War Excitement in the Metropolis. The recent war talk tested the patriotism of the members of the National Guard in this city with flattering results. Several of the retired veterans of the Seventh regiment, for instance, hastened to get themselves enrolled on the active list in order that they might be ready to go to the front with the old regiment if the occasion should require. In a few instances new uniforms were ordered by veterans who had outgrown their old ones.

Another thing that the war talk did was to bring out in full force the "extra" howlers. These noisy tricksters permeated the entire city for several days. They stirred up the down town business sections at noon and startled the people in the residence streets in the evenings. On two or three occasions the papers they sold actually contained some news about the Chilean situation, but in the majority of cases there was nothing to justify the harrowing cry of "Extra" and not infrequently the buyer of an "extra" would find himself in possession of a newspaper one day old for which he paid five times the regular price. Two enterprising shouters went through several usually quiet streets on the west side above Fiftieth street one evening and worked off a few hundred copies of a cheap illustrated paper nearly a month old. They had probably bought the lot at so much per pound, and they sold the papers at five cents a copy.—New York Times.

Set a Horse's Broken Rib. Four or five months ago one of the hostlers employed at the stable of Charles D. Nichols, of Pawtucket, noticed that one of the handsome pair of cream geldings acted a little lame. A superficial examination of the shoulder resulted in not finding any cause for lameness. The next morning, when the animal was taken out to be curried, there was a swelling back of the shoulder and a veterinary surgeon was consulted. It appeared to him like rheumatism and with instructions to see if it could not be sweated out he left, saying he would call the next day. The sweating process did not meet the desired results, and a thorough examination revealed the fact that the fifth rib was broken off very close to the backbone.

The rib was set, and since that time the animal has done no work. The result of this piece of bonesetting has been watched with no small amount of interest by all veterinary surgeons hereabout who have become acquainted with the peculiar circumstances of the case. How the rib was broken is yet a mystery, and it probably will remain so. The result of the operation was successful, and in a short time the animal will again be all right.—Providence Journal.

False Conviction Blighted His Life. Edward Murphy, who died at Jackson, Mich., recently, aged eighty years, after being struck by an engine, had a remarkable experience. Thirty years ago he was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree and sent to prison for life. Seven years were spent in solitary confinement until life solitary was abolished, then for fourteen years he labored in the wagon shop. At the end of twenty-five years a dying man confessed to the murder and Murphy was released. That was seven years ago. The state pensioned him at $300 a year by a special act of the legislature. He was broken down and his death resulted from his inability to hear the whistle of the train. His only relative is a brother in Liverpool, England. When he was convicted he was a prosperous drover.—Cor Chicago Herald.

Worth $300,000 and a Tramp. The courts have been asked to appoint a guardian for John Swim, an aged wanderer, who, though worth $300,000, has led the life of a tramp from boyhood. He has begged the most of what he possesses, and is so miserably that he will not clothe himself properly.

A week ago he was found by the roadside almost frozen to death. He owns farms in several counties, and is known all over the state as the "wealthy tramp." He once lived at the almshouse at Lancaster for a year before the authorities discovered they had been entertaining the richest man in the county, and expelled him. Swim is ninety-seven years old, but quite hale, and has engaged a lawyer to resist the motion for a guardian.—Columbus Cor Philadelphia Press.

Queer Names for Towns. Pennsylvania has twelve towns or postoffices with very peculiar names, viz., Stumptown, Bullskin, Shintown, Juggtown, Puckertown, Sin Sis, Scrubgrass, Hers, Man's Choice, Maiden's Choice and Bird in Hand.

North Carolina comes in a good second with Wolfscrape, Snake Bite, Que-whiffle, Gap Civil and Shoe Heel. Maryland has Slabtown Pompey Smash and Johnny Cake. Canada has Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw and Pollywog. Ohio has Slick, Rattlesnake and Kill-buck. Nebraska has a Rawhide, Minnesota a Purgatory and Wisconsin a Topsyde.—St. Louis Republic.

Rare Presence of Mind. At the corner of Fifteenth street and New York avenue a man released a cage of rats to be killed by dogs. One of the rats ran under the skirts of a lady standing in the corner. Instead of fainting or screaming she slightly raised her garments and gently shook the rat to the ground, after which she calmly boarded a car. The rat was killed. The incident was witnessed by an interested crowd.—Washington Post.

It is said the Chiswick House, where Fox and Canning died, and where the fifth duke of Devonshire gave his famous entertainments, is to be converted into an insane asylum.

An Illinois man traveled over 1,000 miles recently to recover an old family horse that had been stolen from him two years ago. He recovered the animal finally in Georgia.

Lighthouse Lamps and Lenses.

In lighthouses there are six orders of lights, graded according to their intensity. The lamp of the lowest or sixth order, which consumes only half a gill of coal oil an hour, gives about as much light as an ordinary parlor reading lamp (say 12 candle power), while the largest or first order lamp, which burns sixteen gills an hour, gives 450 candle power of light. But while the naked flame of the lamp gives this much light, the French Fresnel lens in which the lamp is set condenses and concentrates this light, so that it is multiplied in power many times. Thus the little 12 candle power flame of the sixth order lamp has in a lens a power of 75 candles; and the great 450 candle power light of the first order lamp, when placed in its enormous lens, gives a power of some 12,000 candles. Such a lens is 13 feet high and has a diameter of 6 feet.—Harper's Young People.

Look for the Key. Don't get angry at small things. Look at vexations now as you will view them thirty days from date. The angry man, who gets the wrong key and pushes and rattles the door till he breaks the lock, loses more time than if he had quietly gone for the right key, and pays for a new lock besides.—New York Recorder.

Pimples.

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthy digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."
