How Money Circulates

There would be more bills paid in this world if the people would only stop to realize how much more profitable it is for all concerned to keep the money in

Here is an example how money circu lates from one man to another, although it is not often that you can keep track of a bank bill on its travels in this way. A Portland merchant owed $2 to a shop-

The shopkeeper called at the merchant's place of business and received a D. P. Thompson. A little later he used the bill to pay a debt of $2 which he owed to a la-

The laborer at once went and paid a debt of $2 which he owed his grocer. The grocer gave the $2 bill to a painter. It chanced that this painter owed $1.50 to the first named shopkeeper. The painter paid the debt, and the shopkeeper discovered that the identical $2 bill which be had paid out in the which he had paid out in the morning had come back to him. This $2 bill had paid $9.50 worth of debts, and the original holder had his money back. - Bangor (Me.) Commercial. it Does Not Rain Alway.

A Springfield gentleman who spent a summer in Europe lately, tells this story of the Scotch climate. He had been in the "land o' cakes" for nearly two weeks, on a special trout fishing tour. The trout were magnificent, but the weather was awful; is rained every day and all day long. He was not easily discouraged and fished through rain. minus shine. It was growing just a trifle monotonous by the end of the second week. The natives kept prophesying sunshine day after day, but he had lost all faith in them. One day. away up on the side of a heathery hill, where he had followed a trout stream almost to its source, he came across a tiny, bare legged, kilted highlander, fishing with a pin and worm. "Say," bub." said the American, "does it rain every day in this confounded country of yours?" "Oh, na, sir," said the little fel-low with a laugh; "na, indeed, some-times it snaws." — Springfield Home-

A Plea for Working Women

I think that in large houses and factories, where a number of women are imployed on the fourth and sixth floors they should be carried up in the passen ger instead of the freight elevator, as is now the way in many places. Few customers come in before 9 o'clock, and all the sewing women and girls can be up before that hour. A passenger ele-vator is safer. I am sorry to learn that in some large places a number of poor sewing girls have to walk up six floors while passenger and freight elevators are running all day half empty I have much sympathy for the great number of good, honest young women who toil hard all day in this big city for a living. They should be paid better and treated better too.-Cor. New York Advertiser

A Copper Plated Ceiling. The use of copper in decorative metal work is largely on the increase, by reason of the ease with which it can be used in various electroplating processes. The electrotyping of metal has been carried so far that entire shop fronts are constructed by this process. One of the ceilings of the Equitable building is made of electroplated copper on wood, which exhibits the capabilities of this beautiful method of interior decoration. -Decorator and Furnisher.

A Carious Funeral Ceremony. It is said that when Alaric, the con-queror of Rome, died that "a river was turned aside to make place in its bed for his grave, and when he was buried the water was again let into its former channel, and the prisoners who had helped to bury him were killed so that no one might find out where the conqueror of Rome was buried.

The river thus turned was the Busen to, and the place near Cosento. Italy.-St. Louis Republic.

Bad Blood.

Impure or vitiated blood is nintimes out of ten caused by some form of constipation or indigestion that clogs up the system, when the blood naturally becomes impregnated with the elfete matter. The old Sarsaparillas attempt to reach this condition by attacking the blood with the drastic mineral "potash." The potash theory is old and obsolete. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is modern. It goes to the seat of the trouble. It arouses the liver, kidneys and bowels to healthful action, and invigorates the circulation, and the impurities are quickly carried off through the natural channels.

Try it and note its delightful action. Chas. Lee, at Beamish's Third and Market Streets, S. F., writes: "I took it for vitiated blood and while on the first bottle became convinced of its merits, for I could feel it was working a change. It cleansed, puri fied and braced me up generally, and everything is now working full and regula :"

A Necessity.

The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal Euro pean tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea, upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally cease it

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless teas. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our tests for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an fimmediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in Besch's Tea. He purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more in-herent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being re-quired for an infusion. This you will dis-cover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor to delicated. the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:

Wasco County.

Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer

Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles. The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

Daily and Weekly Editions. THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire.
