temporarily at a slandstill, the novel idea of starting off a worth on foot and sending two bloodhounds in pursuit of him half an hour later has commended itself to certain sportsmen residing inthe neighborhood of the Quorn as a cap ital way of killing time. The opening run was a great success, for, after strik ing the line of a passing and naturally very perturbed traveler on the high road, the hounds were with difficulty stopped and transferred to that of the legitimate quarry.

Traveling at a tremendons pace, and with music almost equal in volume to the cry of a pack of foxbounds, they ran all around Quorn village, their owner. regardless of snowdrifts, galloping in pursuit and taking the fences just as they came. The end of the run was somewhat singular, as directly the bloodhounds got up to the fugitive they evinced their delight by springing up to him and trying to lick his face.—London Telegraph.

In Case of War.

During our own war Governor Andrew, of Massachusetta made drew, of Massachusetts, made heavy pur-chases of guns in England, and when he got them over here the United States did not care to buy them. There they were. When the trouble developed, some years later, between Chili and Spain, these guns became Chilian property. They were carried out of Boston harbor properly enough, but on the high seas met a Chilian vessel and were paid for. They reached Valparaiso and were set up for defense. In use they developed a habit of bursting, and proved a valuable aid to the enemy. A number of them remain there, and should there ever be trouble Americans might find themselves with great guns from Massachusetts pointed at them, though what would happen were the guns fired would have to be determined by experience. got them over here the United States did en compared with our days, how innons were the boasted shot and shell the rebellion. Of course it does not make much difference whether a giant is killed by a toothpick or hoisted with a petard. He is dead all the same, and worms will eat him. But we were proud, and with good reason, of those big smooth bores and of their charges in those parlous days.

Then the theory was that for every ten pounds of shot one pound of powder was needed, a 90-pounder being fired with nine pounds of powder; today we have for each pound of powder two pounds of shot, the 10-inch guns of the Miantonomoh, the Nantucket's neighbor, using 250 pounds of powder to drive the 500-pound projectile. The Nan-tucket has also a sentimental interest, for when the great Ericsson lay in state on her decks in the harbor of New York. country in time of peril, for the original Monitor went down one dismal day off our treacherous coast, and left as the second product of her wonderful type the little coast defender which now lies half hidden within the walls of the dry dock.—Harper's Weekly.

The Convict's Baby.

Early yesterday morning a knock was heard at the big door of the Fulton county jail. Jailer Miller opened the door and a ragged man came in. There was a haggard look on the fellow's face. It was Jim Wesson, the moonshiner, who escaped from the Fulton county jail a week ago to go home to see his sick "I'm sorry, Mr. Miller," he said baby. in a broken voice. "I hope you and Cap'n Morrow don't care, but I heard the baby"- He stopped a moment until his lip quit quivering so, and went on: "I heard the baby was sick, and I thought about wife watchin of it at home, and I just had to go. I was sorry, an I wrote you I'd come back. An I done it. They done buried the baby, an I come back, an I hope you ain't mad." Captain Miller did not-could not ut-

The Chilian Soldler. The Chilian soldier is a peculiarly organized fighting machine. He is preeminently and literally bloodthirsty, and he loves to see blood flow from wounds inflicted by his own hand. He's uses the rifle and even the bayonet, as it were, under protest, and can hardly be restrained, when at close quarters, from throwing down his firearms and hurling himself upon the foe knife in hand. An Englishman attached to the ambulance told me that after the battle of Pozo Almonte scores of men lay locked in the death grip, their knives plunged into one another's bodies,—M. H. Great Profit in Pipe Manufacture. The Mannesmann process of spinning tubes from solid ingots of iron and steel, which has attracted so much attention during the past two years, has proved a bonanza to some of the companies that adopted it. The report of the Mannes-mann German-Austrian tube works for the last year shows a profit of $342,000 on business aggregating only $789,000.— New York Journal.

Against Fog and Smote

Movements are on foot in various quarters having for their object the abatement of the smoke and fog nui-Bance The London fogs which descend upon the town are bad enough but are made almost unbearable to the healthiest and most robust people by smoke. Some extraordinary facts were elicited at the interview granted on Sunday by the lord mayor to a deputation from South Wales which wanted to introduce anthracite coal for house puroses. It was shown that the coal was argely used in Paris, Berlin and other Continental and American cities which enjoy an atmosphere absolutely pure compared with London's. The deputation held that anything tending to abate the fog nuisance should be given a fair

Sir John Puleston, who introduced the deputation, said that there were 700,000 houses in London and 1,500,000 chimneys. On a cold day about 40,000 tons of coal were consumed, emitting 480 tons of sulphur. His argument was that anthracite coal was cleaner and cheaper if householders could only be made to understand it. The mayor thought the deputation made a clear case, not for trade purposes, but for the public welfare, and promised his earnest support. -London Cor. New York Herald.

eruptions were due to a "blood hum which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsa-parillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have no-ticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear.
Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face.
