MARKET REVIEW.

THUBSDAY, April 7, 1892. The wet, cool weather of the past week has checked the trade of the city somewhat, but for all that, business has been quite satisfactory. There are no material changes worthy of note, save a prices there are no changes. Sugar is very firm, produced by the combine, very firm, produced by the combine, and there is no telling what the result will be in the outcome, but it is expected and see fair play.' The cabman got and there is no telling what the result that prices will rise higher than they have been during the past few months.

The produce market is well supplied with all kinds of vegetables. New onions, radishes, lettuce, spinach and asparagus is in fair supply from home supply at 45@50 cents per roll. Potatoes are in good supply at 45@60 cents per sack.

The wool market is slumbering as usual. Buyers are not in it yet, as they say. There is no sale in Eastern markets but a disposition to let wool alone for the present, as they are afraid to touch it on the present uncertainty. It is thought, however, that by the 1st of July there will considerable activity in the markets.

Mill feed is short of supply but for-mer prices are maintained. Timothy hay is plentiful in market at a decline in price. Wheat hay is scarce.

The Cabman Was Afraid. Mr. Walter Besant talls the following story of a disputed cab fare: "A friend of mine drove from Piccadilly to some place in the suburbs outside the radius. On getting down he tendered three shillings and sixpence for his fare-this was material changes worthy of note, save a decline in flour and a corresponding drop in wheat. Portland's market is very sluggish and a general complaint of dullness for the season of the year. In the grocery trade and general prices there are no changes. Sugar is ing attitude. 'The very thing! Capital! down slowly.

"'I was pleased,' continued the nar-rator, 'to discover that he appeared almost as much afraid as I was myself, perhaps - if that was possible - even more. He followed into the back garasparagus is in fair supply from nome growth, at reasonable rates. Pie plant, or rhubarb, has made its appearance in some of our fruit stands. Eggs are quite plentiful at former quotations. Gilt edge butter is in good supply at 45@50 cents per roll. Potaden, where there was a lovely little bit soon as you are.' The anxiety of the moment was, I confess, very great. But it decreased as I watched the man's face express successively all the emotions of bounce, surprise, doubt, hesitation and abject cowardice. 'No,' he said, 'gimme the three and six; I know your tricks, both of you. I've been done this way before.' And so, grumbling and swear-ing, he drove away."

In just 24 hours J. V. S. relieves constipation and sick headaches. After it gets the system under control an occasional dose prevents return. We refer by permission to W. H. Marshall, Bruns, wick House, S. F.; Geo. A. Werner, 531 California

I recognized in it at once an barb that the Verleavened to its so once an herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 50's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1889,) and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. THE LEADING PAPER Of the Leading City of Eastern Oregon. During the little over a year of its existence it has earnestly tried to fulfill the objects for which it was founded, namely, to assist in developing our industries, to advertise the resources of the city and adjacent country and to work for an open river to the sea. Its record is before the people and the phenomenal support it has received is accepted as the expression of their approval. Independent in everything, neutral in nothing, it will live only to fight for what it believes to be just and right.
