LOOK TO UNCLE SAM.

Gen. Crespo Likes the United States and Favors Reciprocity.

OPPOSED TO BRITISH INTRUSION.

Will Never Recognize Rights of the English Flag in Venezuela.

REVOLUTION WILL KEEP RIGHT ON.

Worrying the Government Which Cannot Borrow Continually Without Resources.

NEW YORK, May 25.—In answer to some comments respecting the plans of Gen. Crespo, advices from Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, give an interview with him, in which he makes some interesting statements in regard to the charge that the revolutionists were aided by Great Britain, and were ready to make certain concessions in return. He said: "It is true that we do not look to England for help. We look to the United States." "What policy would you advise for your country and the United States?" "Reciprocity. I think well of that. I like the United States, and I intend to visit the exposition at Chicago and shall take my family with me. The regenerated Venezuela will have a worthy exhibit there. I want you to say that the people who fight under the insurgent banner today are opposed to British intrusion in Venezuela. We do not now, nor will we ever, recognize the rights of the English flag on Venezuelan territory. If we cannot speak for the rest of South America, we can speak for Venezuela." As to what would happen if we were defeated at La Victoria, Crespo answered that the revolution would keep right on. "This rising," he said, "is the growth of years. A battle or two lost to us would not destroy our cause. We would take to the mountains and wear out the government, which cannot be continually borrowing without resources." "In the event of the success of your armies, will you succeed to the presidency?" "No; I would not accept the office, nor could anything induce me to do so. As soon as I can attend to it, my private business interests will demand all my attention." "Who will succeed Palacio as president of the republic?" "I shall leave that to congress. I shall be satisfied if he is a good man with no dictatorial ideas."

Rarus, the Old Turf King, Dead.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Rarus, long known as the king of the trotting turf, died on Robert Bonner's Tarrytown farm on Tuesday. He was 25 years old, and died of old age. At Buffalo, in 1878, he lowered the trotting record to 2:13 1/4, and remained king of the turf until October 29, when St. Julien reduced the mark to 2:12 1/4. Rarus was purchased by Bonner in 1879, for $35,000, and has not since appeared on the turf. When 20 years old the late John Murphy claimed to have driven him a trial mile in 2:11 1/2.

Out on Habeas Corpus.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., May 24.—The first of the Johnson county invaders to get into court is practically freed. The application for a habeas corpus for Dr. Charles B. Penrose, the expedition surgeon, was granted. He has furnished bail in $1,000 to appear when required. He left the party the second day out, rather than travel behind the wagons. The indictment filed against him in Johnson county alleges that he murdered Nick Ray, who met death with Nate Champion, at No Man's ranch. Penrose answers that he was not present, and did not start out to kill in the first place.

Laymen not Women.

OMAHA, May 25.—Yesterday the Methodist conference committee on judiciary reached a conclusion that the word laymen in the discipline, where it provides for lay representation, does not include women. After a sharp discussion the conference decided to allow the Epworth league to have its own special secretary. It was decided to encourage the young people's society of christian endeavor and other such organizations to reorganize as branches of the Epworth league, in order to make the latter only a young people's society of the church.

The Albert medal of the London society of arts, has been awarded to Thomas A. Edison for his services in electric lighting, etc.

The Astorian Independent.

ASTORIA, May 25.—Preparations for entertaining visitors to the sea side resorts are more extensive than ever before. Trains are running daily to Clatsop beach. New engines and new passenger cars are on the way and will be ample for the traffic, and quite luxurious compared to the box cars in use last year. The bridge across Young's bay is to be finished, and trains can be run direct from the city without change. Hon. H. B. Parkers' steamer Astorian will continue her daily trips as usual, without advancing the fare. The owner thinks it would pay better to have plenty of passengers at a low fare than no patrons at advanced rates, and he is probably right, and if the citizens of this city will support their boat they are sure to have many visitors to their city that otherwise would not come.

How to Command Respect.

Concerning the use of Hon. Van B. DeLashmutts' name, in connection with the miner's strike, without authority, that gentleman, in a communication to the Telegram, says: "I neither sent nor authorized any one else to send a dispatch and use my name. I had a friendly conversation with Capt. O'Brien, in which I stated what I would do, which is exactly what the mineowners purpose, but I did not authorize Capt. O'Brien to use my name, and I can hardly think he did so. At any rate, there seems to be most too much anxiety to distort a friendly talk into concessions to the Miners' union, which I never expressed nor intended. The Miners' union must rid itself of carmen and shovelers to command respect of tradesmen. A labor organization cannot prosper long which admits to its ranks unskilled labor. Thus must form the basis of all labor organizations, and when a trades union admits any and everybody to its ranks it is no longer a trades union."

Mormons for Chihuahua.

EL PASO, May 24.—Another Mormon colony has been granted a large copcesion in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico. The concession consists of 100,000 acres of fertile farm land through which runs the Rio Concho. A delegation of Mormon elders went through to Utah last night, and as soon as the crops in Utah have been gathered this year they say 500 families will be moved to the new colony.

Reform in London.

LONDON, May 25.—It looks like reform to see prominent men of finance arrested here for conspiracy as was the case today when Sir Henry Isaacs, late lord mayor of London, his brother and two others, were taken up on a charge of defrauding the Hansard publication concern, which failed some time ago with large liabilities. They are accused of misapplying large sums of the company's money and conspired to obtain money by false pretenses.

President Harrison's friends are up in arms, and now propose to squelch any opposition that may be made to his nomination: which may be presumed to include Col. Clarkson. If the past has been bitter the future may become bitterness to the excessive fine degree of keen reproach.

BLAINE IS YET THE TAW

What Clarkson Proposes to Do in Washington Today.

BLAINE SAYS HE WILL NOT STAND.

Has Left the Capital "to Avoid the Rush and Write a Letter."

IN THE HOUSE OF HIS FRIENDS.

Clarkson Imagines that Harrison Will Take Action to Prevent Pressing His Name.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Secretary Blaine is not in the city, and his present whereabouts is known only to his most intimate friends. He has absented himself to avoid the annoyances of the politicians. Before leaving, it is said, Blaine stated to another member of the cabinet that he will not accept the nomination, and if the president so desired he would write another letter. His friends, however, insist that if he is nominated unanimously he will accept. Col. Clarkson is expected in Washington today with the emphatic demand of the most influential republicans in the eastern, middle and western states which are not solidly democratic, that President Harrison shall stand aside, and that Mr. Blaine shall be the candidate. In the absence of Mr. Blaine from Washington, the republican chairman will go direct to President Harrison and make an appeal to him, and he shall take such action as will prevent the pressing of his name at Minneapolis. It is openly charged, and publicly talked over, that Gen. Alger is at the bottom of this latest Blaine boom, and expects to go on the ticket with Blaine, taking his chances for the presidency hereafter. This talk has a cold blooded sentiment in it which freezes the ardor of the most enthusiastic Blaine admirer.

Death in The Fire.

SPokane, May 25.—It is now known that four men perished in the fire which destroyed the Spokane mill company's buildings, the Echo roller mills, and the Oatmeal mill, the Washington shingle mills, the Spokane steam laundry, a number of residences and the Howard street bridge, on Tuesday. The missing men are: Adolph Schultze, L. B. Cornwell, Richard Butcher and a man named Cunningham. The charred remains of the first three were taken out of the ruins of the Spokane mill company. Search is being continued for the others. It is thought that one or two men were drowned in the river. The damage all told will amount to $300,000, with not much over $50,000 insurance.

Will Visit Oregon.

WALLA WALLA, May 25.—A San Francisco dispatch says that a few editors, in attendance at Fresno, will visit Oregon and Washington, upon the invitation of P. B. Johnson and others, constituting an Oregon and Washington delegation for that purpose. It is thought they will be royally entertained at Tacoma, and perhaps at Portland.

Reform in Quebec.

QUEBEC, May 24.—The attorney-general has laid a new criminal information against ex-Premier Mercier for alleged malfeasance in office, for retaining moneys out of the subsidies voted by parliament for the Baie de Chaleurs railway, Hereford railway, and Ottawa Colonization railway.

Third Party Candidate.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 24.—The third party in convention has resolved to present the name of L. L. Polk, president of the farmers' alliance, to the national convention of the people's party at Omaha, as a candidate for the presidency of the United States.

George Lang, a 49-er, suicided in poverty at Sacramento yesterday.
