THE DALLES OREGON THURSDAY JUNE 2, 1892

SO IT IS TRUE.

Here's a friend who says that sorrow comes today or comes tomorrow; Here's a long face who is moaning; Tell him death is far away!

A Noted Fat Man. Some years ago a man named Hanson Craig, hailing from Kentucky, claimed to be the heaviest man in the world.

Bridesmaids' Favors. The vagaries of bridesmaids' favors grow. Recently in London the eight attendants upon the bride carried walking sticks of the Alpine sort with Dresden china heads, gifts of the bride, and at another wedding little silver whistles were worn by the maids because the bride bestowed them.

Picture of a Solar Eruption. A recent eruption on the sun's face was photographed, and lasted for fully fifteen minutes. Its angular height showed it to be a disturbance causing the vapors to ascend fully 80,000 miles.

Brass in Household Furnishings.

We are reminded that among the many reforms introduced by A. Welby Pugin, one of the ablest modern Gothic designers, it was made especially apparent that brass was a metal having a beauty of its own, and that it could be used to advantage in many ways, both in ecclesiastical and domestic purposes.

Brass will take a brilliant polish, and the metal's adaptability for design has been thoroughly appreciated by modern designers.

In all work connected with the household there is now no need to say a word for brass in arrangements for lighting, in grilles, dishes, ornaments and so on, for it is used with overwhelming success, and is even made into such things as jardiniere and tables.—Decorator and Furnisher.

Reported Favorably. Mr. Richard Redgrave, the artist, records in his diary this amusing recommendation from an Irishman appointed to examine students competing for medals: "I should also recommend Margaret — for a reward. Being very young she naturally missed the point of all the questions in the papers, but her answers were so ladylike that I think the medal should be given to her."—San Francisco Argonaut.

The Motion of Glaciers. The motion of glaciers is yet a bone of contention, but it is generally admitted that the cause of it is to be found mainly in gravitation, and is also partially accounted for by the strange property of "viscosity" in what appears to the casual observer to be nothing more or less than a rigid solid.—Goldthwaite's Geographical Magazine.

Just 24.

In just 24 hours J. V. S. relieves constipation and sick headaches. After it gets the system under control an occasional dose prevents return.

We refer by permission to W. H. Marshall, Brunswick House, S. F.; Geo. A. Werner, 531 California St., S. F.; Mrs. G. Melvin, 136 Kearny St., S. F., and many others who have found relief from constipation and sick headaches.

G. W. Vincent, of 6 Terrace Court, S. F., writes: "I am 60 years of age and have been troubled with constipation for 25 years. I was recently induced to try Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. I recognized in it at once an herb that the Mexicans used to give us in the early 50's for bowel troubles. (I came to California in 1859), and I knew it would help me and it has. For the first time in years I can sleep well and my system is regular and in splendid condition. The old Mexican herbs in this remedy are a certain cure in constipation and bowel troubles." Ask for

A Necessity.

The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal European tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea, upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally cease it altogether.

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless teas. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark.
