TO QUIT PUBLIC LIFE.

Senator John Sherman Fired of Serving the People.

HIS COURSE FULLY DECIDED UPON.

Will Look About Awhile as to the Fitness of His Successor.

SECRETARY FOSTER SPOKE OF.

An Interesting and Serious Story in Connection With His Leaving the Senate.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The story is again in circulation that Senator John Sherman, of Ohio, will, before many months, announce his retirement from public life. This information comes from an Ohio gentleman, who has been recently in Washington, and for many years has sustained the most intimate personal and political relations with Mr. Sherman. This determination is no new thing with the Ohio senator. He decided on this course more than twelve months ago. At that time he had but a year and a half before the close of his term, and he had no desire to contest for re-election, but the political condition in Ohio last autumn was such as to make it a necessity for Mr. Sherman to again offer himself as a candidate before the state legislature. His friends believed he was the only man who could defeat the aspirations of Gov. Foraker, and the Mansfield statesman was asked to enter the lists against him. He did so and was elected with comparative ease, thus proving his great influence with the Ohio people, whom he had represented in public life for nearly forty years. He may think it proper to deny, as he has done before, his purpose to retire, but there is no doubt that he intends to leave the public service as soon as the conditions are such that it can be done without injury to the party and without turning over his seat to a successor who is unworthy of the place. Arrangements will probably be made so that Sec. Foster or some other friend of Mr. Sherman can step into the vacant seat. There is an interesting story in connection with Mr. Sherman's purpose in relinquishing his senatorial honors. He has a serious work to perform. It is a work which to him will be a labor of love, a work which he will perform with zealous care, and which, for that reason, he will not delegate to any other person. It will, in short, be the publication of the letters of his brother, William Tecumseh Sherman.

Harrison on the First Ballot.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 3.—According to the tab of the delegates to the national republican convention, kept at administrative headquarters, 225 delegates have already been instructed for Harrison. This is one more than enough to nominate him on the first ballot, not to mention a large number of uninstructed delegates, who it is known will vote for him.

Chinese Registration.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The house and senate conferees reached an agreement on the Chinese exclusion bill to be reported to the senate today. The basis of agreement is said to be the senate bill, but it contains clauses providing for the registration of resident Chinese and the suspension of bail in habeas corpus applications. A dispatch from the City of Mexico says the Chinese government in view of the attitude of the United States towards Chinese immigration, has taken steps to turn the tide of emigration to Mexico.

San Francisco Scared.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Threats of an outbreak by the "Reds" yesterday caused some fear that the cry of terror might arouse the city; hence, when a solitary bomb was exploded in an empty lot, without doing any damage, wild rumors were spread. The most significant fact connected with the explosion is its occurrence on the ground adjoining the Enterprise brewery, which has been opposed to the brewery workmen's union and employed none but non-union men. No arrest was made up to a late hour last night in connection with the explosion, although a close watch was kept for any man answering the description of the dynamiter. Some violent anarchist speeches were made, but no real disorder took place.

The Governor's Busy Day.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Gov. Fifer has to decline meeting a distinguished guest from Philadelphia, today in Chicago, as he says: "I have a very important engagement with 1,235 republicans who are coming to Springfield, to nominate a candidate for governor. I am informed that a large number of the aforesaid republicans will be here on the 3d, and so you see I cannot consistently accept your kind and cordial invitation." It will be conceded that the company at such a time of 1,235 Illinois republicans, all full of business, is likely to render a conscientious governor reasonably free from ennui; to prevent that feeling of restlessness, that depression of spirits, born of solitude. So while the governor may well regret his inability to meet Mr. Childs in the mild spring weather of this beautiful May morning, at least there may be tender associations formed at Springfield that will be a source of gladness to him. One never can tell what may happen on an occasion of this sort.

Dr. Parkhurst's Crusade.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The single handed crusade of Rev. Dr. Parkhurst has perhaps come to an end. To the suggestion of his critics that he should have delegated such an unsavory task to another he vigorously answers that he loathes it and loathes the craven spirit that prompts it. "If it was vicious in me to visit those places myself," he says, "it would have been equally vicious, with an added element of damnable cowardice, to get some one to do it for me. No such system of ethics as that," he adds, "has either the moral vigor or the intellectual acumen to bore into the heart of existing corruption." If interest shall quickly subside, if public curiosity shall soon be sated, if the people shall cease to discuss the laches of the police, there will follow a relapse into the old condition and the sacrifices of Dr. Parkhurst will have been made in vain.

Rally for the Canal.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 3.—When it was reported that Governor Flower would veto the $540,000 canal improvement bill, great consternation followed among the grain merchants, and an immense pressure has been brought to bear to prevent the veto. Nearly every one maintains the appropriation is very essential, and is needed much more this year because there was no appropriation last year, the bill having died in the deadlock. If the governor vetoes this bill senators and assemblymen will feel as though it is no use trying to get a canal bill through the legislature during the next two years. But the best informed people feel sure Governor Flower is too good a statesman to veto these bills, although it has been intimated he would do so.

Another Fatal Theatre Fire.

LEADVILLE, Colo., May 2.—Last night a fire, which started on the stage of Loeb's variety theatre, destroyed that structure and half a block on State street. There were a number of narrow escapes. One woman and a child were burned to death. Loss, $24,000.

Hunting the Fugitive.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Advices this morning from San Andreas, the scene of Saturday's attempted stage robbery and tragedy state that the country is being thoroughly explored for the desperado who did the shooting. Upon an investigation based on reports from San Andreas, Wells, Fargo & Co. will determine what further action is necessary to bring the murderer within the clutches of the law. Early yesterday morning a man passed Mrs. Place, about six miles from San Andreas. His presence was made known by the barking of a dog on the ranch. It is believed that the early morning wanderer was Saturday's fugitive, and that he is making for Amador county. All bridges are guarded and sheriffs' posses are guarding all points of escape. Detective Hume will join in the search, and bloodhounds will probably be used. A reward of $2000 is said to have been offered by the uncle of the dead girl.

A Lady Among the Delegates.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 3.—Miss Emma Schult and Mrs. Fedilia Elliott, of this city, are candidates for the position of delegate to the republican national convention at Minneapolis, and one of them is certain to be elected, in the county convention tomorrow. Miss Schult is a woman of some means, and a member of the women's republican league of this state. Mrs. Elliott, whose husband is a blacksmith, is a life insurance agent, and accounted a shrewd, successful business woman. She holds an official position in the league.

Denying the Demon.

MELBOURNE, May 2.—The jury in the Denning case has returned a verdict of guilty, and the demon will be hanged.

SOCIETY IS SHOCKED.

Gotham Aristocracy Greeting Norwalk Aristocracy.

BUT THE CHAIN IS SUNDERED.

The Ruin Which a Smooth Pretender Nearly Accomplished.

APPEARANCES ARE DECEITFUL.

France not Altogether Safe—The Queen of Spain Took an Open Drive out—Other News.

NORWALK, Conn., May 3.—Society in this city is today shocked by the revelations of a drummer, and it must be admitted that there is scarcely a single family in Norwalk society which is not filled with emotions of some kind by the discovery just made, that Herbert Roosevelt Van Rensselaer, of New York, was only Arthur Adler, formerly a cloak salesman. Norwalk society is largely made up of families of wealthy manufacturers and merchants and a few ministers, doctors and lawyers. Herbert Roosevelt Van Rensselaer came here recommended by "his own family of Van Rensselaer, the Astors and the Vanderbilts." He said Ward McAllister was a chum of his, and boasted of Mrs. Astor's friendship. He secured a position as teacher in a swell academy and at once set about breaking the hearts of the rich and handsome heiresses of the town. He was on the eve of marrying the richest of them when the exposure came in the person of a drummer who knew him. Today Adler fled, and then it was found that he owed big bills to almost everybody in town.

Europe Very Quiet.

NEW YORK, May 3.—While it is true that reports from all points of importance in provinces of France show that no serious disorders have occurred because of collisions with anarchists, papers generally, in commenting on the quietness, give warning that appearances are deceitful; that there will no doubt be trouble in the end. In Spain it was so very quiet on May day that the queen drove through the City Park in an open carriage, without an escort. Her action did much to give courage to those who feared almost to leave the shelter of their homes. The only disturbance to note in Holland was at Leunarden. A contest between the police and workmen became so serious that the cavalry was called out and dispersed the rioters. The excitement continued throughout the evening. Many windows were broken by missiles.

A Michigan Spinster's Fortune.

LANSING, May 3.—Marie L. Williams, a pioneer resident of this state, died last week on her farm near Grand Rapids, where she had lived for many years alone. She was a well-known character and in selling her farm products could drive the sharpest kind of bargains. It was supposed she was in reduced circumstances, but upon looking over her assets, it was found she leaves $14,000 worth of productive real estate and $9,000 worth of gilt-edge personal property, the result of many years' hard work, saving and shrewd investment. She left no will, and the property will be divided between her brother, Byron L. Rainsford of Caro, Tuscola county, and a niece, Miss Mae H. Rainsford, of Detroit.

A Crazy Priest.

BURLINGTON, N. J., May 2.—Rev. Father Tracy, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic church, yesterday ordered a policeman to eject Matthew Gaynor and his daughter. The officer refused, and the priest, drawing a revolver, forced Gaynor to rise from his knees, and drove him out of the edifice. The trouble is said by Miss Gaynor to be due to the fact that she received attentions from a Protestant. The priest denounced the companionship from the pulpit and finally debarred the Gaynors from the church on several occasions. Father Tracy created a sensation by bitter denunciations of the different members of the church whom he found guilty of intemperance. He also denounced dancing in severe terms, and flourished a revolver in the pulpit. Gaynor will lay a complaint before Bishop O'Farrell.
