Some weeks ago a resolution was passed in the United States senate inquiring as to the practical effect of the reciprocity negotiations. In a lengthy reply sent to the senate last Monday, the acting secretary of state said, while the "practical effect" could not be measured by the commerce of a month or even a year: "It is gratifying to note there has already been a considerable increase in our exports, and there is good reason to expect it will be permanent. It is equally noticeable, too, that the exports from Great Britain to the Latin-American countries are falling off with even greater rapidity, so much so as to excite the apprehension of her commercial organizations and impel them to seek protection from the government. In conclusion, the acting secretary says the act has not only brought about the result of securing the repeal of the prohibition of American pork, which for ten years had practically excluded that product from most of the continental countries of Europe, but has enabled the executive to negotiate a reciprocity arrangement of a highly satisfactory character with Germany and Austria. No satisfactory results have yet been obtained in the negotiations with Mexico."

President Dowling of the New York Trades Assembly says if Hill is nominated he will be heartily supported by the workmen of the state as he has done much for the cause of labor. On the other hand, Dowling says the labor organizations are opposed to Cleveland, irrevocably, and if he is placed in the field they will nominate a candidate of their own. The interests of the workmen of this nation would be quite as safe in the hands of Cleveland as in those of Hill. Nothing however succeeds in politics like demagoguery.

"Farmers and horticulturists should remember to keep the best samples of their products for exhibition at the coming district fair. The list of prizes will, both in number and value, greatly exceed anything ever offered before, and those who do not take the trouble to enter as competitors will regret it when they see others carry off valuable prizes that they themselves might have won."

No paper in Eastern Oregon contains as much general news as The Dalles WEEKLY CHRONICLE. It will, therefore, be the very best channel of information during the pending presidential campaign. To put it within the reach of everybody, the paper will be sent to all new subscribers, till the close of the campaign, for the low price of 50 cents. Send on your subscriptions.

And now Mike DeYoung's paper, the San Francisco Chronicle, gravely announces that the leaders among the republicans were awfully vexed because the Californian had not expressed a desire for the presidential nomination, telling him he could have had it just as well as not. What a fortunate thing it was that De Young didn't want it.

Today or tomorrow probably, says the Walla Walla Journal, the public will be given an opportunity to view the greatest feat of deglutition of modern times. The Tammany tiger will swallow Grover Cleveland.

Portland's city government sadly needed a reformation if it be true, as the Dispatch says, that five harlots peddled tickets for their favorite candidates at one of the polling places last Monday.

The compensation of United States postmasters has increased from $8,964,876.72 in 1882 to $14,526,990.70 in 1891, and their numbers have increased in corresponding ratio.

Oregon Newspapers.
 Telegram. The Three Sisters, published at Barlow, Clackamas county, but claiming to hail equally from Barlow, Aurora and Canby, and the Sheridan Sun, are the latest acquisitions to the newspaper list of Oregon. A town is no town at all these days unless it has a newspaper, and frequently not much of a town if it has.

A Pointer.
 "I am very much pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says H. M. Bagg, the druggist at Chatsworth, Ill. "During the epidemic of la grippe here it took the lead and was very much better liked than other cough medicines." The grip requires precisely the same treatment as a very severe cold, for which this remedy is so efficient. It will promptly loosen a cold and relieve the lungs, soon effecting a permanent cure, while most other medicines in common use for colds only give temporary relief. 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

Rheumatism Cured in Three Days.
 Miss Grace Littlejohn is a little girl, aged eleven years, residing in Baltimore, Ohio. Read what she says: "I was troubled with rheumatism for two years, but could get nothing to do me any good. I was so helpless that I had to be carried like a babe when I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I got it from our druggists, Mr. J. A. Kumber, and in three days I was up and walking around. I have not felt any return of it since and my limbs are limber as they ever were." 50 cent bottles for sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

NEW TO-DAY.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It having come to our knowledge that a party in The Dalles in selling lime has made the assertion that he charges more for other brands than the "Oregon" because they are better, thereby implying that the "Oregon" is an inferior article, we desire to state that the "Oregon" is the strongest lime on the market; that it will work more plastic and leave the work when set stronger and firmer than any other lime at present manufactured in either Oregon or Washington. Wm. Butler & Co., Agents at The Dalles for the "Oregon" lime, are instructed to furnish, free of charge, any and all Oregon lime, which does not fully come up to the stipulations above set forth. The object of this notice is solely to defend our goods against the false imputations and statements of any person whatsoever. The Or. Marble and Lime Company, by T. F. OSBORN, General Agt. 5-24-dlm
