The wholesale evasion and violation of in the indictment of many railroad offi-cials and shippers and the conviction of nobody, is stirring up the railroads, the shippers and the press to call for changes in its provisions. Rebates are granted years ago as rank heresy, but they verito large shippers to the extent of 5 to 10 fy the aphorism of Brer Rabbit that cents on 100 pounds, and the most incents on 100 pounds, and the most in-Furnisher. genious devices are employed to avert detection. A common practice is to place a favorite shipper on the railroad pay roll at a salary equal to his probable rebate, which also permits him to rereceive free transportation. Cash rebates are paid on the presentation of expense bills made out with each shipment according to the regular published tariff, so that no written evidence exists of any violation. In Kansas and Nebraska grain shippers and bankers acknowledge that the railroads surrepatitiously quote rates that enable their favorites to control their field absolutely; the long and short haul violations are receive free transportation. Cash renotorious. The law goes just far enough to bother railroads and shippers without doing any considerable good. The commissioners themselves are not satisfied with it, calling for amendments which will enable them to enforce it. The substance of the trouble is the utter impotence of the provision forbidding pool-stricted pooling, but as Ex-Gov. Authony of Kansas says, the way to make this successful would be to place the centrol of the pool in the hands of government. When Uncle Sam controls the railroads, they can pool all they want, and whatever benefits the shipper

They Don't Like Oregon Sheep.

It is right for the CHRONICLE to inform its numerous readers among the wool growers of Wasco and Sherman counties what they may expect in the event of their moving their flocks to the state of Liberty streets. of them do at this season. A couple of weeks ago John C. O'Leary of Rutledge, moved a band of 1,000 sheep across the Columbia at Grant's ferry. As soon as the sheep were landed a demand was made for taxes amounting to within a few cents of $40. The taxes were paid and the sheep moved on. In about a week Druggists and Chemists and the sheep moved on. In about a week a man named Carter, who lives near the Clickitat bridge made another demand for trespass which was promptly refused. Carter claimed that the sheep had been Dispensing Physicians' Prescriptions a Specialty pastured on certain lands belonging to him on which there was neither fence nor furrow to indicate ownership. Eventually when Carter's-lines were pointed out it was found that Mr. O'Leary's sheep had been salted on a bed of rocks a little inside the lines. Mr. O'Leary affirms there was not a spear of grass on the place-only rocks, more convenient for salting than earth, hence chosen for that purpose; but the sheep had tramped on the rocks and damaged them several hundred dollars worth, and Mr. Carter wanted the treepass money right away. Mr. O'Leary refused, as we have said, and next day sheriff Stimpson arrested him for the crime of trespass and took him to Goldendale where he was tried before a justice and fined in the sum of $20 conditioned on a further payment of $25 to Carter and the cost of the action, the whole amounting to $53. So Mr. O'Leary is out $93, up to date on his 1,000 head of sheep, which may be all right as far as Washington is concerned; the CHRON-ICLE simply tells the tale for the benefit of other sheep men who intend taking their sheep on a similar trip.

What Loyalty is This? WASHINGTON, April 18.-Intimate friends of Dave Hill gave it out today that the New York senator will not countenance Cleveland's nomination if he can help it. They say that the Hill men will publicly warn the national convention that if it nominates Cleveland he could not carry New York state and that they will knife Cleveland to Furniture and Carpets. the last.

Radical English Fashions Don't Go. The recent refusal to sanction with the customary prompt enthusiasm sev-eral of the most radical changes in the regime that have been made of late years by London swells has had a decidedly discomfiting effect upon our English cousins. Their confidence of leadership has received naturally a severe shock in consequence. From all accounts the London swell mob is passing through a period of experimentalism. As a result unsettled in fifty years.

The heavy swells continue groping aimlessly after the clusive innovation. For their independence at this time, therefore, Americans have cause for self congratulation-the more particularly so on account of the very divergent character of some of the foreign ultra speculations. Advanced copies of the recent London fads in coats and top coats, had they been tried suddenly on the New York public, would have created almost a riot in the streets. The English swell, be it known, can dress himself up as his fancy dictates and the

Now that we have thrown off the shackles of slavish emulation and blithe-ly accept or reject what we want, or what does not appeal to the sense of the fitness of things, the English fashion framer will come down from his oracu-severe case of pneumonia or lung fever.

Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines.
