COUNTY OFFICIALS. County Judge C. N. Thornbury Sheriff D. L. Cates Clerk J. B. Crossen

The action of a party of Russian refugees at Chicago one day last week affords a striking commentary on unrestricted immigration.

The Spokane Review refers to a paragraph that appeared in the CHRONICLE last week, about the yearling seedling cherry tree now in bloom in the CHRONICLE show window.

The value of products shipped from the United States during the twelve months ending March 31, 1892, reached the enormous total of $1,006,000,000.

Ex-Governor, ex-State Senator, ex-Congressman, ex-Collector of Internal Revenue John Whiteaker was beaten in the democratic county convention of Lane county a short time ago for the nomination for county judge.

The penitentiary jute mill at Walla Walla, is about ready for operation. It will afford work for 200 prisoners and turn out 400 grain sacks a day.

CHICAGO, April 24.—Just as the Bee Hive drygoods house opened for business yesterday, a fire started near the main entrance, cutting off the escape 250 saleswomen.

ASHLAND, Wis., April 24.—The American house was partly destroyed by fire at midnight. There was a panic among guests, and several narrowly escaped with their lives.

The sloths at the Zoological gardens are not quite so green as they were when they first arrived. We do not refer to their growing recognition of the fact that nuts and buns are not suitable food for an arboreal creature which subsists upon leaves.

It is still more remarkable that the green color is not resident in the hair itself, but is due to the presence of quantities of minute green plants.

The first matches were pieces of wood about six inches long tipped with sulphur. They caught fire easily with a piece of flint.
