Fashion in Dogs' Covering. There is a code of fashion in relation to the garments worn by ladies' pet dogs. Its latest edicts in regard to canine fashions set forth that at breakfast only a simple garment of blue or white flannel should be worn, and a collar at this hour of the day is considered vulgar.

Married with Her Arms All Dough. A very romantic marriage has taken place in Montgomery county, N. C. A young man obtained the license, secured the preacher, took him immediately to the presence of his intended. He found her in the kitchen making up dough. The young fellow did not give her time to clean her hands and arms, but had the preacher to tie the knot at once. The preacher made quick work of it and sent them on their way rejoicing.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Came Near Being Buried Alive. After a young woman in Morgan county, Ala., had been pronounced dead last week by four physicians, and was dressed in her burial garments, she suddenly, during the night before the funeral, opened her eyes and sat up in bed, to the intense fright of the watchers and the joy of her parents. A few hours later she got up and is now in her usual health.

Lord Lorne's Poetry. The Marquis of Lorne is a happy man. He is computed by the industrious to have written more poetry than Lord Tennyson, and now he has been made governor and constable of Windsor castle at a salary of £1,200 a year.—London News.

SICK Head-Aches. Illustration of a person's head with a red spot indicating pain.

Sick-headaches are the outward indications of derangements of the stomach and bowels. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick-headaches. It is not only appropriate; it is an absolute cure. After a course of it an occasional dose at intervals will forever prevent return.

Jno. M. Cox, of 735 Turk Street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been troubled with attacks of sick-headaches for the last three years from one to three times a week. Some time ago I bought two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and have only had one attack since and that was on the second day after I began using it."

A Necessity. Illustration of a woman sitting at a table, with text describing the benefits of tea.

The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal European tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe ardent lovers of tea, upon arriving in the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally, cease it altogether. This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless tea. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer tea find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate? In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark:

THE DALLES, Wasco County, Oregon. The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city. ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles. The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year. ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products. ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon. Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
