The Times-Mountaineer says: "The faction which has dominated over the politics of this county has met defeat at the primaries, the county convention and in the state convention. It has met a most disastrous Waterloo, and it must learn by experience that the people rule in The Dalles and Wasco county. For the past twenty years this selfish clique has impeded enterprise and progress in this city—until The Dalles today is a synonym all over the north-west for 'mosbackism,'—and carried its spleen against those who opposed it in political, business and social relations. We hope this utter rout of its forces, 'horse, foot and dragons,' will teach it a practical lesson in good behavior and respect for the rights of others.

The situation is this: There are two factions in the Republican party of Wasco county. One is known as the Moody faction; the other as the Mays—or if you will—the Farley faction. The Moody faction is the friend and tool of the railroad, always was and always will be, till God converts it and that will never be. The Moody faction is the enemy of the people. Its head and boss and chief sachein is the plant and open tool of the railroad, made all he owns and all that all belonging to him own through the railroad. He is an open enemy of an open river and an open and avowed friend of the railroad, and the Times-Mountaineer is his prophet. The head of the other faction is Robert Mays. He is the president of the new line of boats and one of its largest stockholders. The "faction" to which he belongs is the friend of an open river. It is composed largely of the men who built the boats and thereby put thousands of dollars in the people's pockets. Every interest of this "faction," from its head down is identified with and bound up in the interests common to all. The Times-Mountaineer claims the Moody faction is on top or it means nothing. If the Times-Mountaineer claim is true then the worst enemy of the people of Wasco county is on top; then the railroad is on top; then the enemy of an open river is on top. Where is the victory of Moody in the county and state nominations? What Moody men are on the ticket? Let the Mountaineer name them,—dare to name and the voters of Wasco county, republicans, democrats, alliance men, prohibitionists, everybody, will as one man unite to bury them as sure as there is a God in Israel. The Chronicle is not fighting the ticket, but it does not intend to fight the ticket but it will fight the enemies of the people as long as the present writer has control of it.

Tacoma exchanges speak of new railroad company having been organized in that city on the 4th inst., called the Tacoma, Lake Park and Columbia river railway company, with a capital stock of $3,000,000. The Tacoma and Lake Park railroad, 12 miles in length, has been transferred to the new company and it is said that the work of extending that road to the Tilton river, 50 miles distant from Tacoma, will commence next month. The plan is to finish the road to The Dalles this summer and here connect with the Union Pacific system. The line, it is said, will be about 150 miles in length. It will traverse Pierce, Lewis, Skamania and Klickitat counties and cross the mountains by Cowlitz pass. Just how the proposed road will traverse Skamania county and go through the Cowlitz pass we are not told. If it traverses the one it surely cannot go through the other, as any one may see by consulting a map of Washington. We shall be glad of anything that will open up the country and reduce the cost of transportation but we greatly fear that it will be a long time before a road is built over the above described route.

The Chronicle repeats its warning to Boss Moody, that if he desires the success of the republican ticket, he must put a muzzle on the man whom he has hired to run the Times-Mountaineer in his interest, or else curtail his supply of liquid refreshments.

Astorian are bestirring themselves in preparations for the coming celebration commemorative of the discovery of the Columbia river. The whole nation should be awakened to an interest in the subject, and time is short.

Harrison's opponents are reported to be hard at work, but while they are stirring cream in a small bowl the president is using a large, patent rotary churn.
