OREGON LIME

This lime is manufactured by The Oregon Marble and Lime Company, near Huntington, Oregon, and has earned the reputation of being the strongest lime in the market, and consequently, in addition to making the best work at an equal price, the cheapest to the user.

Mr. T. F. Osborns, Dealer in Building Materials. Agent Oregon Lime, Portland, Or. DEAR SIR:—Referring to your inquiry concerning the "Oregon" Lime, would say, that we have used this lime, that it has given satisfaction, and we consider it a first class-class lime in every respect.

MARKET REVIEW.

THE DALLES, May 7, 1892. The past week has shown up better than the former in the volume of trade. Collection day which is on the second of the month to use a stony phrase, as a dealer put it, was a "rocky" one, money was short on calls for settlement of the monthly bills, and creditors were put off, but on the whole there was a healthy tone. There has been a decline of 15 cent on flour since last quotation, and an advance of 3 1/2 cents per dozen on eggs.

Butter has declined, and the market is full of the different grades. Potatoes are getting scarce, and 75 cents for 100 pounds is being paid for good ones. In other lines there are no material changes to note.

The wool market is lifeless and has no settled price to offer. Wool is coming in freely and some is being shipped to San Francisco, while the most is being put on storage for futures.

Hearts of Judges.

Ex-Judge Rearden says that all lawyers have hearts of mercy until they become judges. In the superior court, during the brief term he served, he always refused criminal cases, because the mother of the young man was sure to come around and show the gray hairs under her aged bonnet. Judge Rearden says that on two occasions he saw Judge Levy weaken under the effect of an old western bonnet trembling with stuffed roses. The first time was in a case of grand larceny, and the old lady who called asked the judge for a pass to the Episcopal home. She said that her son Fred had declared his intention to steal because he couldn't "get work," and whatever he had stolen was for her sake and because he "couldn't get work."

"Why," said Rearden, "when the old woman finished her story, Levy was crying as bitterly as she and the young criminal went to the house of correction with the smallest sentence he could get. Next year the same fellow came up on an outrageous charge of robbery, and the ancient lady turned up as usual with a full set of tears. She shed them freely, but the judge was familiar with her tactics and the young man went over to San Quentin.

"The old lady was very ungrateful, for she rose in her might and cried: 'Say, judge, you used to have a kind heart!'"—San Francisco Examiner.

A Love Party. A new mode of entertainment designed for fettering betrothed lovers is called a "Love Party." The ladies all wear white gowns, the gentlemen all wear white suits, and the ladies all wear white bouffants. White doves are suspended from the chandeliers, and white flowers and favors reign on the snowy spread table. Hearts intertwined are the design of the souvenirs, and cupid's feet of cream with sugar arrows the ices.

SICK Head-Aches. Sick-headaches are the outward indications of derangements of the stomach and bowels. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick-headaches. It is not only appropriate; it is an absolute cure. After a course of it an occasional dose at intervals will forever after prevent return.

A Severe Law. The English people look more closely to the genuineness of these staples than we do. In fact, they have a law under which they make seizures and destroy adulterated products that are not what they are represented to be. Under this statute thousands of pounds of tea have been burned because of their wholesale adulteration.
