where the latter kept their forces intact. Under the Australian system, the elections in Arkansas passed off quietly. The democratic ticket was generally successful.

Passengers Have Rights.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Judge Hunt today rendered a decision overruling the demurrer of the Southern Pacific Company to the complaint of W. H. Robinson in his suit for damages for refusing to sell him a ticket from San Francisco to Alameda entitling him to stop over at Oakland. The court held that a passenger was entitled to stop at any intermediate station and resume his journey within six months.

Breaking Up Unions.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—Since April 1st, the Southern Express company has discharged about ninety express messengers for being members of the Messengers' brotherhood. The move was entirely unexpected to the members. The Pacific and the United States companies have been following the example set by the Adams, and discharging the brotherhood men and filling their places with non-union men.

Anti-Lottery New Orleans.

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—A special dispatch from New Orleans says: "The city of New Orleans has been in a state of the wildest political excitement all day over the action of the committee of seven of the democratic returning board in counting out McEnery at the primary election, and counting in Foster, the anti-lottery candidate. The result will probably be a split among the democrats in the state and national elections."

Kansas City Democratic.

KANSAS CITY, April 6.—The democrats made a clean sweep yesterday, electing their entire ticket with the exception of candidates to the upper house.

NOTORIOUS CAPT. HATFIELD KILLED

Moonshine Whisky and Kentucky Pistols

Do the Last Act.

BAD ANSE PROBABLY THE HERO.

The Victim the Worst of the Gang—No Arrests Made—Other News.

LOUISA, Ky., April 6.—Raftsmen from the head of the Big Sandy river have brought the news that Capt. Hatfield was killed a few evenings ago in a row over a game of poker in his house among outlaws who had solemnly vowed perpetual friendship. In the mountains of Logan county, W. Va., near the secluded retreat of the notorious Bad Anse Hatfield, is the house of Capt. Hatfield, whose record for murders in the Hatfield-McCoy feud stand second only to that of his brother Anse. A few days ago one of the Hatfield brothers, accompanied by a friend named Bayson, called on Capt. Hatfield at his house for the purpose of enjoying a social evening with a game of poker and a jug of moonshine. Through the early part of the evening all went well, but as the night wore on the men became crazed with liquor. The good luck of their host led the visitors to accuse him of fraud. Pistols were drawn and shots freely exchanged. The captain fell shot through the heart. The other escaped unhurt. So great is the terror which the Hatfields have created among their associates that it is absolutely impossible to ascertain with certainty which one of the brothers aided in this last murder, but Anse's name is connected with it. No arrests have been made. Capt. Hatfield was regarded as the worst member of the Hatfield gang, though he had not, perhaps, killed as many people as his brother Bad Anse.

Locomotive Explosion.

LONG ISLAND CITY, April 6.—A locomotive exploded with terrific force in the yards of the Long Island railway here at 9:30 this morning. Eight men working near were severely injured, some fatally. The engineer and fireman are among the latter. The locomotive was completely wrecked. The accident happened while the train was moving out of the station here toward Blissville. It was known as a working train, and consisted of a locomotive and a number of flat-cars. Six men, seated on the first car were blown in all directions. Engineer Walker was so badly scalded that death is certain; the fireman and three others are probably fatally injured. No one seems to know just how the accident happened. Neither the engineer nor fireman is able to make a statement. Railroad officials say that they can only account for the accident by the water being low in the boiler.

Anarchists Again at Work.

PARIS, April 6.—The police office at Angers, a manufacturing town 200 miles from Paris, was seriously damaged by dynamite early this morning. Several policemen were injured, two seriously. Policemen were sent from Paris to hunt the anarchists who were suspected.

A Sensible Girl.

CINCINNATI, April 6.—Miss Bettie Fleishman, daughter of the millionaire yeast manufacturer and distiller, Charles Fleishman, of this city, has broken her engagement with Count Logothetti, because he refuses to become an American citizen.

South Dakota Temperance.

YANKTON, S. D., April 6.—The April courts have declared the prohibition law constitutional. This will close the twenty-two saloons here that have been running under the local license law during the past year.

Chancellor Saulsbury Dead.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 6.—Willard Saulsbury, aged 72, chancellor of the state of Delaware, and ex-United States senator, died suddenly at Dover this morning of heart failure.

Younger Than His Wife.

LONDON, April 6.—Sir Edward Watkin, the railway king, was married today to Mrs. Ingram, widow of the founder of the Illustrated London News. Watkin is 72 and Mrs. Ingram 82 years old.
