About Chewing Gum.

"The chewing gum trade may be said to be holding its own," said the young man with light clothes and an iron jaw. "I have a factory in Salem, O., and employ more people than ever before. We pay a cent a box to girls for wrapping. They make from two to three dollars a week at it. The output of Chicago is about $1,500 a day for every week day of the year. That is nearly half a million dollars a year expended in that city alone for gum. Most of this goes west. There are a number of manufacturers in the east also. I presume about $1,000,000 a year, at least, is spent in chewing gum, counting only manufacturers' prices. As we sell to the jobbers at thirty-five cents a box and the retailer gets one dollar a box, you can figure up the difference and see just about what the public invests in chewing gum. It must be something near $3,500,000 a year at the lowest estimate. Divide this into five cent and one cent sticks and we are obliged to conclude that a good many jaws are on the move besides ours."—New York Herald.

What a Fried Pie is. Fried pie is a Philadelphia dish that cannot be found here. The dish is prepared with dried peaches inserted between half moons of pastry—turnovers, they are called—with a particular sort of crumple at the edges, seemingly identified with their taste. They are fried in hot lard, and afterward sprinkled over with sugar and cinnamon or nutmeg. They are served hot, and to make them richer butter is inserted between the smoking ends. They are very good and desirable if you are armored to resist their ravages.—New York Evening Sun.

A New York man who was liberated from a hospital a few days ago danced so violently for joy that he burst a blood vessel and died.

Pimples.

The old idea of 40 years ago was that facial eruptions were due to a "blood humor," for which they gave potash. Thus all the old Sarsaparillas contain potash, a most objectionable and drastic mineral, that instead of decreasing, actually creates more eruptions. You have noticed this when taking other Sarsaparillas than Joy's. It is however now known that the stomach, the blood creating power, is the seat of all vitiating or cleansing operations. A stomach clogged by indigestion or constipation, vitiates the blood, results in pimples. A clean stomach and healthy digestion purify the blood, and they disappear. Thus Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is compounded after the modern idea to regulate the bowels and stimulate the digestion. The effect is immediate and most satisfactory. A short testimonial to contrast the action of the potash Sarsaparillas and Joy's modern vegetable preparation. Mrs. C. D. Stuart, of 400 Hayes St., S. F., writes: "I have for years had indigestion, I tried a popular Sarsaparilla but it actually caused more pimples to break out on my face. Hoping that Joy's was a later preparation and acted differently, I tried it and the pimples immediately disappeared."

A Necessity.

The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal European tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea, upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally, cease it altogether.

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless tea. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer tea find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap tea you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:

BEECH'S TEA "Pure As Childhood." Price 60c per pound. For sale at Leslie Butler's THE DALLES, OREGON.

THE DALLES, Wasco County, Oregon.

The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city.

ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles.

The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here.

ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future.

ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon.

Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.

THE DALLES CHRONICLE. Daily and Weekly Editions.

THE CHRONICLE was established for the express purpose of faithfully representing The Dalles and the surrounding country, and the satisfying effect of its mission is everywhere apparent. It now leads all other publications in Wasco, Sherman, Gilliam, a large part of Crook, Morrow and Grant counties, as well as Klickitat and other regions north of The Dalles, hence it is the best medium for advertisers in the Inland Empire. The DAILY CHRONICLE is published every evening in the week (Sundays excepted) at $6.00 per annum. The WEEKLY CHRONICLE on Fridays of each week at $1.50 per annum.
