A RICH REGION.

Sherman county never, in all her history, looked half so well as she does today and the prospects for an immense grain crop were never so flattering. Less than twelve years ago the whole county, from the river to its southern boundary line, was one vast stock range, covered with waving bunch grass and immense herds of horses, cattle and sheep. Now the county is one vast grain field, either in crop or summer fallow, and, as viewed from some advantageous hill-top, presents a magnificent mosaic of green and red. The farmers are generally prosperous. The fine crops of last season and good prices for grain, placed many of them in easy circumstances, but the great desideratum is railroad connection with the head of navigation on the Columbia, so that they may have the benefit of lower freights for their exports. The farmers of Sherman county are, as one man, in favor of the dalles portage; and no man, no matter what his politics, whose record on this question is open to doubt, could gain their support for any office in their gift. Grain raising here is reduced to a science and generally done on a large scale. He is a small farmer who has not as much as 200 or 300 acres of wheat. Smith Brothers, one of whom is candidate on the democratic ticket for joint senator, have 4,500 acres in cultivation. At present they have fourteen gang plows at work, turning over an average of sixty acres a day, and expect to summer fallow 3,500 acres. The larger portion of their lands lie across the John Day river, in Gilliam county. G. D. Woodworth has 1,600 acres in cultivation, and this year it is nearly all in summer fallow. Medler Brothers have about 1,200 acres, Hildebrand and Hanson about 1,200 acres, B. F. Medler and John Medler have about 1,000 acres each, A. D. McDonald about 900 acres, James McMillan 900 acres, McDermott Brothers have 1,120 acres, Sink & Sons about 2,000 acres, C. C. Huck 640 acres; Dume Brothers about 1,200 acres, Dell Porter 1,120 acres, Murchie Brothers 1,760 acres, Mrs. J. McPherson 1,400 acres, John Johnson 640 acres, Sexton Brothers 960 acres, John K. Stocking about 1,000, J. E. Forbes 960 acres, Mike Smith 640 acres, W. H. Biggs about 640 acres, Frobe Brothers 1,600 acres, and any number of others cultivating from a section downwards. Scarcely any spring grain is raised, and from what the writer has seen of the county, during a drive from The Dalles to Wasco, it would seem that fully half of the cultivated lands are either plowed or being plowed for summer fallow. The average product per acre of wheat for the entire county is estimated at twenty bushels. Mr. John Smith estimates that there are 80,000 acres of land in cultivation in the county and possibly as much as 150,000 acres more fit for cultivation. Good improved farms can be had at from $9 to $12.50 per acre. Ex-Senator W. H. Biggs of Wasco, who is handling real estate, informs your reporter that he has about 3,000 acres of choice farming lands for sale at these prices.

S. A. BYRNE,
WILLIAM FLOYD,
Dated April 26, 1892. STACY SHOWN.

The best spring medicine is a dose or two of St. Patrick's Pills. They not only physic but cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

TO THE TRADE AND CONTRACTORS.

I DESIRE IT TO BE UNDERSTOOD that I have appointed Wm. Butler & Co. exclusive agents for the sale of the "Oregon" lime, at The Dalles, and surrounding country. Other parties have, through surreptitious and unbusinesslike methods, obtained a small quantity of this lime, which may naturally cause the idea that Butler & Co. are not the exclusive agents of these goods.

Such, however, is not the fact, and further stock of this article cannot be obtained from others than Wm. Butler & Co. The trade, however, will not lose sight of the fact that the great strife to obtain the Oregon lime by other dealers proves conclusively that the "Oregon" is the best lime in the market. Very truly
5-7-d6t-wit T. F. OSBORN,
Gen. Agt. Or. Marble and Lime Co.

NOTICE.

Parties holding claims against W. S. Cram are notified to present them to him at once, at the Columbia Candy Factory, and all those indebted are requested to settle at the same place, as I have sold out my business and want to close up my accounts. Respectfully,

INVALIDS

Gain rapidly in health and strength by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine substitutes rich and pure blood, for the impoverished fluid left in the veins after fevers and other wasting sickness. It improves the appetite and tones up the system, so that convalescents soon
Become Strong
active and vigorous. To relieve that tired feeling, depression of spirits, and nervous debility, no other medicine produces the speedy and permanent effect of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. F. O. Loring, Brockton, Mass., writes: "I am confident that anyone suffering from the effects of scrofula, general debility, want of appetite, depression of spirits, and lassitude will be cured
By Using
Ayer's Sarsaparilla; for I have taken it, and speak from experience."
"In the summer of 1888, I was cured of nervous debility by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. H. Benoit, 6 Middle St., Pawtucket, R. I.
"Several years ago I was in a debilitated condition. Other remedies having failed, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was greatly benefited. As a Spring medicine, I consider it invaluable." Mrs. L. S. Winchester, Holden, Me.
