Arrested Under a Queer Dakota Law. Isaac Milliner, a rancher from the vicinity of Fort Mead, has been arrested in Deadwood, S. D., on the charge of offering beef for sale without exhibiting the hide, an act prohibited by a law, passed at the instance of cattlemen, by the last legislature, and intended to prevent the sale of stolen catile. Mr. Mil-liner states that the beef offered for sale was his property, and that he has the hide at his ranch, and will produce it to prove that he has not committed a criminal act. This is the first arrest made Old papers, nice and clean, for sale at nnder the law, and it occasioned consid-this office. They are useful for many erable surprise, as the peculiar provisions, of the law were not generally known. There is no doubt of Milliner's innocence, but the arrest will serve to spread a knowledge of the strange law. Milliner was released under $100 bonds .- Cor. Omaha World-Herald.

Intelligent Missionary Effort.

The Rev. Dr. Storrs, the president of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, has good reasons for felicitating himself on the result of his conciliatory policy. The board's receipts for this year have been $690,921, against $465,372 the previous twelve months. To manage successfully a board which has such interests under its charge as this one, something more is needed than a determination to crush out all in-Miss Clara B. During the little over a year of its existence it has earnestly tried to fulfill the objects for which it was founded, namely, to assist in developing our industries, to advertise the resources of the city and adjacent country and to work for an open river to the sea. Its record is before the people and the phenomenal support it has received is accepted as the expression of their approval. Independent in everything, neutral in nothing, it will live only to fight B. OF L. E.-Meets every Sunday afternoon in for what it believes to be just and right.

OREGON LIME.

This lime is manufactured by The Oregon Marble and Lime Company, near Huntington, Oregon, and has earned the reputation of being the strongest lime in the market, and consequently, in addi-tion to making the best work is at an equal price, the cheapest to the user. The following analysis by W. G. Jenne, chemist, Portland, Oregon, is worthy of consideration:

pean tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thou-sands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea upon arriving in the United States graducontinue its use, and finally cease it ally di altogether.

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless teas. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated teadrinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate? In view of these facts, is there not an im-mediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be un-colored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more in-herent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being re-quired for an infusion. This you will dis-cover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural fa-vor of an unadulterated article. It is a revela-tion to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:
