FIND READY MILWAUKEE HACKMEN

To Point out Convenient Ministers

Willing to Tie the Knot.

"A GOOD THING FOR THE TOWN."

The Ministers Explain, and Will Petition for a More Stringent Marriage Law.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 27.—The members of the Milwaukee Ministers' association feel that there is a good deal to explain relative to runaway marriages and they are going to prepare an explanation for the public. A committee for this purpose has been appointed consisting of Rev. A. A. Kiehle, Rev. Henry Noehren, Rev. M. B. Ryan, Rev. W. P. Hellings and Rev. M. M. Parkhurst to draw up a petition to the legislature asking the passage of a more stringent marriage law and also to prepare an address to the public explaining the attitude of the ministers on the runaway marriage question. Rev. Mr. Parkhurst has been looking into the matter from the hackman's standpoint. The hackman, he said, first located ministers as near the railway station as possible and ascertained what hours they could usually be found in. Next he found out whether the minister asked too many searching questions from runaway couples, and lastly he made sure the minister would make a division of the marriage fees. If this was all satisfactory the hackman then became a regular runner for that particular minister and took all his trade to him. Mr. Parkhurst confessed that he saw nothing especially reprehensible in this on the part of the hackman. If there was any blame it rested with the ministers who were lax and who were sometimes overzealous in uniting runaway couples in the holy bands of matrimony. Several ministers differ with the Rev. Mr. Parkhurst. They took the ground that the ministers were doing all that could be expected of them and that the fault lay with the defective state laws. As it was now justices of the peace could marry any person, so that in case the ministers refused the parties would simply look up a justice of the peace. One minister suggested the justices were more particular than some of the ministers, but the sentiment was coughed down. Rev. J. A. Davis thought there ought to be more restrictions, and this was mildly approved. A number of hackmen were seen but refused to talk on the subject, saying that there was "nothing in it." "We know our business, see?" said one jehu. "We do the hauling, say nothing and saw wood. There's plenty of ministers that want our trade and we know it. All they want is for us fellows to say nothing." "I'll tell you how it is," said another hackman. "There's a good bit in it for the hackmen and for the ministers, too. More Chicago people come up here to get spiced than anybody knows of. They come in on one train, get tied, and away they go back on the next train. Now, I claim that's a good thing for the town; it's foreign capital coming in and nothing going out. I haul for two ministers and we get along pretty well together. We used to take these (moonshine) couples to the hotels, but now we deliver the goods direct. I guess the ministers won't hurt themselves trying to have any new marriage law passed."

Beginning Early.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—In order to avoid the unpleasantness of March 4th, as heretofore, the committee on public buildings and grounds have been instructed to enquire into the practicability of providing sufficient shelter east of the capitol for the protection of persons who may take part in the inaugural ceremonies. The "savage weather" of past years has endangered many lives on such occasions, and this move is quite commendable. The idea is for a temporary structure with a water tight roof large enough to shelter the entire crowd. It could be arranged without great expense.

William Astor, the New York millionaire, died in Paris on Monday night. Mr. Astor was the father of Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton, and was greatly worried over the Borrowe-Fox-Millbank scandal in which she was involved.

Will Work it Through.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—The indomitable energy of Senator Mitchell, in the interest of an open Columbia river, was again evidenced yesterday, when he proposed an amendment to the river and harbor bill which appropriates nearly $3,000,000 to construct a boat railway at the Dalles and Celilo falls and the Ten Mile rapids of the Columbia. The amendment provides for the necessary marine apparatus for the purpose of transferring the boats and their cargoes across the obstructions at these places. The appropriation is to cover the whole cost of the proposed improvement. It is thought the committee of conference will agree to the amendment.

As Early as Possible.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—In a communication to the senate respecting the international conference on silver, President Harrison says: "It may not be inappropriate to say, believing, as I do, in the full use of silver as a coin metal, that a ratio agreed upon by the great commercial nations of the world would very highly promote the prosperity of all their people. I have not and will not let any favorable opportunity pass for promoting that most desirable result; or if free international silver coinage should not presently be attainable, then to secure the largest practicable use of that metal." He will inform the senate at the earliest moment after definite information can be properly given.

In The Tolls.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 26.—The leaders of the regulators were in consultation with their lawyers today. After the interview was over the captives were not in the best of spirits. They all believe that they will be acquitted of charges of murder, treason and arson, which will be preferred against them; but they are now ready to admit that their freedom will not come in two weeks, as they had boasted.

Monument to Gen. Grant.

NEW YORK, April 27.—President Harrison arrived here this morning to lay the corner stone of General Grant's tomb at Riverside Park. He was accompanied by Secretaries Elkins, Tracy, Rusk and other officials. Secretary Elkins will deliver an address. The oration is by Chauncy M. Depew.

Idaho Cattle Thieves.

BLACKFOOT, April 26.—The information is just received that a party of cattlemen from Wyoming, hunting cattle thieves in Johnson Hole, the alleged rendezvous for all horse and cattle thieves for hundreds of miles, came upon the habitation of two parties known as Burnett and Spencer, and in their efforts to arrest them both Burnett and Spencer were killed, and it is found that they were in possession of over fifty stolen horses.

An Editorial Oases.

LOS ANGELES, April 26.—Governor Markham today tendered the appointment of delegate to the national Nicaragua convention, to be held in St. Louis on June 2d, to Hon J. D. Lynch, editor of the Herald of this city. Mr. Lynch has accepted.

C. O. Whitman, professor of zoology in Clark university, Dorchester, Mass., has accepted a call to the head professorship in the department of biology in the University of Chicago.

Chas. W. Austin, a Salt Lake journalist, crazed by drink, who made a sensational attempt to rob the cashier of the Utah National bank Saturday, has been placed on trial today for insanity.

No more option buying and selling on the floor of the San Francisco exchange, will be tolerated after May 31st. Option dealings have been on a limited scale for a long time past, and a number of operators are disposed to try a few new experiments in the hope of increasing their business.

President Harrison has informed the senate that in his opinion it would not be compatible with public interest to lay before it, at this time, the correspondence which he was requested by its resolution April 23d to furnish, concerning any step taken toward securing an international conference to consider the question of the free coinage or enlarged use of silver.

ANARCHISTS' NEEDS.

The Audacity of the Murderous Villains in Paris.

RAVACHOL STATES HIS CAUSE.

"The Needs of the Anarchists" a Strong

Rope and a Quick Jerk.

IMPOTENCY OF THE PARIS POLICE.

Strange as it Seems There Appears to be no Back Bone Amongst Authorities.

PARIS, April 27.—People in Paris are panic stricken at the audacity of the anarchists. The feeling of fear is heightened by the apparent impotency of the police to prevent the anarchists from committing outrages, when and where they please. So strong is the feeling of fear that many residents of the city and foreign visitors are leaving or making very hurried preparations to leave. After the explosion of the bomb in Very's restaurant, which shattered the building, nearly killed the proprietor, and did other damages, an excited crowd, sometimes numbering 20,000, filled the streets and surrounded the wreck. The affair was discussed in loud and angry voices, and everybody joined in condemning the outrage, for which no excuse is offered. Herot, the waiter in Very's restaurant, who informed the police of Ravachol's habit of dining there, received an anonymous letter yesterday, in which it was said: "If Ravachol is condemned tomorrow, remember that at the same hour you will be attacked by the engines of our vengeance." A dynamite cartridge found last night under the staircase of the house in Rue d'Enghem was analyzed and found to contain a kilogram of dynamite and a kilogram of seabastine.

The Trial of Ravachol.

PARIS, April 26.—The trial of Ravachol today having been the cause of so many bold threats on the part of his anarchist friends that they would attempt some desperate act, admission to the court was severely restricted. When the judge entered he at once summoned the jury, who presented a greatly disturbed appearance. The threats of the friends of the prisoner evidently greatly frightened the jurors, and the journalists present expressed the opinion that it would require very strong evidence to force them to render a verdict of guilty in the face of the threats of death made against them if they decide against the prisoner. Ravachol told the story of his crimes, in a nonchalant manner, admitting his guilt, and taking upon himself all responsibility, concluding by saying: "I wish to see anarchy established and the whole people live as one great family, each member ready to share what he has with his brethren. I committed these outrages in order to draw the attention of the public to the needs of anarchists."

The Sentence.

PARIS, April 27.—The two anarchists, Ravachol and Simon, were sentenced to penal servitude for life. The others were acquitted.

The Raun Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—In the pension investigation this morning an exciting scene occurred. Raun denied the truth of some statements made by Enloe, chairman of the committee. The latter sprang to his feet with the exclamation, "You are a liar!" and rushed at the commissioner. Members interfered and prevented Enloe from getting at Raun. The latter finally left the room and the committee adjourned.

Indiana Divorcees.

GREENSBURG, Ind., April 26.—The present term of the circuit court here, which has just begun, is not able to get through for the large number of divorce cases on the docket. There are twenty-one cases docketed, in twelve of which the wife is the complainant. This is the largest number on a single docket in the state.

Held Up in Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 26.—Sunday afternoon Joseph Ward arrived from Oakland, Cal., with $800 in his pocket. He spent the afternoon and night drinking in a State street saloon, toward morning three saloon hangers-on held him up and robbed him of $750. His assailants were arrested.
