Crime Decreasing.

All the criminal returns published of late have happily tended to show that crime is decreasing. The judicial statistics for the past year bear the same testimony. Whether under the head of "criminal classes at large" or "in local and convict prisons and reformatories," the figures show a steady decline. The same is true of the houses of bad character, by which is meant such as are the resort of thieves, deprecators and suspected persons. In England and Wales there are 2,688 houses of this description.

It seems rather odd to be told that of these 2,688 are public houses and 265 beer shops, because if they are known resorts of such characters, why are their licenses not withdrawn? Is it for the reason once given by a French administrator that they serve the ends of the law by providing places where those who are wanted by the police can easily be found? The known houses of receivers of stolen goods had declined from 778 two years ago to 734 last year.—London Telegraph.

Robert Shaw, of Snow's Falls, Me., went to sleep in a field the other day, and when he awoke he was minus a good pair of trousers. Field mice, which swarm in Oxford county, had gnawed the garment into shreds and carried it away.

Recent experiments upon the electrolytic generation of pressure from gases formed in a closed space have been very successful, and a pressure of 1,900 atmospheres has been obtained.

A RACE FOR LIFE.

A gun is heard at the dead of night. "Lifeboat ready!" And every man to the signal tree fights for the place in the eager crew. "Now, lads, steady!" First a glance at the shuddering foam. Now a look at the loving home. Then together, with bated breath. They launched their boat in the ruff of death. Over the breakers wild. Little they reck of weather. But tear their way thro' blinding spray. Hear the skipper cheer and say "Up with her, lads, and lift her All together!"

They see the ship in a sudden flash. Sinking ever. And grip their oars with a deeper breath. Now it's come to a fight with death—Now or never! Fifty strokes and they're at her side. If they live in the boiling tide, If they last thro' the awful strife. Ah, my lads, it's a race for life! Over the breakers wild. Little they reck of weather. But tear their way thro' blinding spray. Hear the skipper cheer and say "Up with her, lads, and lift her All together!"

And loving hearts are on the shore. Hoping, fearing: Till over the sea there comes a cheer. Then the click of the oars you hear. Homeward steering. Ne'er a thought of the danger past. Now the lads are on land at last. Who's a storm to the gallant crew? Who runs for life, and who will it too? Over the breakers wild. Little they reck of weather. But tear their way thro' blinding spray. Hear the skipper cheer and say "Up with her, lads, and lift her All together!" J. L. Malloy in Tablet.

Pope never could compose well without first declaiming for some time at the top of his voice, and thus rousing his nervous system to its fullest activity.

SICK Head-Aches.

Sick-headaches are the outward indications of derangements of the stomach and bowels. As Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the only bowel regulating preparation of Sarsaparilla, it is seen why it is the only appropriate Sarsaparilla in sick-headaches. It is not only appropriate; it is an absolute cure. After a course of it an occasional dose at intervals will forever prevent return.

Jno. M. Cox, of 735 Turk Street, San Francisco, writes: "I have been troubled with attacks of sick-headache for the last three years from one to three times a week. Some time ago I bought two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and have only had one attack since and that was on the second day after I began using it."

A Necessity.

The consumption of tea largely increases every year in England, Russia, and the principal European tea-drinking countries. But it does not grow in America. And not alone that, but thousands of Europeans who leave Europe and emigrate to the United States gradually discontinue its use, and finally, cease it altogether.

This state of things is due to the fact that the Americans think so much of business and so little of their palates that they permit China and Japan to ship them their cheapest and most worthless teas. Between the wealthy classes of China and Japan and the exacting and cultivated tea-drinkers of Europe, the finer teas find a ready market. The balance of the crop comes to America. Is there any wonder, then, that our taste for tea does not appreciate?

In view of these facts, is there not an immediate demand for the importation of a brand of tea that is guaranteed to be uncolored, unmanipulated, and of absolute purity? We think there is, and present Beech's Tea. Its purity is guaranteed in every respect. It has, therefore, more inherent strength than the cheap teas you have been drinking, fully one third less being required for an infusion. This you will discover the first time you make it. Likewise, the flavor is delightful, being the natural flavor of an unadulterated article. It is a revelation to tea-drinkers. Sold only in packages bearing this mark.

THE DALLES, Wasco County, Oregon. The Gate City of the Inland Empire is situated at the head of navigation on the Middle Columbia, and is a thriving, prosperous city. ITS TERRITORY. It is the supply city for an extensive and rich agricultural and grazing country, its trade reaching as far south as Summer Lake, a distance of over two hundred miles. The Largest Wool Market. The rich grazing country along the eastern slope of the Cascades furnishes pasture for thousands of sheep, the wool from which finds market here. The Dalles is the largest original wool shipping point in America, about 5,000,000 pounds being shipped last year. ITS PRODUCTS. The salmon fisheries are the finest on the Columbia, yielding this year a revenue of thousands of dollars, which will be more than doubled in the near future. The products of the beautiful Klickitat valley find market here, and the country south and east has this year filled the warehouses, and all available storage places to overflowing with their products. ITS WEALTH. It is the richest city of its size on the coast and its money is scattered over and is being used to develop more farming country than is tributary to any other city in Eastern Oregon. Its situation is unsurpassed. Its climate delightful. Its possibilities incalculable. Its resources unlimited. And on these corner stones she stands.
