A warrant has been sworn out by Joseph Folco for the arrest of Jack Lawler, both of this city. Lawler is charged with the double crime of assault and larceny.

The possibilities for fruit culture that lie hidden in the valleys and hills of Wasco county, especially in that portion that borders on the Columbia river and stretches from ten to twenty miles southward, will never be fully appreciated by the outside world till men visit this region and see with their own eyes what has already been done in hundreds of places, in comparatively small patches and with all the disadvantages of a lack of sufficient capital for the proper development of this important industry.

The earlier orchards were all planted on creek bottoms or on the margins of streams, because the first settlers had no idea that anything, let alone fruit, and excepting only bunch grass and sage brush, could be grown on the hills and plateaus. Now it has been proved by years of actual experience that our very best fruit and grain lands are on the slopes and benches so long despised and neglected.

During a late circus and menagerie exhibition in Kentucky there suddenly came up a violent storm of wind and rain which threatened to interfere with the performance.

An enormous wildcat was killed within Tacoma's city limits the other day. Many bear have in the past been slain on Tacoma's streets, but this is the first wildcat which has ventured to walk her thoroughfares.

A Frightful Panic. During a late circus and menagerie exhibition in Kentucky there suddenly came up a violent storm of wind and rain which threatened to interfere with the performance.

An electric light wire caused a fire in a Pittsburg store the other day. It was very simple. The insulation coating was worn off, and the wire rubbed itself into a flame among the stock in a show window.

A PIONEER FISH STORY.

The Intelligence of the Columbia River Salmon.

The reporter was in front of the Umatilla house waiting for the arrival of the one o'clock passenger. Tom O'Conner, of the Cosmopolitan, was there on the same business and stood a few feet to the east.

The Colonel was pouring a lingual torrent of information, about the habits of the Columbia river salmon, into the ear of the tenderfoot, who stood with mouth agape drinking it all in like a sucker.

When the time comes they put all the little weak salmon under the falls and the big ones make one tremendous dash and shoot the little ones up over the falls by sheer force.

Water consumers will please to take notice that all sprinkling and irrigating from the city water works must be done between the hours of 6 and 7 a. m. and 8 to 8 p. m.
