A party of ladies and gentlemen from this city went down yesterday to Hood River on the evening train, and "surprised" Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert, the genial host and hostess of the Mount Hood hotel. The visitants were Judge Blakely and wife, Judge Bradshaw and wife, Editor Geo. P. Morgan and wife, J. M. Crossen and wife, D. L. Cates and wife, W. H. Wilson and wife, and Dr. Hugh Logan, thirteen in all. The party report that their visit for congress to pass an appropriation. was indeed a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert and that a delightfully pleasant time was spent till the arrival of the train that brought them back to this city at midnight.

Last evening Judge O. N. Denny was presented with a group of Chinese pheasants by Willamette rod and gun club. Judge Whalley making the present, at a banquet of the club, in a few very neatly expressed words. The group of birds was prepared by Capt. S. S. Douglass, at the suggestion of the writer of this paragraph, and is one of the most handsome things of the kind ever seen in Oregon. The birds are life size, naturally grouped, consisting of the male, the female and little chicks, in an elaborate concave frame, with landscape background covered with a large convex glass. It was intended to convey to Judge Denny some idea of appreciation of his efforts to add to the attractiveness of Oregon by introducing here the beautiful and useful Mongolian pheasant. Church Notices.

TATE CONTRACT SYSTEM.

No More Shut 'log Down Work to Wait for App. opriations.

A Portland paper mentio,"s that stone cutters have commenced to chizal blocks of granite again at the locks of the .cascades. This is an indication that the W. Fligg who has been appointed post- appropriation bill is safe. When work stopped for want of an appropriation. there was about $67,000 left unexpended, and now Joggles writes to things. inquire if the interest on this $67,000 stopped when work was stopped? and if not, who is the man or the bank who got the benefit of the interest. He says this interest would almost be sufficient to pay for blasting out the rocks in the main rapids, and making a navigable channel according to the idea of Dr. Aug. C. Kinney, of Astoria, as given in THE CHEONICLE week before last. Juggles is right. But, when the contract system is adopted, then there will be no more shutting down of the work to wait A Humorous Minister.

Eli Perkins got off the following at a lecture in Minneapolis recently. A Fond du Lac preacher worn out with trying to get a decent living, sent in his resignation. Said he: Brothers and sisters, I come to say good-bye. I don't think God loves this church very much, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because none of you ever get married. I don't think that you love me, because you never pay my salary

Letter Writing in America.

Americans are the greatest letter writing people on the globe. Of the fifty odd billion pieces of mail which are posted in the world every year nearly 3,000,000,000 go through the postoffices of the United States. We spend every year more than $52,000,000 for postage and during the year 1891 American tongues licked the backs of $37,000,000 worth of sticky stamps.

The postage stamps sold every year the world over far surpasses in value the riches of Jay Gould or the Rothschilds, and the postage stamp industry of the world is one of the greatest fac tors in the machinery which moves the universe today. And yet postage stamps is barely fifty years ago since they were first used in England, and in 1847 con-gress first authorized their use in the United States.—Louisville Courier-Jour-

Biggest Umbrella in the World. It is said that the biggest umbrella in the world has been made for the use of a west African king. The umbrella, which can be closed in the usual manner, is twenty-one feet in diameter and is affixed to a polished mahogany staff of the same length. The canopy is made of India straw, and has a score of straw tassels and a border of crimson satin. On the top is a pine shaped straw orna-ment which terminates in a gilded cone. When in use the umbrella is fixed in the und, and under its shelter the king is able to entertain thirty guests at dinner. -Dry Goods Chronicle.

A Card,

We, a committe of the Eight-Mile Farmer's Alliance, having investigated a charge made against one of our members, namely, J. E. McCormick, of having, at the late republican county convention of this county, voted for a man who had, as a member of the Oregon legislature betrayed the interests of his constituents, have been pleased to find that the charge was without any foundation in fact, and that the blame rightfully attaches to other parties. We desire to place this on record in justification of Brother McCormick and as a token of our confidence in him and appreciation of the stand he took in the matter in question. W. D. RICHARDS, W. H. The Phoenix of Arabia.

In olden times a bird called a "phoe nix" was thought to live in the deserts of Arabia. His lease of life was said to be 500 years, at the end of which time he built a nest of spices and fanned it into a flame with his wings. The flame reduced the bird to ashes, out of which he sprung to live another 500 years. Richardson says that he had fifty orifices in his beak, through which he sung me lodious airs .- St. Louis Republic.
