The Missoula river is higher this week than for five years past.

George Nolin, of Dufur, paid the CHRONICLE a pleasant visit today.

Hon. U. P. Isenberg and C. P. Heald of Hood River made a flying trip to the eity today.

Frank Brothers, has located temporarily yet. There is absolutely no market for at 75 Second street.

The CHRONICLE acknowledges the courtesy of a visit today from Hampton Kelly, of Wapinitia.

The momentous question in demo-Chicago on Tuesday next?

THE CHRONICLE is indebted to the courtesy of Hon. Binger Hermann for and the railroad company will havevaluable documents received.

D. W. Aldridge has retired from editorship of the Prineville News. His successor is F. E. Wilmarth.

It is said there are ten candidates for the office of city marshal. The city ought to be able to select a good one from that number.

The moonlight excursion last night you performed your duty in your day." was highly enjoyed by a large number of persons, mostly young people, who returned to the city at midnight after a very pleasant trip.

It never helps us to walk any straighter to watch another man's feet. Mrs. Frank Dekum of Portland, is the quest of Mrs. S. L. Brooks this week.

Miss Burke, of Oakland, Cal., niece of Mr. J. W. French, is in the city, en route to North Dakota.

There is now a wall-paper trust with some very large and allurieg figures worked into its make-up.

Mrs. P. M. S. Briggs will remain in Washington for some time, visiting relatives and friends in Chehalis county. A resident of the East End thinks that as "a little water now and then is enjoyed by the best of men" the streets of that portion of the city should be sprinkled.

Capt. Fred Wilson, late of the Regulator, came up from Portland to make the run today to the cascades, with the steamer E. D. Baker. He is looking as fine as a fiddle.

Higher, higher still, the Columbia is spreading itself here, and all along. The Snake has taken another boom, and debouched the additional rise of nine inches into the Columbia yesterday.

It will be only consistency for congress men favoring economy to refuse the appropriations demanded in the summerresort bills which will be introduced into thier hotel rooms early next fall.

The fame of the St. Charles hotel, says a Portland paper, is by far too great to require extended praise, either of the ouse or its proprietor, Mr. Charles W. Knowles. The St. Charles is the favorite resort in Portland for residents of the Inland Empire. It is a place where every guest is made to feel at home.

The Fourth of July committee were in session some time this forenoon, and the meeting adjourned to Campbells' parlors, where they cooled the temperature of their ardent patriotic fervor in soothing plates of strawberries and ice cream at the invitation of-. No you don't, no divulging the business of the meeting.

The price of horses-of a certain class, very small, or medium sized ones-in Eastern Oregon, may be judged from the fact that A. M. Kelsey of Antelope was offered a few days ago, 36 head, mostly mares, for $140. He did not buy them norance or positive refusal to permit C. W. Phelps, agent at this place for and as far as he knows they are not sold any ballot that is not in harmony with small horses.

Sinnott, now at Notre Dame College, Indiana, wrote to him, explaining the situation bere, and asking him, in behalf of the committee, to be with us and read the Declaration of Independence, if possible to come. To this letter Mr. Hampshire received the following answer by wire, this morning : NOTRE DAME, Ind., June 14 .- I accept with the greatest pleasure. Return thanks to committee. N. J. SINNOTT.

Free Ballot and Fair Count.

The late election has demonstrated that the Australian ballot system cannot always secure a free ballot or a fair count, even in the city in The Dalles. As a proof of this statement, it is only necessary to refer to the case of Trevitt precinct in this city, where a free-born city election. American citizen cast a legal ballot, and the Board of Elections refused to count eald ballot. It is asserted by the members of said board that the ballot was illegal because the printed names were erased and the elector filled the blank spaces. If the board will examine section 49 of the election law, it provides that the elector 6-3-dawlm shall have the privilege, and hence igtheir own preconcerted views, to have any force must have ruled in the decision. But ignorance of the law does not excuse the most illiterate, much less and made-no preparation thereof. Such boards of election that fail to prepare for their duties should be deprived of their pay for such service and

Now as to the "free ballot." It seems that unless a man votes just what the old parties of this county dictate, then every means is put forth to injure him in his business or profession. This is ballot box stuffing with a vengeance. As Hon. Robert Mays was passing up the straight republican ticket and as a result, every nook and corner is searched
