TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Whisky did its Work. CANABIE, L. I., May 9.—Abel Smith, a colored farm hand, whose wife was dissipated, murdered her last night. He then threw himself in front of a train and was instantly killed.

Fatal Fire.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., May 9.—Sam Barrow's dwelling was burned this morning. His youngest child, a boy three years old, died from suffocation. His brother-in-law, aged 17 years, was burned to a crisp. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Military Appointments.

St. PETERSBURG, May 9.—Col. Weldrick, overseer of the grain transportation to and in the distressed provinces of Russia, has been appointed inspector of the whole system of Russian railways. The appointment of a military officer to the position has caused a sensation. The decree permitting the export of oats and corn will be issued Friday. The same action as to wheat will be taken three or four days later.

Incendiary Fire.

HAYWARDS, Cal., May 10.—An incendiary fire yesterday destroyed $100,000 worth of property in this city, upon which there was no insurance. The fire started in the Haywards agricultural works adjoining the electric light plant, completely destroying both establishments. When the hose companies reached the scene of the conflagration the fire was under good headway, but they did good work in saving the buildings near by.

Church and State Divorce.

OMAHA, May 10.—At the session of the M. E. Conference yesterday Dr. King offered a resolution for an amendment to the constitution of the United States, looking to the protection of public schools against religious encroachments, and to define the attitude of churches toward the schools; he asked conference to indorse a bill on the subject, which had been prepared upon the complete divorce of church and state. The resolution was adopted with applause.

The Iowa Demon Dead.

BENTON, May 9.—Joseph Hamilton, who spent the last seventeen years of his life in chains, is dead. He had a terrible mania—a thirst for human blood, which nothing could appease. He had to be kept in irons all the time. When 25 years of age Hamilton acquired the appetite by tasting blood in a fight. He was at a sparring match when he saw blood flow from the nose of one of the boxers, and went wild instantly. Drawing a knife, he plunged it into the heart of a bystander and drank his blood as it flowed. He killed another man before he was arrested.

Money Lost on Dining Cars.

"It is imagined by nearly every traveler who pays seventy-five cents or one dollar for a meal on a dining car that the company is reaping a wonderful harvest," said a traveling passenger agent of one of the leading roads in America, "but the figures will soon convince the most skeptical that the project is a losing one to the companies, and every one would dispense with the dining car service if they only could. It is the great competition existing between the different roads and the desire on the part of the public for rapid transit that forces the companies to place dining cars on their through trains. All of the great trunk line roads are putting on faster and faster trains every few months.

"As soon as one company puts on a train that will cover the distance between any two important points quicker than the other roads can, then all the rest of the roads set to work to reduce the time, and inside of two or three months some other road will announce a train that will make the distance in fifteen, thirty, forty-five minutes or an hour faster than its rival. And so it goes. If any of these fast trains should stop twenty minutes at a station where a dining hall is, then the trains with the dining cars attached would reach the point of destination all the way from forty minutes to an hour earlier, and the result would be that they would carry the majority of the traveling public. It is not cheap meals the people who travel on railroads want so much today as rapid transportation. Last year the Pullman Car company served 5,000,000 meals on their dining cars, and profits realized did not pay 1 per cent. upon the investment. A leading western road last year lost $36,000 on its dining car service."—Toledo Blade.

SICK Head-Aches.

Sick-headaches are the outward indications of derangements of the stomach and bowels. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick-headaches. It is not only appropriate; it is an absolute cure. After a course of it an occasional dose at intervals will forever prevent return.

Jno. M. Cox, of 735 Turk Street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been troubled with attacks of sick-headache for the last three years from one to three times a week. Some time ago I bought two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and have only had one attack since and that was on the second day after I began using it."

A Severe Law.

The English people look more closely to the genuineness of these staples than we do. In fact, they have a law under which they make seizures and destroy adulterated products that are not what they are represented to be. Under this statute thousands of pounds of tea have been burned because of their wholesale adulteration. Tea, by the way, is one of the most notoriously adulterated articles of commerce. Not alone are the bright, shiny green teas artificially colored, but thousands of pounds of substitutes for tea leaves are used to swell the bulk of cheap teas; ash, sloe, and willow leaves being those most commonly used. Again, sweepings from tea warehouses are colored and sold as tea. Even exhausted tea leaves gathered from the tea-houses are kept, dried, and made over and find their way into the cheap teas.

The English government attempts to stamp this out by confiscation; but no tea is too poor for us, and the result is, that probably the poorest teas used by any nation are those consumed in America. Beech's Tea is presented with the guaranty that it is uncolored and unadulterated; in fact, the sun-cure tea leaf pure and simple. Its purity insures superior strength, about one third less of it being required for an infusion than of the artificial teas, and its fragrance and exquisite flavor is at once apparent. It will be a revelation to you. In order that its purity and quality may be guaranteed, it is sold only in pound packages bearing this trade-mark:
