THEY BELONG TO US.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real state dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the north-built by the government, and the enormous land grants given as a bonus besides. The roads were to repay the money lent by the indorsement of the bonds and in other ways; but the government; that is, the people; were left in the cold, and such immense fortunes as that of Stanford, Huntington, Hopkins, Gould and Vanderbilt and many others, became possible. Every now and then congress flutters severely to make these roads pay. It is only a fizzle. The Thurman act required them to lay aside fifty per cent of their net earnings for a sinking fund to pay the debt. They went to the Supreme court with it. That court said that this law only applied to the main line. The branch, or TO THE TRADE AND CONTRACTORS operated lines, were bonded, and the stock held by third parties, and the court did not exactly go that far, for it large discretion in congress to protect large discretion in congress to protect the rights of the people and that the purchased roads were liable, or could be made so. Here is the idea, and it is a regular skin game: Uncle Sam built the roads for us, under certain promises. We pocketed all we could raise or make, and with the legitimate earnings we arrives to be obtained from others than Wm. Butler & Co. The trade, however, will not lose sight of the fact that the great strife to obtain the Oregon lime by other and with the legitimate earnings we or built them. But we bonded them, and pocketed that money too. Not hav- 5-7-d6t-w1t ing paid a nickle we owe the dear people more than the road is worth, and when Uncle Sam wants to take the other Uncle Sam wants to take the other roads, more valuable than the original line, we say that it don't belong to us, acquainted with Mr. A. Knapp, of Knappa, Clatsop county, will go out from the heart to his bereaved wife and daughter, now mourning his death from heart failure after retiring for the from heart failure, after retiring for the night on the 8th. Mr. Knapp received the republican nomination for county clerk and was making preparations to make a canvass of the county. He was very popular and was confident of his election. His death leaves a vacancy on the republican ticket which will have to be filled as provided in sections 42 and 43, of the Astralian ballot law.

The head lines given to a brief dispatch yesterday, announcing that: "The president, an hour after its receipt from the senate this afternoon, signed the bill to encourage American shipbuilding by granting American registry to the steamships City of New York and City of Paris," spoke louder than words, telling that the act is not approved by the people. One of these head lines was: "Signed in haste." Another: "Questionable as to Encouragement." Another: "Hey there; Benjamin."

Another: "Hey there; Benjamin."

Eastern Oregon by every right is entitled to representation on the supreme bench says the Baker City Democrat, and the people irrespective of politics should assert their rights by casting their ballots for A. S. Bennett, of Wasco county. In doing so the assurance is given that in case of Mr. Bennett's given that in case of Mr. Bennett's election a man of ability will grace the judiciary and the many questions in which Eastern Oregon is particularly interested will be properly looked after.

Gov. Pennoyer has come out straight for the People's party. In Albina Tuesday evening he made a speech which filled three solid columns in the Oregonian. He repudiates the state platform. After his speech the glee club rendered a song, entitled, "Good-by, Old Parties, Good-by," amidst a storm

The Inland Empire will this year ship 35,000,000 bushels of wheat. When it is discovered that this i. e. is a country; this area, drained by the wonderful Columbia, upon whose bosom this product should go the sea, will become as popular as the phrases about Aristotle spoken of by Sydney Smith.

It is a significant fact says the East Oregonian, that no paper in the state of any political party has said a word against the election of Judge A. S. Bennett to the supreme bench.

If the truth was known, or the fact could be fixed, it would be safe to say of a house for could be fixed, it would be safe to say that a sum more than equal to the appropriation for the improvement of the Columbia river has been expended this congress to purchase corporate influence of a house for A HOSE CART IN THE EAST END of the city, until Saturday May 14th.
