Not So Sufe After All.

"Do you see that tall, spare man leaning against the rail over there?" said James Vauce, steward of the Athenian "Well, I'll tell you a little yarn in which he played an amusing part. Some years ago Haquette & Haggeman got in a big safe, all gorgeous with paint and glorious with impossible landscapes. Ernest Haquette was very proud of it, and in his bustling, eager way would show it to all old patrons of the place. expatiating upon its merits.

"One evening he was engaged in showing a party of gentlemen the wonders of the safe, and ran on: 'No burglar could ever get into that, I tell you. He couldn't open it in a week. It's the safest safe in this town, for money.'

"'Oh, I don't know about that,' said that tall man, who was then leaning on the bar just as he is now leaning on the rail. 'I don't think it's so safe.'

"This startled Haquette a little. No one had ever questioned that safe before in that off hand way. He flushed a little while the stranger regarded him nonchalantly. Haquette felt nettled and at last blurted out:

"I'll put $500 in that safe and if you can get it out in six hours you can have it. Axes, jimmies and all tools are allowed, but dynamite barred.'

"'I'll go you,' said our tail friend.
'We'll just make it half an hour and no tools however.

"Haquette promptly dumped $500 into a bag, put the bag into the safe and turned the combination. There you are,' he said defiantly.

"The tall man got down on his knees put an ear against the safe where the tumblers work and began turning the knob of the combination. He didn't say a word, but steadily clicked away. Haquette began to sweat and step around.
"In twenty-three minutes the safe was open. Our friend over there took the bag of money, handed it to the dum-founded Haquette and said cynically: 'I don't' want your maney. They salted me for a little job like that once. My name is Ensign.'"—San Francisco Ex-

Not the Worst Girl in the World.

Professor Chapman, of Bowdoin col-lege, told the following story at an alumni dinner: "I feel like the little daughter of a friend of mine in Port-land. She had just mastered the art of expressing berself in intelligent sentences. One day she had done something for which her mamma had to reprove her. The lady gave her daughter a sound lecture and then told her to go up stairs, alone, in her room, and ask God to forgive her for her error.

"In a few minutes she was surprised to see the baby come down stairs again, appear in the sitting room and stand back with a great deal of seriousness. "'Well, did you go up and do what I told you? asked the fond mother.

"'Yes,' replied the guilty one, 'and God said, "Great Scott! Elsie Murray, I've known a great many worser girls than you." "—Boston Herald.

How to Roll an Umbrella.

"Certainly, but you don't need any," said a salesman in a Chapel street store recently to a customer who had just bought an umbrella, and who had asked for a rubber ring.

"But I want to keep the ends of the ribs from spreading when the umbrella is rolled up," and the customer held up for inspection the umbrella he had just

"Let me show you," said the sales-man, as he unfastened the band and shook out the folds. Grasping the stick so that his right hand held the ends of the ribs close to the wood, he began rolling the silk in the curve of his left hand. Whenever he gave the umbrella a turn he kept the ribs in their original position, and when the rolling was compl he held up the umbrella and showed that the metal tips pressed as closely to the stick as if riveted in place.—New Haven eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have no ticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stom-ach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stemach and healthful digestion purifies it and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples eak out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared.

Wasco County,

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head ion on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, pros perous city.

ITS TERRITORY.

It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles. The Largest Wool Market.

The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH.

It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire. The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
