THE READING SCORED.

The New York Herald Devotes a Double Leaded Page to It.

MAKING UNPROFITABLE R. R. PAY.

Thousands of Men Thrown Out of Employment in Three Weeks.

THEIR WAGES TO MAKE DIVIDENDS

Coal Advances to a Figure Which Greatly Increases Cost of Manufactures.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The Herald devotes a page today to the Reading combination. This is its double-leaded summary of the matter: "The combination has been in active existence three weeks. In the great Lehigh valley coal region it has thrown 60,000 men out of employment half of the time. In the flourishing cities of the lower valley it has deprived 12,000 workmen of half their employment and saved from their wages $75,000. Its restriction of coal products is a sure forerunner of a coming advance in coal prices, which is to increase the cost of manufacturing in all the eastern states; the price of manufactures for the whole country and the cost of living for the people of New York. The only cause for all this disturbance of business and misfortune to the people is an attempt to make an unprofitable railroad pay excessive dividends for two other railroads which it has no right to possess."

Another Seattle Adventure.

SEATTLE, April 25.—Frank Lee, four months old, died in a mysterious way yesterday, and the coroner will be called upon to settle the cause of the infant's taking off. His mother is a handsome woman, and some time ago, under an assumed name, she advertised for and secured a baby. Shortly after, she sued R. L. Leslie, a prominent mining man, for seduction under the promise of marriage. He induced her to withdraw the suit by many soft promises, but, failing to keep them, she sued him again for $10,000, claiming that she had borne a boy child to him. The woman claims that the physician who attended her will swear that she is the mother of the babe, but the doctor keeps a still tongue, and will not talk. Now the baby is dead, and shortly Mrs. Lee's damage suit will come up for trial.

For Americans Only.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Secretary Tracy recently had his attention called to the fact that civilians are employed in the Navy yards who are not citizens of the United States. He thereupon issued an order that none but American citizens be so employed hereafter, and that aliens already in the service of the navy department must become citizens or get out. The Association of American Draughtsmen is engaged in preparing a record showing the nationality of the draughtsmen at the various government institutions. When it is completed it will be shown the department authorities at Washington in order that steps may be taken to make the force strictly American.

The New Italian Rifles.

LONDON, April 25.—A Rome correspondent of the Times says a great German authority has assured him that the new Italian rifle is the best yet introduced, being superior to the Lebel, Manceur or Mannlicher weapon, and that the Italian army authorities, conscious of this fact, are determined to go on manufacturing the rifle, whatever sacrifice will be entailed, even the abandonment of the African colony. The correspondent also says Signor Nicotera is dissolving his force in the cabinet, and Rudini fears to dispense with him lest he drive him into the ranks of the opposition. Nicotera is a clever politician, and is ambitious to lead the cabinet, and must be ousted before a settled government is possible.

Against the Sugar Trust.

PHILADELPHIA, April 25.—Another series of attacks against trusts by United States authorities are expected before long. C. M. Horiton, the newly-appointed agent of the department of justice, whose special duty it is to investigate illegal combines, has been in the city gathering information. It is understood that the special object of his visit is to collect evidence against the sugar trust and the National cordage trust.

Plague Subsiding.
RIO DE JANEIRO, April 25.—Yellow fever is abating here and at Santos.

The Queen Honored.
HYERES, France, April 25.—Queen Victoria left Costebelle for Darmstadt this morning. An immense crowd tendered her an ovation.

A Virginia Horse thief.
HUNTINGTON, Pa., April 25.—Madison Walker, a horse thief who since the war has been sent to the western penitentiary eight times for horsestealing, was captured yesterday. Walker operated the past nine weeks in West Virginia and Maryland. He was given in the hands of the Chester county authorities tonight.

A Circus Company Disbanded.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 25.—The circus company owned by Hamilton & Kelly went to pieces last night, after playing to the Auditorium. Mr. Norton, owner of the theater, paid fares and back salaries to the company, about $3,000; and took a bill of sale of all the effects. The company had a disastrous season.

Change of Time.

PORTLAND, April 25.—The Union Pacific railroad will on Sunday issue a new time-card. The time of nearly all the local trains will be affected and some important changes will be made. The morning train will arrive at 7:30 instead of 9 o'clock, and the evening train will arrive at 9 o'clock instead of 10:45 as at present. The time of departure of the evening train remains unchanged, but the morning train leaves forty-five minutes later, at 8:45 instead of 8 o'clock.

Nationalists for Free Coinage.

BOSTON, April 25.—The Second Nationalist club has adopted the following: Resolved, That until such time as the demonetizing of both gold and silver shall be accomplished through the nationalization of the money function, the Second Nationalist club of Boston declares itself in favor of free coinage of silver as a just re-establishment of our former equitable financial system; and that we declare it to be a false representation of the public press that there is no sentiment in Massachusetts in favor of the free coinage of silver."

Chinese Exclusion in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The Chinese exclusion bill was taken up today in the senate and the presiding officer put the question on the adoption of the substitute reported by the committee on foreign relations. Sherman gave the only affirmative vote, and, there being no vote in the negative, the presiding officer declared the substitute adopted. Immediately afterwards, however, Mitchell, who had the floor to speak against the substitute, came into the chamber, and the presiding officer was proceeding to put the question again when Butler said he understood the substitute was adopted. The presiding officer admitted that he had so decided, but said he would put the question again. "While the chair did so decide, it will count it as 'no vote.' Is the senate ready for the question?" "No sir," said Mitchell. Instead, however, of proceeding with his argument against the substitute, he yielded the floor to Squire, who argued in favor of the house bill, or some other vigorous measure, to enforce the exclusion of Chinese. He declared, however, the great trouble in the matter was the lax and ineffectual manner in which the existing laws are executed, and to sustain that view read copious extracts from the testimony taken by the senate committee on that subject a few years ago. Senator Mitchell then took the floor. He said, as much as he regretted to antagonize the deliberate judgement of the committee on foreign relations, he felt impelled by a sense of duty to vote against the substitute and in favor of absolute Chinese exclusion as expressed in the house bill. The discussion was continued until 4 o'clock, when a vote was taken on the substitute measure as reported from the committee on foreign relations and it was agreed to. The vote stood 43 to 14. Platt's amendment was next rejected, 45 to 8. The bill was then passed without division, and the title was amended so as to read: "To prohibit the coming of Chinese persons into the United States." A conference with the house was asked.

The Seattle Conspiracy.

SEATTLE, April 25.—Mrs. Radloff, who is now in jail, is getting very loquacious, and is beginning somewhat to enjoy her unenviable notoriety. She has gotten over her first fright, and says she is glad her husband has not yet been captured. The principal detective in the case is out of town, and the general impression is that he has a clue to the whereabouts of the missing man. Kostrach and Mrs. Radloff both deny the existence of any but business relations between them. The insurance men are putting up big money for the capture of Radloff, the live corpse.

MAY DAY IN PARIS.

The Anarchists Boldly Issue a Most Violent Manifesto.

URGING THE PEOPLE NOT TO VOTE.

Advised to be Men, and do Away With Government and its Rulers.

RAVACHOLS TRIAL THE PRETEXT.

Urges the Working People to Seize the Factories and Workshops—Other News.

PARIS, April 25.—L'Eclair publishes a text of the anarchist proclamation, secretly printed with a view to influencing the municipal election, which will be held May 1st. This is a violent manifesto, advocating the neutrality in elections, which are denounced as the bourgeois farce. "Remember," the manifesto says, "by going to the polls you imitate sheep going to the shambles. Be men, and learn to do without rulers and governments; that is to say, masters and oppressors. Then, and then only, on the ruins of a horrible and monstrous past, whose sole basis and rule was an idiotic struggle for existence, you may lay the foundation of an organization for the future, resting entirely on the agreement of a free, harmonious integral life. Principles of equality, liberty and justice will then not long be vain formulas, and by anarchy, without God or master, all may freely produce according to their own strength, while amply consuming according to their wants." It further urges the working people to seize the workshops, factories, warehouses, and commence a social revolution. The trial of Anarchist Ravachol begins tomorrow. The rush for tickets of admission to the courthouse has been somewhat dampened by the threat of the socialists that they will not allow any sentence against him to be carried out. It is feared that one of them may gain admission to the court, to throw a bomb at the judge. Yesterday the restaurant of M. Very, who on March 30th delivered Ravachol, the anarchist, into the hands of police, was utterly wrecked by a bomb explosion. Very was killed, and his grand-daughter, and two other ladies, injured. Very's wife lost her senses by the shock. It is the general opinion that the explosion was perpetrated mainly to terrorize the jurymen who will be on duty at the Ravachol trial. Three persons were arrested, and one of them shouted "Vive l'anarchie" on being taken into custody.

Cause for Divorce.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 25.—Mrs. Porter Stocks has filed a petition for a divorce from her husband, a nephew of the noted revivalist Sam P. Jones. They have been married some years. She is the daughter of Z. A. Rice, and had a dowry of $20,000. She was spending the winter in Florida, when she was prostrated by learning that her husband had killed Alfred Cassin. Her mother-in-law went to see her; so did her own brother and sister. It was only through her money that competent legal counsel could be retained to defend Stocks. Her reply is not an offer of money, but a suit for absolute divorce, cruel treatment being the cause assigned. Stocks is in jail.

College Political Forecast.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 25.—Under the auspices of Harvard Union, a national convention will be held in Sanders' theater Friday evening, to nominate candidates for political parties for the presidency of the United States. Prominent college men of all political parties will participate, and the event promises to be more successful even than the Yale debate. So much has been said of the political preferences of Harvard that the result of next Friday's vote for candidates will be awaited with interest. The affair will be conducted in precisely the same manner as the great conventions that are to meet at Minneapolis and Chicago.

Senator Teller is kept busy denying the statement he is interested in a third-party movement, the basis of which is the farmers' alliance, and in asserting he has no presidential aspirations. The article which caused the senator so much annoyance appeared in a number of papers, and reported he favored a party which would adopt the free coinage of silver as a platform, and would seek votes from the democratic and republican parties.
