MR. ELLIS AT HOME.

How the Candidate was Received on His Return to Heppner.

From the Heppner Gazette.

As Friday's train pulled into the depot with the republican delegates, their friends and the nominee of the second district republicans for congress, Hon. W. R. Ellis, they were greeted by sweet strains from the Heppner cornet band and the happy shouts of an immense crowd of citizens.

A procession was formed, headed by the band, marching up town. Bonfires were burning all along the route, and at Gunn's and Whetstone's blacksmith shops the anvils were trying their level best to be heard all over Morrow county.

Arriving at the First National Bank corner an impromptu stand was erected, J. N. Brown presenting Mr. Ellis, who made a short speech, in which he thanked his friends, regardless of party ties, for their influence in his behalf.

Otis Patterson and J. N. Brown were then called upon for remarks, which they responded to as well as possible under the circumstances. A general hand-shaking was then indulged in, and it was noticeable that Mr. Ellis' democratic friends were just as proud as the republicans in having Morrow county represented by a candidate for congress, and, too, in the person of himself.

His friends are legion, and are not confined altogether to the republican party. Anyone will recognize the fact that Mr. Ellis will carefully look after our interests, if elected; that he is not a man who will permit himself to be drawn into questionable connections. He is a pure and able gentleman, a poor man, comparatively in this world's goods. He is a friend to the wage-earner, the farmer, and will in no way overlook their interests.

The latter, with full accord, demand the early opening of the Columbia river, God's natural highway to the interior. Ellis is the man who will, in the event of the election, and of this there is no doubt, let nothing rest till it is accomplished.

Deeming the Demon. Guiteau was an admirable person in comparison with the fiend Deeming, now under arrest in Melbourne.

Deeming clearly is not insane; certainly not as much so as was Guiteau. His brain is probably as healthy as that of the average man. He is one of those monstrosities that occasionally crop up in the very midst of a refined civilization; cold-blooded, heartless, devoid of conscience; one of the cowardly villains whose victims are invariably unsuspecting women and helpless children, and whose hideous crimes make refined women and Christian men rejoice over the existence of the gallows and the prevalence of capital punishment.

Miss Julia Hubbard, sister of Mr. Linus Hubbard of this city, who has been on a visit to her brother from Buffalo, New York, for some time past, is preparing to return soon to her eastern home. Before going however, a trip to the mouth of the Columbia, taking in Astoria, Fort Stevens and Canby, the jetty, lights, Ilwaco, Seaside, Etc., is in contemplation.

The Shadow social given in the neat and newly refitted hall in THE CHURCH building last night, was a success. Attendance and ice cream were both good. The shadow auction sales were amusing and profitable. Harmon Lodge, I. O. G. T., netted about $20 for their regalia fund, and passed a vote of thanks to Mr. J. B. Crossen, for his kindness in officiating as chief auctioneer of the evening.

Pennsylvania Has a Demon. JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 15.—A horrible story of inhuman treatment became public here today when Albert Zitman was arrested on two charges of cruelty by the humane society officers. It looks very much as if Zitman was preparing to emulate Deeming's example by inhuman treatment of an old German named Blomzuck, who was chained to the floor, and left to die of cold and starvation. Zitman had also locked his own children, seven and nine years old, in the house with the body of the dead man, and they were found lying in filth on the bare floor. The body of the old German shows marks of terrible beatings and of bruises where his chains cut into his limbs. The children act like gibbering idiots, being crazed by the treatment they have received. The old man is guarded in jail to prevent the mob from doing him justice according to the code of Judge Lynch.

The Ashland Times mentions the name of Senator Dolph for the second place on the republican national ticket.

Grants Pass Courier. Cap. Henderson is about to erect a hotel at the mouth of the famous Josephine county caves, and those romantic fastnesses will soon become a famous summer resort. They are distant twenty miles southeast of Kerby, within three miles of the California line. The subterranean passages have been explored for about ten miles and they seem to run away into California. The captain says there is tolerable good footing most of the way, but the chambers are up and down, necessitating the use of ladders at various points. In one place there is a deep pit into which rocks have been thrown, but have never been heard to strike, so it is considered pretty nearly bottomless. They will be most fully explored in the future.

A CLOUD BURST.

"Say, John, where did you get those well fitting stylish shoes from?"

"Why, I purchased them of The Dalles Mercantile Company."

"You don't say so?"

"But why do you ask?"

"Because I have never seen such shoes since I left Boston. What brand did you say they were?"

"Why Walter H. Tenney & Co., of course."

"Well, now; I thought so. I am right glad I met you, for I shall buy a pair for myself, and take my family along too, for my children have always worn them. And do you know? they last a whole year."

"Yes, and you can get them in all widths, and prices, in men's, ladies, misses, child's, infants, boys and youths. And do you know, they are sold under a guarantee?"

"No. Why do they do so?"

"Because they have a world wide reputation, and can be relied upon."

The Walter H. Tenney Shoe is sold only by The Dalles Mercantile Company, who are sole agents for The Dalles.

OREGON LIME.

This lime is manufactured by The Oregon Marble and Lime Company, near Huntington, Oregon, and has earned the reputation of being the strongest lime in the market, and consequently, in addition to making the best work is at an equal price, the cheapest to the user. The following analysis by W. G. Jenne, chemist, Portland, Oregon, is worthy of consideration:

Carbonate of Lime 98.56 Magnesia .015 Silica .121 Water .035 Peroxide of Iron .07 Phosphates Trace Alumina .03 Sulphates Trace 99.99
