"God Owns the Church."

A small New Yorker, while on a visit to his aunt, who lives in a New Hampshire town, was taken to church and Sunday school. As he entered the church his aunt said:

"Now, George, you must remember to be very quiet while in church. You know that it is God's house, and he would not like it if you did not behave well."

The young man heeded this admonition and was quiet as a lamb. Later he was taken into the Sunday school room. Then again he was cautioned.

"You must be very good while you are in here, George," said the aunt, "because Elisha Brown, the superintendent, does not like little people who make any noise."

Again the caution was well received, and young George was a model of propriety.

When he reached home his mother inquired how he had liked the church and if he had been a good boy.

"He behaved beautifully," said the aunt, and the mother was much pleased.

Young George said nothing just then, but a little later he amused everybody by remarking, "The church belongs to God, but the Sunday school belongs to Elisha Brown."—Chicago News.

A Good Lung Exercise.

Hold head up, shoulders back and chest out; inflate the lungs slowly through the nose until they are brimful; hold until you have counted ten, without opening your lips; exhale quickly till your lungs are as nearly empty of the bad air as it is possible to get them.

Repeat same exercise, trying to hold the lungs full while counting twenty. Try it again and see if you can hold your breath half a minute. Finish with three or four deep, long drawn inspirations.—Nature.

The Wrong Prescription.

A Connecticut woman sent her little son to the drug store for parogoric and licorice, and the youngster somewhat startled the clerk by requesting a fifteen cent pair of garters and a necktie.—Pharmaceutical Era.

The Chilian Soldier.

The Chilian soldier is a peculiarly organized fighting machine. He is prominently and literally bloodthirsty, and he loves to see blood flow from wounds inflicted by his own hand. He uses the rifle and even the bayonet, as it were, under protest, and can hardly be restrained, when at close quarters, from throwing down his firearms and hurling himself upon the foe knife in hand. An Englishman attached to the ambulance told me that after the battle of Pozo Almonte scores of men lay locked in the death grip, their knives plunged into one another's bodies.—M. H. Hervey's "Dark Days in Chili."

Great Profit in Pipe Manufacture. The Mannesmann process of spinning tubes from solid ingots of iron and steel, which has attracted so much attention during the past two years, has proved a bonanza to some of the companies that adopted it. The report of the Mannesmann German-Austrian tube works for the last year shows a profit of $342,000 on business aggregating only $780,000.—New York Journal.

A Noted Dog Dead. The railway dog of England, known as Hlop, has died. He wore a silver collar inscribed, "I am Hlop, the railway dog of England and, traveling agent for the orphans of railway men killed on duty. My office is 55 Colebrook row, where subscriptions will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged." He brought more than £1,000 into the fund.—New York Sun.

In the coming Crystal Palace electrical exhibition, upon the payment of a small fee, persons will be able to listen through the telephone to the music performed at theaters in London, Birmingham, Manchester and Liverpool.

Pimples.

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparilla contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, result pimples. A clean stomach and healthy digestion purifies it and they disappear.

Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparilla and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hearing that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla

A Necessity. The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal European tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea, upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally cease it altogether.

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless tea. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:

THE DALLES, Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
