THE DALLES - OREGON
SATURDAY - MAY 28, 1892
TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

ARKANSAS CITY, May 27.—The river continues to rise. Further reports of flooded plantations, ruined crops, suffering and destitute people are being received from every direction.

Storm in Virginia. CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 27.—A disastrous hail storm visited this section yesterday. Trees were cut to pieces and corn and fruit ruined. The farmers are discouraged.

Vanderbilt Buried. NEW YORK, May 27.—The funeral services over the remains of W. H. Vanderbilt, oldest son of Cornelius Vanderbilt, were held today. The interment took place in the Moravian cemetery at New-dorp, Staten Island, the Vanderbilt burial ground.

An Indiana Storm. BROWNSVILLE, Ind., May 27.—A disastrous storm passed through Jackson county last night, and thousands of acres of wheat were destroyed by wind and hail. Much fruit was also destroyed. J. D. Johnson and Levi Miller, farm laborers, were killed by lightning.

An Australian agricultural paper makes note of immense increase in the number of sheep Australia in the last two or three years, and of the enormous development of the grazing capabilities of the country. The estimated number of sheep in Australia in 1892 is 60,000,000, against 31,000,000 in 1884.

Building Material. We offer to the building public a full line of building material. We do not resort to trickery to buy or sell any lines handled by us.

A Pointer. "I am very much pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says H. M. Bangs, the druggist at Chatsworth, Ill. "During the epidemic of the grippe here it took the lead and was very much better liked than other cough medicines."

Valuable Information. The following figures, showing the elevation above sea level, at prominent signal stations, in the states of Oregon and Washington, will be read with interest, and preserved for future reference.

NOTICE TO ICE CONSUMERS. As manager of The Dalles Ice Co. I wish to contradict the statements that I was only acting as agent for an outside company. I own one half interest in the company, and will sell ice this year and for years to come, and should a crop of natural ice come in this locality we will put up enough to supply this city for three or four years and Spokane companies will then have to withdraw their agents from here.

ICE! ICE! ICE! Having on hand a large supply of ice we are prepared to furnish our customers with ice in any quantity at a reasonable rate. We guarantee we will supply the demand without advancing prices throughout the season. Leave orders at C. F. Lauer's store, Second street, 5-24th CATES & ALLISON.

He Reckoned He Would Run. One of the most interesting characters in American history is General Zachary Taylor, "Old Rough and Ready," hero of Buena Vista, father-in-law of Jefferson Davis, and twelfth president of the United States.

General Sherman used to tell an amusing little story of Taylor ament his nomination for the presidency. At that time General Taylor was stationed at New Orleans. He was a Kentuckian and the Kentuckians were very properly proud of him.

"General, we want you to run for president." "Who wants me to run?" asked General Taylor seriously.

"Well, then, if that's the case," replied the old hero, without changing the expression of his face, "I reckon I'll have to run."—Detroit Free Press.
