STATE OFFICIALS.

Governor: S. Penoyer; Secretary of State: G. W. McBride; Treasurer: Philip Metchan; Supt. of Public Instruction: E. B. McElroy; Senators: J. H. Mitchell, J. N. Dolph; Congressmen: B. Hermann, Frank Baker.

COUNTY OFFICIALS.

County Judge: C. N. Thornbury; Sheriff: D. I. Cates; Clerk: E. B. Green; Treasurer: Geo. Hutch; Commissioners: H. A. Leavens, Frank Kincaid, John E. Barrett; Assessor: E. F. Sharp; Surveyor: Troy Shelby; Coroner: William Mitchell.

Gov. Russell, of Massachusetts, belongs to a precise family. Recently Col. Harry Russell called on his brother, the governor, at the state house, and was ushered into the executive chamber in his turn in the conventional manner. A friend who was in the outer office, says that he was somewhat amused at the greeting between the two brothers. "Good morning, colonel," the governor said, rising to meet Harry. "Good morning, your excellency," said Harry, with all the dignity of a subaltern member of the staff addressing his commander-in-chief. The governor and the colonel invariably address each other, even on informal public occasions, after the accepted style that prevails between subordinate and superior officers.

A prominent fish and game merchant of Portland sends in the following complaint against the deer-skin hunters of the surrounding country: "Notwithstanding all efforts made to put an end to the practice of killing deer for their skins, it appears that the miserable, contemptible skin-hunter is still at his work of destruction in the Cascades. Several boxes of deer skins have been received here lately, put up in a way to conceal the contents. The proper persons have this matter in hand, and are taking steps to secure the punishment of the guilty parties."

According to the late decision of the Oregon supreme court each county will have to pay its state tax on the basis of the levy made by the state board of equalization. This decision will effect many counties as to mortgages, city and town property and real estate and counties like Multnomah which have been assessing mortgages at 50 per cent. This is certainly neither equality nor uniformity, so long as other property is assessed at a much lower rate but since the supreme court has spoken it must be accepted as another absurdity of our most absurd system of assessment.

It is deeply touching to read the pathetic protest of Tony Noltner's paper against the taxation of certain wax angels which were received at Baltimore the other day from abroad, which are intended to be used for decorating Christmas trees. "Even angels are required to pay a tax before they can enter!" says the Dispatch. How fortunate it is that Tony himself is a native product.

It is said that Mrs. Deane, the faithless wife who recently figured in the infamous scandal at Nice, is now living in California and expresses regret over the publicity given to her affairs. We gather from this that the unhappy lady is deeply penitent that her liaison was discovered.

Salem will celebrate the Fourth in great shape. Besides the regular patriotic ceremonies she will have an encampment of state troops, sham battle and industrial parade.

The Dispatch says: "The Dalles City is being repainted," meaning, we suppose the steamer known by that name. The town don't need repainting.

Dr. Briggs, the heretical Presbyterian divine, has created another sensation by joining the auxiliary league of the Salvation Army.

The state has sued Baker county for $12,000 miscellaneous taxes which have been accumulating since 1870.

Goldendale will celebrate on the Fourth.

Disgustingly Thunderous.

Klamath Star. The cry of reform is louder today in the mouth of the demagogue than ever before. From the stump and from the editorial column that cry has got to be disgustingly thunderous. The world is sick and abed and gets nothing to do it any good—the demagogue tells us. It will die and go to perdition if it don't take great gulps of his reform. The moment we hear the word reform we invariably slide out of the meeting. We know there is nothing there but a sombre cloak with a demagogue in it, and a voice loud enough to raise a Mansard roof.

Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Colic Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, druggists. d&w

NEW TO-DAY.
TO THE PUBLIC.—It having come to our knowledge that a party in The Dalles in selling lime has made the assertion that he charges more for other brands than the "Oregon" because they are better, thereby implying that the "Oregon" is an inferior article, we desire to state that the "Oregon" is the strongest lime on the market; that it will work more plastic and leave the work when set stronger and firmer than any other lime at present manufactured in either Oregon or Washington. Wm. Butler & Co., Agents at The Dalles for the "Oregon" lime, are instructed to furnish, free of charge, any and all Oregon lime, which does not fully come up to the stipulations above set forth. The object of this notice is solely to defend our goods against the false imputations and statements of any person whatsoever. The Or. Marble and Lime Company, by T. F. OSBORN, General Agt. 5-24-d1m
